UGHT TO PENSION THE CONFEDERATES

(News and Observer)

In his magnificent Arlington speech last Sunday Governor Glenn outspoke the late President McKinley in demanding national recognition of the rights of the soldier in the Confederate ranks. He declared that he was weary of hearing the epithet "traitor" applied to those who wore the grey in their fight for the Southern cause.

The Governor said that the Constitution of every State in the Union as well as the Constitution of the United States prior to 1865 might be examined and not one word can be found against secession. "When the States" he said "differed in regard to their rights, they tried to settle the dispute by debate. Failing in that way, they went to war and might prevailed, but it did not settle the right. Both sections were partially wrong, both were partially right. There were no traitors but brave men fighting for their rights as they interpreted them. When the stronger overpowered the weaker it did not make the defeated traitors or less patriotic. If at the present time a State should secede, the word traitor would be right, for now it is in the Constitution. Not so then, and the very fact that since '65 they had put it into their respective constitutions shows that we were then right in saying we had not given away the right to secede. Our people patiently, since '65 have paid their part of the funds necessary to pension and care for the Union dead, and we are still willing and believe it is right that this should be done, but as our people were never traitors, McKinley was right in saying the graves of the Confederate dead should be cared for by the Union, and I go a step beyond what he said in declaring that the old Confederate soldier, now dependent, should be cared for out of the funds just as the Union Soldier is. I do not know whether the camps of the Confederacy would desire this or take it, but as a matter of right, it should be done."

This sentiment was cheered by a great many among whom were a large number of Union veterans.

The Late Judge Furches

(News and Observer)

In the death of Hon. David M. Furches in Iredell there passes the last of that old school of able Republican leaders who were the best types of their party in the South. He did not belong to that numerous element that joined the Republican party for pie or because they thought they had a grievance. He believed in the policies and principles of the Republican party and was consistent and zealous in defense of them. He fought as sturdily through many years when his party was in the minority as when the party was victorious, and no Republican possessed more public confidence among his home people. He was not a brilliant man but he was a diligent student and hard-worker and was regarded as the leading lawyer of his party in Western North Carolina. In 1894 when the Republicans carried the State he was elected Associate Justice of the Supreme Court and upon the death of Chief Justice Faircloth was named as Chief Justice. Upon his defeat for re-election as Chief Justice he returned to the practise of the law in Statesville and continued to take an active interest in his party. When the news of his death reached Raleigh Chief Justice Clark, as a token of respect to his predecessor, ordered the court room draped.

Chief Justice Furches was born in Davie county, enjoyed limited advantages of education, read law under Judge Pearson and was admitted to the bar in 1856 moving to Statesville in 1866. He was a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1868. He had been unsuccessful as candidate for State Senator, for Congress, for Governor, for Associate Justice and had by appointment of Judge Brogden served several years as Superior Court Judge filling out the unexpired term of Judge Mitchell. While he was Chief Justice the degree of LL. D. was conferred on him by the University of North Carolina. He was twice married first to Miss Eliza Bingham, of Davie and the second time to Miss Lula Corpening, of Statesville. There were no children by either marriage. He was a devoted member of the Episcopal Church.

The Best Pills Ever Sold

"After doctoring 15 years for chronic indigestion, and spending over two hundred dollars, nothing has done me as much good as Dr. King's New Life Pill. I consider the best pills ever sold," writes B. F. Ayscue, of Ingleside, N. C. Sold under guarantee at all drug-gists.

A Billion Dollar Half-Congress.

(Benson Spokesman)

Nearly all of us remember Speaker Reed's "Billion Dollar Congress" and the part it played in politics. Now we have the first or long session of a Congress reaching billion proportions. It is estimated that the appropriations for the session just ended will aggregate $1,026,000,000. The Post Office Department leads, of course. To it is appropriated $221,765,000. Next comes pensions, swollen by recent extensions to the enormous total of $163,000,000—this, forty-five years after the great war closed. In order follows $154,000,000 for permanent annual appropriations; $122,662,000 for the navy; $120,000,000 for the objects named in the sundry civil bill; $95,000,000 for the army; and a job lot of smaller appropriations, including $25,000,000 for public building, $11,642,000 for agriculture, $11,500,000 for the District of Columbia, and $4,000,000 for the diplomatic and consular service.

