Conducted Successful Sale of Lots Here Tuesday--- Enthusiastic Citizens Purchased Eagerly at Good Prices --- Colored People Showed Interest

Tuesday was an ideal day-- spring-like with clear sky, and a happy crowd assembled first at Sycamore Park to witness the sale of lots by the Atlantic Coast Realty Company, which had been busy for weeks arranging for the sale.

The Washington Cornet Band helped to enliven the scene, furnishing excellent music throughout the day. The sale of lots for white people commenced at 10:30 o'clock and continued for several hours under the management of J. W. Ferrell, assisted by an able corps of auctioneers and other helpers.

In the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, the sale of lots for the colored people commenced. Every attraction that had made the previous sale interesting was given there.

Death of Asa Roberson

Asa Roberson, son of Hyman and Betsy Roberson, was born April 28th, 1844, and died March 5th, 1910, at his home near Jamesville, Martin County.

For several months his health had been precarious, and on the night of the 4th of March, his son, John, found him suffering with severe pains. Medicine was administered, and to all appearances the sufferer was relieved.

Mr. Roberson was a quiet, unassuming man, giving close attention to the needs of his family, and living an honest, upright life. He was an ex Confederate soldier, having fought at the battle of Cold Harbor and the Crater at Petersburg.

The Telephone Girl

She is more than five feet tall, she is 95 per cent unmarried, she is neat, she is quick, she is never deaf nor dumb, she is invisible when most effective—she is the girl who must be considered before you can get the telephone you want.

The government experts find that she can answer 225 calls a minute without shedding a hairpin, but do not mention that she can give you the same wrong number three times in five minutes and cause attack of apoplexy and indignation at both ends of the wire.

There she sits, this lady of the telephone, calm, polite, like patience on a monument smiling at pain. From out the wreck of matter and the ruin of worlds comes undisturbed her even tones.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are safe, sure and reliable, and have been praised by thousands of women who have been restored to health through their gentle aid and curative properties.
