

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling how Swamp-Rooting all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

TESSA'S THANKSGIVING.

The girl's face flushed as she nodded him a gay assent. And Dino? How frightened he was when he found Tessa and the baby gone. Though half-famished, he had no heart to eat the food he had bought with his scanty wages. He rushed into the street, and through all the alleys and stairways and stores. But no Tessa could be found. Finally, worn out and sick at heart, Dino went back to the cold, dismal little room, threw himself on the bed, and cried bitterly until he fell asleep.

The door opening wakened him. In an instant Tessa's arms were about his neck, and she was pouring into his bewildered ears the whole story. When she stopped a moment for breath, Dr. Winthrop gently placed it all, and giving money to buy coal, promised that to-morrow he would come again.

Was there ever such a Thanksgiving Day as Tessa had—or such a dinner as that they ate with Dr. Winthrop and Miss Maxwell in the clean, new rooms made ready for them? How Dino's heart nearly burst with joy when the doctor told him that, if he wished, he should be a gardener at the great Winthrop country place up the river. And Tessa and the baby should be with him, for there was a little cottage covered with roses where Tessa could dream that she was back in Italy. "If he wished!" Why, so the blessed Madonna gave him the dream of his life.

But why, after her first cry of joy, did Tessa's eyes fill with tears. "Like you it not, Tessa, mia?" asked Dino anxiously.

"It is all beautiful," she whispered, "only—I would wish to be near my dear lady."

Then the doctor laughed and Miss Clarice blushed like a sweet rose as he told them that last night she had promised to live in the great house by the river; only she would not be Miss Clarice any longer, but the doctor's wife.

Dino's face shone with joy. "It is as the saints would have it," he cried.

But Tessa's cup of delight was too full for words. She could only snatch up baby Tito and smother him with kisses. For was it not he that had brought her all the joy of this wonderful Thanksgiving—Ethel Speir.

Thanksgiving Party Game.

A pretty game for very little guests is the "Mulberry Tree." It is a game of action, picturesque and having an accompanying rhyme for repetition. They can learn the verses in a few trials, for they are not so long as most kindergarten songs.

Select two children from the company and let them divide the others into two groups, each leader alternately choosing a child. One of the leaders represents the "mulberry tree" and the other "the hill." The tree stands near one end of the room and the hill quite at the other. The tree's children are all mulberries, and they stand about her in a circle, each with one hand touching the shoulder, chest or back, and the child ahead. The remaining band of children are "birds," and they stand in a corner of the room at the end where the trees and berries are. First the berries chant:

Oh, mulberry tree, so green, so green,
May we taste of your berries sweet?
And the tree replies:
"Nay, I can't spare one till summer is done."
And they drop to the ground at my feet."

Whereupon the birds cry, warningly:
"Then fall, pretty berries, for eat you we will."
Here come the birds—wide open each bill."

And they rush forward, while the berries, releasing their hold from the tree, run toward the hill in the effort to touch her hand and get back to the tree before the birds catch them. As the chase begins all or only the tree and hill unite in crying:
"Away, little berries, over the hill and back to the mulberry tree."
When all the "berries" have been caught they become "birds." As the catching progresses the prisoners stand apart and wait for all of their side to be captured.

In At The Finish.

Mr. Short—Is there any of that turkey left?
Mrs. Short—Nothing but the bill.

No Tabloid Birds.

"There are only three of us in the family," said the customer, "and a five-pound turkey for Thanksgiving would be all we could possibly manage."
"You'll have to take a real turkey," briskly replied the dealer. "We don't keep 'em in tabloid form."

WORLD'S OLDEST INDUSTRY.

Manufacture of Gun Flints—Still Used in Africa and Asia.

Probably the oldest established business in the world is at Brandon, in Suffolk, where the manufacture of gun flints has been carried on as the successor to the prehistoric manufacture of arrow heads from the same material. It is estimated that for more than ten thousand years flint working has been carried on at that spot; the only change made since those early days being in the introduction of metal tools for working the flint in place of the stone and horn of the average.

