NEWS FROM THE COUNTY

Mrs. Lucy Swinson was the guest of Mrs. Matilda Davenport Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Snell, of near Plymouth, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Fagan Sunday.

Mrs. Lula Clements, of Portsmouth, is spending a few days with her brother, Mr. Geo. Coburn.

Master John Coburn left Saturday for his home in Buell, Va., after an extended visit to relatives.

Miss Mary Bateman has returned from an extended trip to Norfolk and other cities, and was accompanied home by the charming Miss Lessie McCaskey.

We are to have a new school building here soon. The contractors will begin work next week. It will be situated near the Methodist church, of this place, on a very high and dry place.

Miss Olive Jackson has had so much company this week that they are too numerous to mention. It seems that everybody wants to go to Mr. Jackson's beautiful home, "Hill Crest," where they are certain of being highly entertained by three very charming young ladies.

Captains Stuart Daniel and Matthias Hayman, from the old historic Roanoke Island, were guests of their cousin, Mrs. C. C. Fagan, one night last week. They say the island is rapidly improving, and they have several very nice new buildings, among them is a new Methodist church, that cost seven thousand dollars, which is situated on the south end of the island near Wanchese.

The revival that is being held at the Disciple church is progressing finely. They have three very eloquent ministers to conduct the services and they do not fail to entertain a full audience every night. Prof. Perry is very talented and everybody enjoys his violin solos with organ accompaniment. We hope they will do much while in our midst. Miss Virginia Jackson is highly complimented as an organist, and does all in her power for a good cause.

This is what Hon. Jake Moore, State Warden of Georgia, says of Kodol For Dyspepsia: "E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Dear Sirs—I have suffered more than twenty years from indigestion. About eighteen months ago I had grown so much worse that I could not digest a crust of corn bread and could not retain anything on my stomach. I lost 25 lbs; in fact I made up my mind that I could not live but a short time, when a friend of mine recommended Kodol. I consented to try it to please him and was better in one day. I now weigh more than I ever did in my life and am in better health than for many years. Kodol did it. I keep a bottle constantly, and write this hoping that humanity may be benefited. Yours very truly, Jake C. Moore, Atlanta, Aug. 10, 1904." Sold by Chase's Drug Store; Biggs' Drug Store.

Over Thirty-Five Years
In 1872 there was a great deal of diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum. It was at this time that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was first brought into use. It proved more successful than any other remedy or treatment, and has for thirty-five years maintained that record. From a small beginning its sale and use has extended to every part of the United States and to many foreign countries. Nine druggists out of ten will recommend it when their opinion is asked, although they have other medicines that pay them a greater profit. It can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by All Druggists and Dealers in Patent Medicine.

ROBERSONVILLE NEWS

(Continued from first page) were best fitted, and used even half the energy and experience expended on the various callings, success would have been assured. In this, as in all matters of importance we should be sure we are right and then go ahead. There is always enough new in every calling, if it is properly developed, to keep up interest. Nobody has ever reached the limit of improvement. The person that perseveres until he has surpassed all others almost invariably makes his name famous.

If boys and girls at home and at school could be taught to stick to their work regardless of discouragements there are few tasks that can not be accomplished. The great trouble is they too often spend their time in search of reasons or excuses why they should not do it. When the task is once fixed it should be the ambition of every boy and girl to succeed or die. If ability to persevere under difficulties is not developed in childhood this one epitaph may written over the tomb of them all: "Here lies he who failed in life, because his task was too hard." Instead of parents and teachers trying to devise means to make everything easy for children it would be far better to surmount obstacles alone. Instead of holding the hands of children always, it is much better to let them try walking alone even if they do fall occasionally.

There is one danger, however, to be guarded against. That is the dogged persistence in everything once determined upon even though a mistake has been made. Some people, if they are once for or against a thing, close their eyes and shut their ears to all reasons to the contrary. If they start wrong they are wrong forever. The one thing to settle first, is that you are right, then go ahead regardless of difficulties.