Bucklen's Arnica salve Wins.

Tom Moore, of Rural Route No. 1, Cochran, Ga., writes: "I had a bad sore come on the instep of my foot and could find nothing that would heal it until I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Less than half of a 25 cent box won the day for me by affecting a perfect cure." Sold under guarantee at all druggists.

In his speech here Friday night Mr. Kitchin frankly admitted that in 1898 he did advocate a proposition of fusion with the Populists on a basis of the voting strength of the two parties. Then we fail to see why some of his zealous supporters have been rushing into print with denials of it. Of course his advocating the proposition was nothing against him, but the emphatic denials are not exactly understood. Those who wrote the denials owe somebody an apology. —Greenville Reflector.

Will Cure Consumption

A. A. Herren, Finch, Ark., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar is the best preparation for coughs, colds and lung trouble. I know that it has cured consumption in the first stages." You never heard of any one using Foley's Honey and Tar and not being satisfied. C. C. Chase; S. R. Biggs.

Atlantic Inland Waterway Idea.

"When representative John H. Small began his advocacy of an inland water route along the North Carolina coast nearly a decade ago with the ultimate object of connecting this strip of water connection with a chain of inland waterways extending from Boston to Beaufort harbor, he little knew how well he was building. Within the brief time mentioned the project has become national in scope, and is now being persistently advocated by the representatives in Congress from all the Atlantic Seaboard States. There is no more powerful influence behind any measure pending before congress, and the chances are exceedingly bright that action will be taken at the coming session of congress looking to the construction of the great project that will give an inside route from Boston to Wilmington and finally to Key West."

Nature has provided the stomach with certain natural fluids known as the digestive juices, and it is through these juices that the food we eat is acted upon in such a way as to produce the rich, red blood that flows through the veins of our body any thereby makes us strong, healthy and robust, and it is the weakening of these digestive juices that destroys health. It is our own fault if we destroy our own health, and yet it is so easy for any one to put the stomach out of order. When you need to take something take it promptly, but take something you know is reliable—something like Kodol For Dyspepsia and Indigestion. Kodol is pleasant to take, it is reliable and is guaranteed to give relief. It is sold by Chase Drug Store, Biggs Drug Store.

YOU CAN EASILY OPERATE THIS TYPEWRITER YOURSELF

Don't worry your correspondent.
Don't write him anything by hand that takes him time to make out—that may leave him in doubt—that he can't easily read.
And don't fill out legal papers or card memos—or make out accounts or hotel menus in your own handwriting.
It looks bad, reflects on your standing, makes people think you can't afford a stenographer, and is sometimes ambiguous.
You can write out your letters—make out an abstract—fill in an insurance policy—enter your card memos—make out your accounts, or a hotel menu—or do any kind of writing you need, on any size or thickness of paper, and space any way you want on

The OLIVER Typewriter

The Standard Visible Writer
You can write any of these things yourself if you do not happen to have a stenographer.
For you can easily learn, with a little practice, to write just as rapidly and as perfectly, as an expert operator on the OLIVER. Because the OLIVER is the SIMPLIFIED typewriter. And you can see every word you write. About 50 per cent. MORE DURABLE than any other typewriter, because it has about 50 per cent. LESS WEARING POINTS than most other typewriters.
So per cent. EASIER to write with than these other COMPLICATED, INTRICATE MACHINES that require "homoring"—technical knowledge—long practice and special skill to operate.
Then machines which cannot be adjusted to any special space—with which it is impossible to write abstracts, insurance policies, odd size documents except you buy expensive SPECIAL attachments requiring experts to operate.
You can adjust the OLIVER to any REASONABLE size or thickness of paper, right out to the very edge, without the aid of ANY EXPENSIVE ATTACHMENT of special skill, and your work will be neat appearing, legible and clear.
For the OLIVER is the Typewriter for the doctor, lawyer, the insurance agent, the merchant, the hotel proprietor—or any man who does his own writing.
Write us now for our booklet on the SIMPLIFIED features of the OLIVER.