Gun flints are still in use in various parts of Asia and Africa, where the possession of percussion cartridges is forbidden to the natives. The average weekly production is still 150,000, though in the days when the flint lock was the universal arm millions were turned out weekly, since Brandon is noted as producing the best flints made.

Gun flints are not the only product, however, for in Latin Europe the "strike-a-light" is still given the preference over matches, and about twenty thousand a week are manufactured for the Italian and Spanish trade. During the Boer war 14,000 flints were issued to the British troops and were found valuable in emergencies when the ordinary match would not have served.

The strata of flint are in five layers on Llugheath Common, a mile south-east of the village. Each miner works by himself, employing the same methods as were followed by the earlier workmen, the ground being uncovered in layers "strata," that the dirt may be carried away without the use of windlase and buckets.

The product is sold to the chipper, who work at their homes in the village. In spite of the fact that each blow of the hammer is from a different angle and is struck with various force, the workman instinctively guides the chisel and the flakes fall into the baskets in an almost continuous stream. They are shaped with a chisel-like hammer on a block of iron and are then packed into barrels containing from 5,000 to 20,000 each.

Child Marriages in India.

More than 250,000 girls in India, 5 years of age or less, were already married when the last census was taken, and of these necessarily many have become widows. Between 5 and 10 years the number of married girls was well over 2,000,000, between 10 and 15 years it had risen to nearly 7,000,000. Of course, to the girls in the first two categories marriage meant nothing more than a contract entered into for them by others, long before they themselves were capable of understanding it; many of them had been bound by engagements when they were still children in arms; some had even been betrothed before they were born.

Most of the widows of such tender years become so before they know what widowhood means. It is only as they grow out of infancy that they learn the sad life to which they are condemned, a life of misery which is inconceivable to people of western countries, yet is enforced by Hindu customs. It is a life of hardship, of unmerited shame, of irksome penances and of wearisome attendance at religious functions.

Though the English law in India would recognize the legality of a remarriage of these youthful widows, inexcusable custom forbids it and its occurrence is rare. There were in India in 1901 nearly 426,000 widows under 15 years of age, of which nearly 20,000 were less than 5 years old.

Measuring Eye Jumps.

We know that an eye, at ordinary reading distance, takes in about one inch of a line at a time and that in reading a line of an ordinary book the eye makes five or six (more or less, according to the length of the line) distinct jumps. But how many know what direction the eye takes in making these jumps? And, as the movements are so very minute and rapid, how have they been studied? A very ingenious means has been employed, as follows:

A beam of light is thrown upon the cornea of the eye under examination, and this beam is reflected by the cornea on to a photographic plate. As the eye moves in reading the reflected beam also moves, and upon developing the plate, which is also kept moving, a zigzag line is found. A study of such photographic tracings shows that the eyes in turning back to pick up the next line have some difficulty in so doing.

The longer the line of print the greater the effort, and for this reason we may conclude that a narrow line is better for an eye than a long one, and if the line be much wider than the ordinary newspaper column there is greater effort involved.—Jewelers' Circular Weekly.

Whale Meat Instead of Beef.

Newfoundland is developing a new industry, in the form of selling whale meat in place of beef. One of the dealers says that the new meat tastes more like venison than beef, and plans are already being made to ship some to England, where it is expected that it will sell for at least 12 cents a pound.

Longest Submarine Tunnel.

The longest submarine tunnel in the world runs beneath the River Severn. The total length of it is four miles six hundred and twenty-four yards, and of this two and a quarter miles lie from forty-five feet to one hundred feet below the estuary of the river already named.

A Shark's Human Prey.

On cutting open a shark, 16 feet long, caught in the Bay of Naples, some fishermen the other day found inside the monster's stomach the body of a boy of 8 years who had been missing from his home for some days.—London Chronicle.

