use Stieff pianos because they best stand the constant use of students. Let us show you what College Presidents say about it.

When you buy a Stieff piano, you buy from the maker and save the dealer's profit.

No other piano stands our climatic changes like the Stieff.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

—Watch the straws.
—Read the new ads. in this issue.
—Be a Chulo. See the ad of L. E. Corey in this issue.

—Today is George Washington's birthday and the banks are all closed.

—The Brass Band is an assured fact. The instruments will be ordered now in a few days.

—Deeds of Trust, Warranted Deeds, Crop Liens, Chattel Mortgages, order Books, etc., printed for sale at this office.

—Miss Hyman one of the efficient teachers of the graded school had to dismiss her class yesterday morning on account of being ill.

—The skating rink is now running in full blast. The floor is in good condition and the young people are enjoying themselves immensely.

—The Dora Mystic Lindley Co. will be at the Opera House three nights next week, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

—Messer. Brown and Roberson the "up-to-date Ladies' and Gents' Furnishers have a very attractive ad. in this issue. Read what they have to say.

—There will be something doing at the Opera House Monday night, Tuesday night and Wednesday. There is a treat in store for those who go.

—The regular meeting of the W. O. W. to night at eight o'clock. Let every member be present as there is work to do. By order of the Consul Commander, John R. Pope, Clerk.

—There has been some question as to where to locate the artesian well. This is to be settled in the near future. The town commissioners have agreed to pay the expenses of a United States Geologist to come down and locate the well.

—Mrs. W. Andrew Cherry died rather suddenly Tuesday afternoon at her home over the creek. She had been in bad health for a long time but her death was not expected at the time. She was about 65 years old. Our sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

—The Dora Mystic Lindley Co. will be at the Opera House three nights next week. Harry Lindley is with this company and the theatre going public need no introduction to him. Harry Lindley is the best comedian that has been to this burg in years.

—Messrs. T. S. Graham and W. T. Meadows, two of Williamston's hustling warehousemen, have been distributing tobacco seeds to the farmers making application for same. These gentlemen give as their opinion that there will be more tobacco planted this season than ever before in the history of the county.

—Sometime Sunday the Roanoke Warehouse was entered by miscreants and the skates belonging to Messrs. Meadows and Graham the gentlemen who are running the skating rink, were broken up. The devils whoever they were were not satisfied with hammering the skates out of shape, but took off the wheels and scattered wheels and balls all over the skating floor. The owners of the skating rink think they have spotted the little fellows, but will not make any move toward prosecution until they complete their evidence.

Mr. F. F. Fagan, the genial cashier of the Farmers & Merchants Bank, went to Plymouth Sunday night to fix up papers to have Frank Short's alias "Missouri Shorty", arrested for the robbery of the Plymouth Postoffice in 1898. Frank Short is now serving in the South Carolina penitentiary and his time will be out on next Monday, when he will be arrested and taken to Washington county for trial. The robbery was committed on the 14th of June 1898, at 1:46 a. m., the clock on the wall of the office having stopped when the explosion occurred that blew open the safe. Mr. Fagan was at that time assistant postmaster at Plymouth.

A BUGGY FACTORY

$5,000 Capital—Order for Material to be Given at Once

The buggy factory for Williams is now an assured fact, the stock has been subscribed, and the material for the plant will be ordered at once. The capital stock of this company is $5,000.

Mr. John Z. Gardner, a fine finisher, and who has been with the Flannigan Buggy Company, of Greenville, for ten years or more will be in charge of the plant.

Efforts are being made to secure the Newberry stable for the home of this new enterprise. The company will make a high grade buggy, and will do all kinds of buggy and carriage repairing.

The following are the stockholders: Messrs. T. J. Smith, J. G. Godard, Wheeler Martin, Geo. W. Blount, J. G. Staton, S. A. Newell and S. J. Everett.

Seriously Injured

Mr. Geo. Gardner, employed in the log woods by Mr. W. W. Griffin, contractor for the Dennis Simons Lumber Co., was seriously injured Monday morning about nine o'clock near Cedar Landing.

A large tree fell on Mr. Gardner breaking his back and his thigh in two places. Drs. Warren and Rhodes were called to the injured man, and did all possible for his comfort. The injured man is in a precarious condition and suffering greatly.

Trestle Burned

Last Tuesday morning the passenger train was several hours late. The lateness of the train was due to the burning out of the trestle between Jamesville and Dardens. The trestle was burned sometime during Monday night. The cause of the fire has not been ascertained.

The officials at Rocky Mount were notified early Tuesday morning of the destruction of the trestle and immediately sent out a work train to repair same. The work train passed here about eight o'clock in the morning and had repaired the trestle sufficiently for the passenger train to pass in a short time.

Senator Tillman has acquired the degree of D. C. F. I. Doctor of corn Field Law.

News From Everetts

Mrs. W. H. Holliday who has been sick for two weeks or more is much improved.

Messrs. Bailey & Barnhill have moved into their new brick store which was recently completed. This is a most enterprising firm and have met with wonderful success, as their handsome two-story building attests. The building is 30 X 90 feet and the interior arrangement is excellent.

Death of Mrs. Wm. Roberson

The remains of Mrs. Wm. Roberson nee Miss Rosa White, daughter of Mr. Mc. G. White were brought to this place Saturday night for interment. The burial services were conducted Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Elder Sylvester Hassell of Williamston, and the remains laid to rest in the family burying ground.

Mrs. Roberson's death was a sad blow to her friends here. She had been sick only four or five days of pneumonia. She was a great favorite among the young people of this community and beloved by all who knew her. She was only about 22 years old and had been married about a year. She leaves a husband and an infant.

Mr. Roberson was taken with pneumonia a few days before his wife and was seriously ill at the time of her death. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the young husband and the family in their bereavement.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Made from Pure Grape Cream of Tartar

The only excuse for buying anything but a Pure Grape Cream of Tartar Baking Powder is to save a few cents in price.

ROYAL costs you a few cents more per can than Alum or Phosphate of Lime powders, but it is worth far more than the difference to keep your biscuits, cakes and pastry free from the injurious effects of these cheapening substitutes.

Continued use of Alum means permanent injury to health.
