VOL. IX. - NO. 24

WILLIAMSTON, N. C., FRIDAY, MARCH 6 1908

WHOLE NO. 417

Ganderbone's March Forecast

The ideas of March will come again, When Caesar's blood was let; The toes of Bryan will hide out Behind the parapet; And when he sees them lurking there, He'll guess their fell intent And run just like his friends all hope He'll run for President.

The candidates Republican will pass the stand again, and the portly form of Mr. Taft will show a handsome gain; the whiskerlets of Mr. Hughes will float upon the breeze the fleet that sailed Magellan's Straits will cruise the western seas; the infant boom of Cortelyou will grimly yield the ghost, and the fleet will run the banquets on the other Latin coast.

Another lot of foreign counts, and busted sports and old, will come across to marry more of our dead easy gold; a count will marry a million cool, and a discount two or three, and gold and girl (and horse laugh loud) they'll all put out to sea; and while the Goulds give Boni one—just one—more chance, alack, we'll all steal off and kick ourselves quite low down on the back.

The country papers will get used To Uncle Sam's mandate That they may not hold readers who

Are not paid up to date: But the Government will not assist

At squaring things, somehow, With old subscribers made so mad They never will pay now

March was the first month of the Roman year, and was named from Mars, the god of war. Mars looked like a twin brother to Richard P. Hobson, and he was the regular Roman delegate to the Peace conference at The Hague. He was supposed to be the father of Romulus, the founder of Rome, but he not; he was only the young man's godfather. In ancient warfare it was customary to place a good bronze bust of Mars on the field and then fight for it.

The comedy of life will be about what it has been—the men will labor day and night, and the wives of men will spin. They'll have a club for every day, and never cease to go; they'll learn to talk of many themes their husbands do not know; they'll hear a lecturer from Greece another on Japan, another on the Renaissance, and several on man; they'll hire a lot of long-haired freaks to make them erudite, they'll work on papers every morn, and look up things at night; and their husbands will get supper cold and suffer ridicule—and the children will grow up like wolves, while Mama goes to school.

The money indiscreetly loaned Will faithfully keep Lent, And a lady teacher will sit on, The pin when it is bent; But when the principal responds To screams heard through the house, She'll not tell him what happened, but Will sav she saw a mouse.

Until the 21st, March will be under the influence of the zodiacal sign known as Pisces the Fish Pisces will induce his relative, Stuyvesant Fish, to take the Illinois Central fight into the U S Supreme Court where E. H. Harriman will be ditched with two bum lamps, a derailed back-bone, and a swift kick in the caboose.

After the 21st, March will be under the influence of Aries, the sign of the Head. Under this sign, old heads will come to the front in the presidential race, and Uncle Joe Cannon will come out of last place and make the President put two more burrs in the spacious bosom of Mr. Taft's pants.

Persons born under Pisces drink like a fish and vote wet. They make excellent subordinates, like Friday and Loeb They can say no and it is futile to expose them to any more life insurance, for they won't take it. They are very cautious, and always take seats near the fire escape.

Persons born under Artes always think before speaking, and then never say anything. They are good organizers and generally belong to the Anti-Saloon League. They make good lawyers, and generally get the case continued until they can elect the prosecuting attorney.

The Vernal Equinox will come, And the Irish will parade; The booming bullfrog will resume His music in the glade. The mole will burrow in the lawn, And the rash duck hunter toot His caller while pneumonia drills A leak hole in his boot.

And then the gentle spring will come and the poet will essay, with swelling breast and bliss his bum and Museattended lay; the rooster will announce the dawn, and the hen will scratch the dirt, and everybody will put on a thinner undershirt. The sassafras will brew again to tone the system rank, and the washout will upset the train and throw it down the bank; the gander and the goose will moult, the meadow will be wet

A GIRL'S LETTER.

Miss Rose Hurst, 233 Harris Street, Appleton, Wis., writes something of interest to All Women.

