

MORE PINKHAM CURES

Added to the Long List due to This Famous Remedy.

Oronogo, Mo.—"I was simply a nervous wreck. I could not walk across the floor without my heart fluttering and I could not even receive a letter. Every month I had such a bearing down sensation, as if the lower parts would fall out. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done my nerves a great deal of good and has also relieved the bearing down. I recommended it to some friends and two of them have been greatly benefited by it."—Mrs. MAE MCKNIGHT, Oronogo, Mo.

Another Grateful Woman.
St. Louis, Mo.—"I was bothered terribly with a female weakness and had backache, bearing down pains and pains in lower parts. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound regularly and used the Sanative Wash and now I have no more troubles that way."—Mrs. AL. HERZOG, 5723 Prescott Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has cured many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, indigestion, dizziness, and nervous prostration. It costs but a trifle to try it, and the result is worth millions to many suffering women.

Politeness has been well defined as benevolence in small things.

SOFT, WHITE HANDS
May Be Obtained in One Night.

For preserving the hands as well as for preventing redness, roughness, and chapping, and imparting that velvety softness and whiteness much desired by women Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, is believed to be superior to all other skin soaps. For those who work in corrosive liquids, or at occupations which tend to injure the hands, it is invaluable.

Treatment.—Bathe and soak the hands on retiring in a strong, hot, creamy lather of Cuticura Soap. Dry and anoint freely with Cuticura Ointment, and in severe cases spread the Cuticura Ointment on thin pieces of old linen or cotton. Wear during the night old, loose gloves, or a light bandage of old cotton or linen to protect the clothing from stain. For red, rough, and chapped hands, dry, fissured, itching, feverish palms, and shapeless nails with painful finger ends, this treatment is most effective. Cuticura Remedies are sold throughout the world, Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., sole proprietors, Boston, Mass.

Well Supplied.

A BAD THING TO NEGLECT.

Don't neglect the kidneys when you lack control over the secretions. Passages become too frequent or scanty—urine is discolored and sediment appears. No medicine for such troubles like Doan's Kidney Pills. They quickly remove kidney disorders.

Mrs. Mary Wagner, 1267 Kossuth St., Bridgeport, Conn., says: "Physicians were unable to relieve my kidney trouble and for five weeks I was confined to bed. The kidney secretions caused me untold annoyance and I suffered from bearing-down pains in my back. When almost in despair I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and soon felt better. Continued use cured me and for five years I have enjoyed excellent health."

Fashion Notes

New York City.—Bathing suits always follow the general trend of fashion and the one that is made with leavers and blouse in one is among the smartest. Here is a model that includes that feature and which is made with a skirt that is full enough for comfort yet falls in the fashionable straight close lines. The model is made of natural colored pongee with rimming of brown, but brilliantine is a favorite material for bathing suits, salt water silk is much used and a great many women like the warmer flannel and serge, while for trimming bands of any contrasting material are appropriate. Dotted foulard is being used and is liked, braid is correct, and braiding with soutache is employed on many of the handsomer suits. The bloomers accompanying the costume are close fitting over the hips, consequently mean no bulk, yet they are loose and comfortable at the knees.

The suit is made with the blouse and skirt and the bloomers. The blouse is laid in a tuck over each shoulder and in the tucks at the back edges and the skirt is laid in inverted pleats at front, back and sides, and these pleats meet over narrow panels. The two are joined by a belt and the closing is made invisibly at the back. A pretty shaped collar finishes the neck. The bloomers are finished with hems and elastic at the knees and under faced at the upper edge.

The quantity of material required for the medium size (sixteen years) is seven and one-half yards, twenty-seven, four and three-quarter yards forty-four or four and one-half yards fifty-two inches wide, one and one-half yards twenty-seven inches wide for trimming.

The Hat Tilt.
There is danger of a ridiculous extreme in the hat tilt, and there is the possibility of a most fetching pliancy. A hat must be placed upon the head before the mirror and experimented with until the correct adjustment becomes second nature; then one can wear the tilted brim with the saving grace of knowing that the best has been made of the new line.

Negligee With Fancy Collar.—To be made with pointed elbow or long plain sleeves. The negligee that is made with a big fancy collar is always a becoming and attractive one.

Frillings in Demand.
"Chantecler" and other frillings are in great demand to use as side jabots on waists and gowns or silk or fine tub goods. They also are in high favor with mothers who love to have the little ones daintily dressed.

Ribbon Sashes.
The sash or girde of ribbons, or even of silk by the yard, is as much a fashion for the child as for the grown-up.

Matching Accessories.
With the violet hued suit there must be a gold chain bag with a tiny purse of gold fastened to the outside of the purse. Or, if my lady prefer to adopt the latest fad in dress, she will have a bag of violet silk with a little gold chain for change fastened to the outside. She can keep her coin in the tiny little purse while her vanities are carried in the big silk wrist bag.

Ornamental Pockets.
Pockets are proving an inexhaustible mine for displaying trimming of various kinds. There are the large square shapes that are ornamented with braid, embroidery or buttons, giving the decorative plastron so much in vogue. Then, again, there are the pointed shapes that are frequently used when the lines of a coat are built on the sharp slanting scheme. Stitched flaps are placed on the tailored suits of severe cut; even lace is used on the linen costumes for ornament rather than for use, for it must be remembered that the perfection of line must not be destroyed by the contents.