Help For Those Who Have Stomach Trouble

After doctoring for about twelve years for a bad stomach trouble, and spending nearly five hundred dollars for medicine and doctors' fees; I purchased my wife one box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which did her so much good that she continued to use them and they have done her more good than all of the medicine I bought before.—SAMUEL BOYER, Folsom, Iowa. This medicine is for sale by All Druggists and Dealers in Patent Medicine. Sample free.

MUCH THANKS.

She sat beside me at the play. I knew her not at all. But in a coy and careless way She let her hatpins fall. Beneath the seat between my feet. Of course I had to crawl.

And as I handed them to her (Ah, happy finger touch!) She said to me, she said, said she, "Oh, thank you—very much!"

She stood beside me in the car. And we were strangers quite. I wasn't going very far. And so I thought I might Give up my seat to rest her feet. (Now, wasn't that polite?)

As from the overhanging strap She loosed her frantic clutch She said to me, she said, said she, "Oh, thank you—very much!"

She passed me on the avenue. As promenaders pass. Her dainty kerchief, dotted blue And airy light as gauze. She dropped behind. I strove to find. And found it for the lass.

And as I placed it in her hand. Profaned with gutter-smut. She said to me, she said, said she, "Oh, thank you—very much!"

Now, this was not one woman lone. But these were ladies three. And many more from some to zone. Have thus been served by me. And other men who're helpful when They cannot help but be.

And ever thus we get their thanks (It surely beats the Dutch). They always say them this-a-way. "Oh, thank you—very much!"

I hope some time before I go To fill a tomb or urn. The ladies may not thank me so. For thanks I do not yearn. Yet if they don't, stay dead I won't. I surely shall return!

I shall return from out the pit. And haply one may touch My ghost and say, the same old way, "Oh, thank you—very much!" —Robertus Love in Judge.

Cipher Code.

"So that dining room orchestra plays by instruction, eh?" said the new arrival.

"Oh, yes!" replied the corpulent proprietor. "When I notice a guest sipping hot coffee I signal 'P. L.' That means 'Play loud!'"

"Rather interesting." "Yes, and then when I see one eating soup with a great deal of noise I signal 'P. V. L.' That means 'Play very loud!'"

"Clever—very clever. Is that all of the code?"

"Oh, no! When a man starts to eat corn off the cob I hurry up and signal 'P. B. L. A. B. T. C.'"

"And what does that mean?"

"Why that means 'Play blamed loud and beat the cymbals!'" —Chicago News.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Would Have Saved Him $100.00.

In 1902 I had a very severe attack of diarrhoea," says R. N. Farrar of Cat Island, La. "For several weeks I was unable to do anything. On March 18, 1907, I had a similar attack, and took Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which gave me prompt relief. I consider it one of the best medicines of its kind in the world, and had I used it in 1902 believe it would have saved me a hundred dollar doctor's bill." Sold by All Druggists and Dealers in Patent Medicine.

Weak women should try Dr. Shoop's Night Cure. These soothing, healing, antiseptic suppositories go direct to the seat of these weaknesses. My "Book No. 4 For Women" contains many valuable hints to women, and it is free. Ask the Doctor in strictest confidence, any questions you wish answered. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is sold by All Dealers.

Surprised the Guests.

A former Duke of Norfolk was once strangely embarrassed at the breakfast table. A large house party had gathered together at Arundel castle, and the duke was entertaining, as he could so well do. The butler entered the breakfast room rather hurriedly and evidently very excited. "Your grace—may it please your grace," he said, trying to attract the attention of his ducal master. "What is it?" "May it please your grace, Lord Thurlow has laid an egg." "You don't say so!" "Yes, your grace." An explanation was due his startled guests, and the duke told how, some time before, the daughter of Lord Thurlow, in looking at the valuable collection of owls which the duke possessed, stopped before one of the cages and, looking at the blinking bird, said, "Why, he's just like papa." The bird was ever after called "Lord Thurlow." —In Lighter Vein.

Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis., says: "I have only taken four doses, of your Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. I am still taking the pills as I want a perfect cure." Mr. Barber refers to DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. Sold by Chase's Drug Store; Biggs' Drug Store.
