

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries. It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail. Home of Swamp-Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

COST OF EUROPEAN TOUR.

Total Spent by Travellers on the Continent is Enormous.

American tourists who are spreading themselves over Europe little realize how carefully the money which they and others may spend is reckoned up in the various countries they patronize. The total spent by the tourists of all nations in a year makes a very considerable budget. The German statistician has just been giving his brain over the exact amount. Here are some of the figures: Switzerland during the year has 3,000,000 visitors, who spend $50,000,000. Italy, the Riviera and Spain between them net $60,000,000. The various great capitals take in all $25,000,000, culled from the pockets of the 900,000 visitors to Paris, the 600,000 to London, the 500,000 to Berlin, the 350,000 to Vienna and so forth. Baths and seaside resorts have herds of visitors, who spend more than $18,000,000.

Boils Without Fire. Tinned meats for the Russian troops are prepared by a process which enables the contents of each tin to be served hot without a fire. This boon is secured by having the ordinary tin filled with food "jacketed" in patent tins. The patent tin contains water, together with a chemical mixture, by means of which the water can be raised to boiling point in 10 minutes or a quarter of an hour. All that is necessary to do when it is desired to heat the food is to puncture the top of the patent tin, the chemical mixture being thereby forced into the water, which soon begins to boil.

Commissions in U. S. Army and Navy. To be eligible to enter West Point the candidate must be between 17 and 22 years of age. After two years' service, enlisted men from the army and marine corps may take an examination for appointment in the regular army or navy as second Lieutenants. A large number have been appointed commissioned officers from private life during the past few years. Warrant officers in the navy may apply for examination as ensigns.

Gloves Meet New Conditions. A size 6 glove to-day is larger than a size 6 glove five years ago, and this applies to all the sizes made. The explanation is that ladies' hands have grown larger than they used to be, through their practice of cycling, golfing, hockey, etc., but they do not like to admit it so the glove makers meet the new conditions and yet avoid hurting the vanity of their customers.—Westminster Gazette.

Lincoln's Unhonored Passes. Lincoln's humor got him out of trying situations and tempered his refusal of favors, as happened during the civil war when a gentleman asked him for a pass through the federal lines to Richmond. "I should be happy to oblige you," said Lincoln, "if my passes were respected. But the fact is, within the last two years I have given passes to Richmond to 250,000 men, and not one has got there yet."

PENCILINGS.

All boys who pursue their studies are not able to catch up.

Some men stop drinking for the pleasure of beginning once more.

Friendship is one of the things that cannot be preserved in alcohol.

A busy person isn't necessarily industrious. Gossips are always busy.

Neighborly sympathy, as a rule, turns out to be about nine-tenths curiosity.

When a man marries for money he has to work overtime trying to collect his salary.

While the pessimist sees only the thorns on the rose the optimist sees only the rose on the thorns.

This would be a pleasant old world if men would pay their debts as cheerfully as they pay grudges.

Every candidate for a back township office imagines the country will go to the dogs if he isn't elected.

Some people are not only at home when opportunity knocks but they are prepared to seize it and drag it inside behind doors locked with a combination known only to themselves.

Made Shirt in 6 Minutes. During a recent visit made by an English social reformer to a shirt factory the foreman started a piece of cloth on the rounds and made it come out a finished shirt in just six minutes. Seven girls worked on the shirt. One machine made 16,800 button-holes in a day, of twenty-eight a minute. In ten hours in this shop a man can cut 250 dozen, or 3,000 shirts.

Discovery of Alum. Alum is one of the latest mineral substances of value to be added to the list credited to Colorado. A blanket deposit four feet thick and of great width has been discovered a few miles east of Florence, and it is pronounced to be of high commercial quality. This is the first discovery of alum in Colorado.

A Grave His Pillow. Charles Edward Herrell who died recently at Berryville, Va., had not slept in a bed or in a house for 30 years. During all that time he never had a day's sickness. In the summer he slept under a tree or in cemeteries using a grave as a pillow, and in winter he slept in an open shed.

$5,000,000 FOR VENICE CHURCH.

Remarkable Will of Italian Prince Was Made in 1402.

In 1403 the Italian Prince Giovannielli made a will leaving his fortune to his direct descendants, and in case of the extinction of the principal line, to the offspring of the younger branch. There was added, however, a codicil, which was only to be opened on the extinction of the direct branch. This event occurred a few days ago, and on opening the codicil it was found that the fortune was left to the Church of St. Mark in Venice. This bequest, which by this time amounts to over $5,000,000, is now being disputed by a postal official of Naples named Giovanelli.

Wives of Russian Priests. A white Russian priest must be married, but he cannot marry a second time. If his wife dies he must enter a monastery. Hence the Russians tell many stories of the extraordinary means to which the priests resort in guarding the health of their wives. If the priest's consort sneezes, a mild panic ensues in the household.—The World's Work.