It is difficult to cure a cold or free yourself from the discomforts of a cold unless you move the bowels. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar acts on the bowels and drives all cold out of the system. CURES AFTER THE DOCTORS HAVE FAILED.

RHEUMACIDE has cured thousands of cases of Rheumatism after all the doctors and all other means had failed. Rheumacide cured John F. Elins and others, of Baltimore, after the famous specialists of Johns Hopkins Hospital, the greatest hospital in the world, had failed. Rheumacide cured Austin Percelle, of Salem, Va., and D. H. Olmstead, the Norfolk, Va., contractor, after they had spent large sums on other remedies and the doctors had given up hope. Rheumacide cured Mrs. Mary Weiborn, of High Point, N. C., of rheumatism she had endured for 20 years. Rheumacide cured W. R. Hughes, of Atkins, Va., after the most famous New York specialists failed. There is a reason why it cures: Rheumacide is the latest discovery of medical science, and while powerful enough to sweep all germs and poisons out of the blood, it operates by purely natural methods, does not injure the most delicate stomach, and builds up the entire system.

DRAGGING

down pains are a symptom of the most serious trouble which can attack a woman, viz: falling of the womb. With this, generally, come irregular, painful, scanty or profuse periods, wasteful, weakening drains, dreadful backache, headache, nervousness, dizziness, irritability, tired feeling, inability to walk, loss of appetite, color and beauty. The cure is that marvelous, curative extract, or natural essence, of herbs, which exerts such a wonderful strengthening influence on all female organs. Cardui relieves pain, regulates the menses, stops drains and stimulates the muscles to pull the womb up into place. It is a safe and permanent cure for all female complaints.

WINE OF CARDUI

WRITE US A LETTER in strictest confidence, telling us all your troubles. We will send free advice (in plain sealed envelope). Address: Ladies' Advisory Dept., The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

"I SUFFERED AWFUL PAIN in my womb and ovaries," writes Mrs. Naomi Baker, of Webster Groves, Mo., "and my menses were very painful and irregular. Since taking Cardui I feel like a new woman, and do not suffer as I did."

ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup

Pleasant to take and does not gripe or nauseate

Cures Chronic Constipation, Stomach and Liver Trouble

Stimulation Without Irritation.

ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup is a new laxative syrup combined with the delicious flavor of fruits, and is very pleasant to take. It will not gripe or sicken. It is much more pleasant and effective than Pills, Tablets and Saline Waters, as it does not derange the Stomach, or irritate the Kidneys, Liver or Bowels.

Constipation.

ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup will positively cure chronic constipation as it restores the natural action of the intestinal tract. Ordinary cathartics may give temporary relief but the stomach is upset and the bowels are irritated without any permanent benefit having been derived.

The condition of the patient remains unchanged. The Stomach, Liver and Bowels have not been stimulated and in a few days a stronger purgative may have to be taken. This is why Pills and Aperient Waters never give permanent relief. Their violent action results in an unnatural movement of the bowels and it is necessary to keep taking them indefinitely.

Why ORINO is different.

ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup is the only preparation that really acts upon all of the digestive organs. Other preparations act upon the lower bowel only and do not touch the Liver. It can very readily be seen that a preparation that does not act upon all of the digestive organs can not cure Chronic Constipation, Torpid Liver, Indigestion, Sour Stomach, etc.

For Biliouness and Sick Headache.

Take ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup. It sweetens the stomach, aids digestion and acts as a gentle stimulant on the liver and bowels without irritating these organs.

Clears the Complexion.

ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup stimulates the liver and thoroughly cleanses the system and clears the complexion of pimples and blotches. It is the best laxative for women and children as it is mild and pleasant, and does not gripe or sicken. Refuse substitutes.

OUR GUARANTEE Take ORINO Laxative Fruit Syrup and if you are not satisfied your money will be refunded.
