Ganderbone's December Forecast

(Copyright 1907 by C. H. Rieth.)

December of the drifting sno And yule-log blazing bright; December, when the cold winds blov Across the fields of white; When winter's ring is in the ground And the nights are clear and still, And the boys go belly-buster down The slick and shiny hill.

December of the Christmas tree And childhood's brightest dream; ecember of the ecstacy Of hallowed Christmas e'en;

When the last sweet lullaby is sung And children's whispers cease, And the wee sweet stockings all are strung

Along the mantle piece December of the drum and horn And bundles slyly hid; December of the one great morn Of mornings for a kid; When the chimes of sweet and mellos

Are welcoming the dawn, And the house rocks with the merry yell Of kids with nighties on December was the ninth month in the old Roman calendar, and its name is from decem(ten). When Julius Ceaser became Big Stick of the empire, the month contained but twenty-nine days. He added two more-one more to make ready for Christmas, and another to recover from it. Christmas gifts originated with the Greeks, hence the saying, "Beware of the Creeks bearing gitts." Santa Claus was invented by the toy manufacturers of Neuremburg, Germany, where the Teddy-Bears came from.

The motto for this month will be 'Shut the door!" Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Bryan will be the leading presidential candidates, and prohibition will continue the burning issue. The liquor interests will build walls around Peoria, Ill. St. Louis, Louisville and Milwaukee, and their war balloon will make daily observations of the movements of Mrs. Nation

The Anti Saloon League has consented to let the Winter Solstice of this year begin at 7 p. m. on the 22d; but there must be no drinking, and every one must be in by the Curfew.
