

Wages too High.

In last weeks issue we discussed the labor system or labor conditions in eastern Carolina. The fact that we had an unreliable labor system which was pauperizing our country. In last week's issue of the Manufacturer's Record discussing the same subject the conclusion reached is that high wages is the cause of this unreliability.

The class of people of whom we wrote are not making an effort to accumulate anything and when they have enough to supply their immediate wants they stop work. The higher wages they get the easier it is for them to stop awhile. If they can work two days in the week they have enough to live on.

The solution of the problem then seems to be the reduction of wages this is the opinion of many industrial leaders and we think there is lots of truth in it. It would seem that we were backward but this seems our only salvation—continuous, reliable labor would mean continued prosperity and general progress.

Those who make wealth should enjoy it but if they have to stop work, become loafers and destroy the whole order of industry, society and prosperity. They must be deprived of them as a little child is deprived of a razor—the only difference is the child would hurt itself, while high wages seem not only to destroy the usefulness of those who receive them but the whole industrial and social system.

This system is causing good people to leave their farms and good farms to be improperly cultivated. Every body is striving to get out of it.

Is the Manufacturer's Record right?

A Remedy Without a Peer

"I find Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets more beneficial than any other remedy I ever used for stomach trouble," says J. P. Klote, of Edina, Mo. For any disorder of the stomach, biliousness, or constipation, these Tablets are without a peer. For sale by S. R. Biggs.

BETTER AS IT IS.

On the first page of this issue you find an article headed "State the facts." We sometimes think this is the way newspapers should tell what they know about things and stop this "whitewashing" business. It has come to the point in many places now that fame is so cheap that only the rather gaudy or superficial seek to have their merit(?) told so that people who are meritorious avoid having their names with this class. Their merits are greater and they want only the truth told and it appears so small in comparison with the newspaper merits others have bestowed on them.

However if the papers went out of their way to get the truth as ways it would then seem to be sitting itself down to who could have the worst to say and become mud slinging business and have a tendency to pull the standard down.

The one trouble about this "whitewashing" is that it tends to discredit what the newspapers say about the meritorious and the undeserving get reputations that they do not appreciate and they have contempt for merit.

However it is best as it is. It tends to raise the standard and makes them shake when they think of what it would be if the truth were told. Yet those who are puffing in the paper come to think they are respected by others and have more self respect. This posing as great is a tribute to greatness but only true greatness should be recognized as such.

Are You Engaged

Engaged people should remember, that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided, by keeping their digestion in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years, my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor, and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." S. R. Biggs, druggist, sells and guarantees them, at 50c a bottle.

PEACE.

Just as we go to press the news of peace between Russia and Japan shines forth upon the world as a glorious sunshine. The "Treaty of Portsmouth" has been signed, Japan and Russia are friends and the whole world is at peace. Witte is victorious as a diplomat in not paying the indemnity demanded and ceding the island of Sakhalin to Japan. Japan claimed more than she had any hope of getting and got what she wanted, accepting it as a compromise.

Both nations are satisfied as the result of the negotiations. Japan continues its play to the world in yielding its claim to indemnity and land for sake of humanity. Russia has had her eyes opened to what a small country with a government of the people and by the people can do in war. We think the greatest result of this war will be a more liberal government for the Russian people. This means that Russia with her vast territory rich with undeveloped resources will become a most important factor in the business world.

The greatest thing about it all for us Americans is that our President was instrumental in bringing these nations together for peace. President Roosevelt has added another star to his crown and the world takes off its hat to him today as its peace maker. His greatness surpasses our conception and his power and influence in the world is greater than ever wielded by any human being. He has the undivided support and confidence of his own country and the recognition of the world as a diplomat and peacemaker.

From a business point of view this treaty of peace carries with it incalculable possibilities. Here are two vast nations whose energies have been consumed in war to be turned toward business. We predict a greater demand for raw material and a better price for farm products.