Do Nothing Without Thought. People often make the excuse that they have had memories when the truth is they are too slovenly to use their brains. Nothing, however insignificant should be done without reflection. First thoughts are often best, but it is sometimes not until we have thought many times that we can make them so.

Chautauqua Assembly. The Chautauqua assembly is held at Fair Point, at the western shore of Lake Chautauqua in western New York. It started 21 years ago this summer, and was originated by Rev. Dr. John H. Vincent who was then the Sunday school secretary of the Methodist Episcopal church and later a bishop in that denomination.

Wasting and Overeating. When it happened that a child could not eat all that was set before it, the mother said: "It is wicked to be so wasteful. Think how many hundreds of little children there are who are starving." As if, by overeating, her own child could make the hunger of others less terrible.

Columbus Statue. The Columbus statue in front of the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, Boston, was modelled and cast in bronze under the direction of Rev. John O'Brien of East Cambridge. The granite was furnished, cut, and erected by J. J. Hogan, of Cambridgeport, Oct. 20, 1892.

215,000 Tons of Macaroni. Italy produces annually 215,000 tons of macaroni, in 5,500 factories, employing 1,500 persons. The exports of macaroni are about 20,000 tons, of which America gets 60 per cent, at an average price of 6.5 cents a pound. It is made from the hard wheat of Russia.

New Gem Discovery. An extraordinary discovery of rubies, sapphires and emeralds has been made at Pichsburg, in the Orange River Colony. Nearly a bucketful of these precious stones, totaling 380 karats, was exhibited to the shareholders of the company owning the ground as the result of the wash of two loads of earth.

To Govern Ourselves. If people would only give as much thought to governing themselves as they do to the government of the nation, the welfare of all would be assured.

To Find Your Own Opinion. Schopenhauer said: "If you want to find out your real opinion of any one, observe the impression made upon you by the first sight of a letter from him."

Cactus in Australia. The government of Queensland offers a prize of $25,000 for a method of exterminating the opuntia species of cactus imported from America.

Prussian Railway Investment. The Prussian State railway system contains 21,104 miles of track and its net earnings for one year were $140,000,000, being 10 to 12 per cent. on the investment.

Industrial Schools in Saxony. Saxony has seven special industrial schools founded for the sole purpose of training locksmiths and blacksmiths.

Rubber Market of Antwerp. Every year 5,000 tons of Congo rubber are sold in the market of Antwerp. This rubber is gathered by natives, who get 50 cents a week and pay their own expenses.

Size of the Oceans. The Pacific ocean contains an area of 80,000,000 square miles. Atlantic 40,000,000. Indian 30,000,000. Southern about 10,000,000. Arctic 5,000,000.

Germany's Dormant Water Power. Measures are being taken by the German government to exploit the now dormant water powers of the country on a large scale.

Life of Partings and Meetings. Life made up of partings and meetings. But it usually happens that we part with those we love and meet only boys.

A Statue 6,000 Years Old. There is a statue made of sycamore wood in the museum of Gizeh nearly 6,000 years old, which is reported to be sound and natural in appearance.

Scandinavian Immigrants Best. The Canadian authorities say that the best immigrants that come to the country are from Norway and Sweden.

Got Off Cheap. He may well think, he has got off cheap, who, after having contracted constipation or indigestion, is still able to perfectly restore his health. Nothing will do this but Dr. King's New Life Pills. A quick, pleasant, and certain cure for headache constipation, etc. 25c at S. R. Biggs' drug store; guaranteed.

Parting Salutations.

A Turk will solemnly cross his hands on his breast and make a profound obeisance when he bids you farewell.

The genial Japanese will take his slipper off as you depart, and say, with a smile: "You are going to leave my delectable house in your honorable journeying—I regard thee!"

The Filipino's parting benediction is bestowed by rubbing his friend's face with his hand. The German "Leben Sie wohl" is not particularly sympathetic in its sound, but it is less embarrassing to those it speaks than the performance of the Hindu, who, when you go from him, falls in the dust at your feet. Fiji Islanders cross two red feathers. Natives of New Guinea exchange chocolates. The Burmese bend low and say, "Hib, hib!"

The South Sea Islanders rattle each other's whale-tooth necklaces. The Russian form of parting salutation is brief, consisting of the single word, "Praschall," which sounds like a sneeze.

The Oshetite Islander will twist the ends of the departing guest's robe and then solemnly shake his two hands three times.

The Piccadilly tribe of white men say, "Ta, ta, old fellow!"—Tit-Bits.

Old Time Baseball.

The rules of the game were similar to those used in the "New York game," as our now national game was then called, except in the manner of scoring runs. In some sections it was the rule that when a long hit was made, or the ball lost, the batsman could make not more than one run, while in other localities the runner could make as many as he was able, as in cricket. That is, he could keep tearing around the bases, rolling up runs, until the ball was put in play. I recall one game in which, when my side had a good lead, an opposing batsman hit the ball into some tall grass near second base. We "out" lost sight of it, but the batsman did not, and, unseen by us, picked it up and kept on running until his side had a safe lead. When the Massachusetts schoolboys were playing their brand of ball, the New York game was the game in general vogue throughout the country, and this style of playing gradually replaced the other in New England.—Outing.