Read What She Says:

441 WANT to say a word for Peruna for systemic catarrh and trust others who read this may try it and receive the same good from it that I did. "I had been ailing for a long time and nothing seemed to do me any good, although I tried many doctors and many medicines. I had become so bad that there was no pleasure in living. "I was finally asked by a friend to try Peruna, which I did, with many misgivings. What was my delight, after taking the first bottle, to see a great change for the better and I kept on improving until completely recovered. "I now feel like a new woman. It has done wonders for me and I gladly recommend it to others."—Rose Hurst. No ailing woman can fail to be interested in the above testimonial. Miss Hurst was persuaded by a friend to try Peruna, and she is now perfectly well and feels like another woman. Such is her story in brief.

and the spring-intoxicated colt will turn a summerset. The house will be cleaned up again, the robins come in drove, and the husband will eat bread and cheese behind the kitchen stove. The young man's heart will beat for love, and the widow in her weeds will find a man and seize him where Estella wore the beads. And then sweet April will return, And John D. get in line And pay his month's installment on That thirty million fine.

WILL RESENT INTERFERENCE

North Carolina Will Give a Solar Plexus Blow to the National Liquor Dealers' Association (Duplin Journal)

Several liquor dealers of the State met in Wilmington Monday to perfect a State organization of the liquor dealers, which, acting in concert with The National Liquor Dealers' Association, will furnish campaign literature and speakers to fight State prohibition in the coming election, May 26th. Liquor dealers from Salisbury, Winston Rocky Mount and other towns were present.

The chief campaign arguments of the liquor dealers will be, (1) that prohibition does not prohibit; and (2) that this election will not effect present prohibition territory in the State.

If prohibition does not prohibit then why should the National Liquor Dealers' Association be concerned. The fact that they will furnish money, liquor, literature and orators for the campaign is the best evidence that prohibition does prohibit and that State prohibition will the more prohibit the sale of liquor in the State.

Second. If the great majority of the people in the State want State prohibition as the election will fully demonstrate, why will not every section of the State (whether wet or dry now) be affected alike by the election and State prohibition prevail. If the Legislature wisely left State prohibition to a vote or the people regardless of any political differences, have not the people a right to settle the question of State prohibition by their votes? And who shall question their right to do so? Shall a National Liquor Dealers' Association outside the State question the right of the people of North Carolina to vote their State for prohibition and yet argue that prohibition does not prohibit?

When did North Carolina give to the National Liquor Dealers' Association the right to say whether its Legislature should submit a State prohibition law to its own people and yet reserve the right to prohibition territory now satisfactory to its people? This campaign will be simply the National Liquor Dealers' Association's campaign. The Wilmington Messenger, which is fighting State prohibition states that "the State Liquor Dealers' Association which it is understood will become affiliated with the National Association with the purpose of fighting against the present prohibition movement in North Carolina" practically admits as much and the people of the State will see to it that The National Liquor Dealer's Association gets a solar plexus May 26th, 1908.

$100.00 paid by Dr. Shoop for any recent case of Grippe or acute Cold that a 25 cent box of Preventives will not break. How is this for an offer? The Doctor's supreme confidence in these little Candy Cold Cure Tablets—Preventives—is certainly complete. It's a $100.00 against 25 cents—pretty big odds. And Preventives, remember, contain no quinine, no laxative nothing harsh nor sickening. Pneumonia would never appear if early colds were always broken. Safe and sure for feverish children. 48 Preventives 25c. All Dealers.

The mule kicked him sky high," says an obituary, "but we have no word as to whether he broke in or not."—Atlanta Constitution.

Considerate Judges.

The English Chief Justice Erle while trying a case at Northampton had, to his sorrow, to direct a jury against some poor people who had been scandalously but legally swindled. The result meant their being absolutely beggared. On the following morning an elderly gentleman on horseback made his appearance in the alley where the poor people resided. It was the judge. He had come to give them good advice and with it a sum of money that replaced them in their old time that extended by another judge who had wrongly directed a jury. He left in his will a sum of money to liquidate the costs of the man whom he had thus caused to lose his case.

No Use To Die.

"I have found out that there is no use to die of lung trouble as long as you can get Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. J. P. White, of Rushboro, Pa. "I would not be alive to-day only for that wonderful medicine. It loosens up a cough quicker than anything else, and cures lung disease even after the case is pronounced hopeless." This most reliable remedy for coughs and colds, lagrippe, asthma, bronchitis and hoarseness, is sold under guarantee at All Druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