Like Finding Money

Finding health is like finding money—so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat, or chest irritation, better act promptly like W. C. Barber, of Sandy Level, Va. He says: "I had a terrible chest trouble, caused by smoke and coal dust on my lungs; but, after finding no relief in other remedies, I was cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds." Greatest sale or any cough or lung medicine in the world. At S. R. Biggs' drug store; 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Cured of Lame Back After 15 Years of Suffering

"I had been troubled with lame back for fifteen years and I found a complete recovery in the use of Chamberlain's Palm Balm," says John G. Bisher, Gillam, Ind. This liniment is also without an equal for sprains and bruises. It is for sale by S. R. Biggs.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler, of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souce meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale by S. R. Biggs.

Aunt Jerusha's Meditations.

"If folks could have their funeral when they are alive, and well and struggling along, what a help it would be!" sighed Aunt Jerusha, folding her Paisley shawl with great care. "Now there is poor Mis' Brown she added, as she pinned her Sunday Bonnet into her green veil. "How encouraged she'd have been if she could have heard what the minister said today! I wouldn't wonder one mite, she'd have got well. And Deacon Brown a-wiping his eyes, and all of them taken on so! Poor soul, she never dreamed they set so much by her!"

"Mis' Brown got discouraged. Yer see Deacon Brown, he'd got a way of blaming everything onto her. I don't suppose the deacon meant it—twas just his way—but his awful wearing. When things wore out or broke, he acted just as if Mis' Brown did it herself on purpose. And they all caught it like the measles or whooping cough."

And the minister a-telling 'how the deacon brought his young wife here when twan't nothing but a wilderness, and how patiently she bore hardships, and what a good wife she had been! Now, the minister wouldn't have known any thing about that if the deacon hadn't a told him. Dear, dear! If he'd only told Mis' Brown herself what he thought. I believe he might have saved the funeral. And when the minister said how the children would miss their mother, it seemed as though they couldn't stand it, poor things.

"Well, I guess its true enough; Mis' Brown was always doing for some of them. When they were singing about sweet rest in heaven I couldn't help thinking that that was something Mis' Brown would have to get used to, for she'd never had none of it here.

She'd have been awful pleased with the flowers. They were pretty, and no mistake. Yer see the deacon wan't never willing for her to have a flower bed. He said it was enough prettier sight to see good cabbages a-growing; but Mis' Brown always—kind of hankered after sweet-smelling things, like sweet peas, and such.

"What did you say, Levi? Most time for supper? Well, land sakes so it is. I must have got to meditating. I've just been a thinking, Levi, you needn't tell the minister anything about me. If the pancakes and pumpkin pies are good, you just say so as we go along. It ain't best to keep everything laid up for funerals!"—Word and Works and beaten, in a labor riot, until covered with sores, a Chicago street car conductor applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and was soon sound and well. "I use it in my family," writes G. I. Welch, of Tekonsha, Mich., "and find it perfect." Simple great for cuts and burns. Only 25c at S. R. Biggs' drug store.

There is talk of another passenger train for the Weldon and Kinston branch, giving a double daily service in each direction. The new train would leave Weldon each morning for Kinston about the same time the present passenger train leaves Kinston for Weldon and would return here at about six or seven o'clock in the evening.

This would be a very convenient schedule for every one living along the line and for people who travel between Weldon and Kinston.—Roanoke News.
This would be good news if it came from the proper authorities but they have nothing whatever to say about it. The A. C. L. Railroad Co. is extremely selfish making no more effort to accommodate the people than is necessary fighting to the most bitter end all authority attempted to be exerted by the government in any way, the Selma connection is a good example. This road is declaring dividends.

Is it Right.

Is it right that a property-owner should lose $4.20 to let a dealer make 50 cents? A dealer makes 50 cents more on fourteen gallons of ready for use paint, at $1.50 per gallon, than our agent does on eight gallons of L. & M. paint and six gallons of linseed oil, which make fourteen gallons of the best paint in the world, at $1.20 per gallon the property-owner loses just $4.20. Is it right. It only requires 4 gallons of L. & M. and 3 gallons of linseed oil to paint a moderate sized house. Ten thousand churches painted with Longmans & Martinez L. & M. Paint. Liberal quantity given to churches when bought from—S. R. Biggs.