Forgot His Message.

"I was spending some time at White Sulphur Springs, Va.," said I. W. Read of Nashville, "and one afternoon a handsome young woman and her little six-year-old son sat near me on the veranda. The little fellow trotted up to me and I patted him on the head. 'What's your name?' he asked. I told him. 'Is your name?' he asked. 'No, I'm not,' I replied. Then the child paused a moment and, turning to his mother, said, 'Mamma, what else did you tell me to ask him?'"

Great Salt Deposits of Oklahoma.

Oklahoma has enough salt to supply the markets of the world. The great salt reserve in the western part of the territory contains salt that is of illimitable depth and inexhaustible supply. Saline deposits are found in various parts of Western Oklahoma, and the manufacture of salt is destined to be one of the great industries of that future State.

Railroad Stations.

The Boston terminal station on South Union station covers an area of 508,430 square feet. The train shed is 720 feet long and 570 feet wide. It contains 33 tracks. The Union station in St. Louis covers an area of 497,092 square feet. The train shed is 700 feet long and 600 feet wide. It contains 30 tracks.

Winston Churchill of England.

Winston Churchill of England is described as "not so well dressed as Mr. Chamberlain once was, not so small as Lord Rosebery, not so handsome as Sir Edward Grey, not so intellectual as Mr. Morley." And it is added that he is "the most compelling youthful figure in modern politics. The blond of the schoolboy, the prize fighter, his face speaks it—and the fanatic is a strong one, and that almost sums up Mr. Churchill. He is the only man living who will be able to compete with Mr. Chamberlain in appealing to the sporting instincts and the ideals of the working classes. He is essentially a democrat—a demagogue, if you like—as his father was before him. There is no Parrellette aloofness about him; he is never so happy as when down among the crowd; he would make a splendid president of the United States, shaking hands with all and sundry."

TACTICS UNDER WATER.

What the Shell Fish do to Protect Themselves From Enemies.

Certain species of crabs cover themselves with sea weed in order to deceive their foes. One crab was seen by the naturalist, Blag in 1875 to pluck off zoophytes from plants—animal colonies which grow on shells and stones, and to fix them on the spines and hairs of its shell. A still deeper resource of defensive tactics is to be found in the case of certain hermit crabs. They live in the cast-off shells of whelks and crawl about, house on back. One claw is bigger than the other, and this is an adaptation for when the crab retires into its house the bigger claw is tucked across the mouth of the shell to bar the way against a possible intruder. More curious still is the habit of one species which toils along with a sea anemone fixed to his shell, like Slinbad carrying the Old Man of the Sea. Great care is taken of this creature. It is fed by the crab and if the latter has to seek a new shell by reason of its growth he tenderly shifts his tenant off the old abode and places him on the new one.

PENCILINGS.

Life is a game of promise and take.

It is easy to begin loafing but it's hard to stop.

A hitch in a love affair often prevents a matrimonial affair.

Some men find it easier to dodge an obligation than to meet it.

Fortune is the only knocker that a man likes to see at his door.

Some men think more than they say and some say more than they think.

People who look over the affairs of others are very apt to overlook their own.

Men who imagine the world owes them a living try to collect it a loaf at a time.

If a man is hard on his children he is usually an easy mark for his grandchildren.

The garrulous man never knows enough about any question to put up an interesting argument.

A young married couple's first quarrel usually begins with an argument about how to avoid quarrels.

American Architecture.

Some of the private houses of settled and cultured people in Boston, New York, Baltimore and Washington are as good as our best. One of the most refined and dignified of their great homes is the White House. Compared with tawdry oppressive glitter and real vulgarity of some of our palaces the White House is a model of what a home for the President of a great people should be.—C. Ronley, of the Moseley Commission.

New Ideas at Right Time.

When a man with ideas complains that he is disregarded, as a crank, he has probably failed to discover that the habits of the world are largely assumed as the result of experience. It is enough to give utterance to new ideas in order that they may become effective when they grow old. Only once in a thousand times does a man hit upon the psychological moment for a revolution. The world cannot be forced, but at the right time it enthusiastically follows an able leader.

A Dull Speaker.

Of an eminent English statesman who was a very dull speaker Lord Ashbourne once told this story: "He was making a very full speech one evening, when I remarked to a member of the cabinet on the dreariness of the performance. 'He is an admirable man,' was the reply. 'I wish we had him.' 'What would you do with him?' 'Do with him? Send him to Ireland of course. He would disperse any unlawful assembly in five minutes.'"

Asphalt in 1838.

Asphalt was first used for street pavements in Paris in 1838 and since then the demand for this purpose has warranted an annual production throughout the world of 450,000 to 500,000 metric tons of asphalt and bituminous rock. The consumption in the United States alone in one year was over 250,000 tons, which is equivalent to more than one-half the average production in the world.