Auto or Steamer Bonnet.
Traveling, whether by motor or by steamer, brings about the necessity for just such head covering as this. A bonnet of some sort is really essential both as protection against the wind and to keep the hair smooth and tidy. The one illustrated is charming and attractive and becoming as well as practical, and easily made withal. In the illustration silk is the material and the trimming is rosettes of ribbon, while the ties are of soft ribbon, but chiffon is often used for ties and the trimming could be any preferred one. Pongee, chif-fon cloth and all materials that are used for bonnets of the sort are appropriate. If liked the brim could be of one material and the crown of another.

The bonnet is made with crown and brim and foundation brim. The brim is laid in folds but the foundation is smooth and plain. The crown is gathered at the front edge and joined to the brim and is shirred at the neck edge to form a little frill while those shirrings are held by means of a stay.

The quantity of material required is one and one-half yards twenty-seven, or one yard forty-four inches wide with three yards of ribbon two inches wide for rosettes, two and one-half yards of ribbon six inches wide or one and one-half yards of chiffon for ties.

Tuck Pleated Blouse.—With elbow or long sleeves, with Dutch collar or neck-band. The blouse that is laid in tucks that are stitched to give a flat effect is a smart and fashionable one.

Harmonies.
One of the loveliest gowns I have seen for some time is a velvet in a most exquisite soft shade of saxe blue with more than a hint of mauve in the high lights, with introductions of heavy purple silk net almost hidden beneath embroideries of blue, mauve and purple, quite impossible to describe properly in mere words, and a beautiful jabot of old Flanders point held by a magnificent buckle of amethyst paste.

THE EPICURE'S CORNER

Ripe Cucumber Pickle.
Cut cucumbers in halves lengthwise. Cover with alum water, allowing two teaspoons powdered alum to each quart of water. Heat gradually to boiling point, then let stand on back of range two hours. Remove from alum water and chill in ice water. Make a syrup by boiling five minutes two pounds sugar, one pint vinegar, with two tablespoons each of whole cloves and stick cinnamon tied in a piece of muslin. Add cucumbers and cook ten minutes. Remove cucumbers to a stone jar and pour over the syrup. Scald syrup three successive mornings and return to cucumbers.—New York World.

Manhattan Shrimps.
"For those who enjoy using the chafing dish, let me suggest Manhattan shrimps," says Fannie Merritt Farmer, in Woman's Home Companion. "Melt one tablespoonful of butter, add one tablespoonful of flour and stir until well blended, then pour on gradually, while stirring constantly, one-half cupful of thick cream and one-third of a cupful of stewed and strained tomatoes mixed with a few grains of soda. Bring to the boiling point and add one cupful of finely cut cheese, one egg slightly beaten, and one and one-half cupfuls of canned shrimps broken in pieces. Season to taste with salt, mustard and cayenne, and serve just as soon as the pieces of cheese have entirely melted."

Stuffed Potatoes.
Take large fair potatoes, bake until soft and cut a round piece off the top of each. Scrape out the inside carefully, so as not to break the skin, and set aside the empty cases with the covers. Mash the inside very smoothly, working into it while hot some butter and cream, about a half teaspoonful of each for every potato. Season with salt and pepper; work soft with milk and put into a saucepan to heat, stirring to prevent burning. When hot fill the skins with the mixture, replacing the caps. Return them to the oven for about three minutes; arrange upon a napkin in a deep dish, the caps uppermost; cover with a fold of the napkin and eat while hot. This is a very simple, and yet a delicious recipe. Once it is tried it will be tried all the time.—Miss Esther Ryan, in the Boston Post.

Creole Salad.
One-half cup of olive oil, five table-spoons of vinegar, one-half teaspoon of powdered sugar, two table-spoons of chopped red peppers, two table-spoons of chopped green peppers, one teaspoon of salt, one-half a small Bermuda onion with parsley and lettuce. This is easy to make, but you need to start at least an hour before you will wish to use the salad. The onion should be chopped fine and also the parsley, of which there should be half as large a quantity. Care must be taken to remove all seeds before peppers are chopped. Pat all the materials except lettuce in fruit jar and let them stand for an hour, then shake them for five minutes in order to get them well mixed. When ready to serve pour the dressing over crisp lettuce. This dressing gives a delicious salad when used with cold meats, boiled potatoes or other vegetables.—New York World.

Hints for Housewives

Allow four eggs to each quart of milk in making custard. One teaspoonful of extract will flavor one quart of custard or pudding. One tablespoonful of salt will season one quart of mixture to be frozen. India rubber bands slipped over packing bottles will prevent breakage. One level teaspoon of salt will season one quart of soup, sauce or vegetables. One cup of sugar will sweeten one quart of any mixture to be served, chilled or frozen. A sliced banana added to a grape fruit salad is considered an improvement by some housewives. Brush the top of bread loaves when put to rise with melted butter or lard—I use lard—and the crust will be very tender. Small mice that cannot be caught in a trap may be disposed of by spreading sticky fly paper in places frequented by them. A large brass hanging cone massed with drooping clusters of wistaria blossoms made an effective corner decoration in a country house hall the other day. In case of a sudden croup heat a little vinegar in a plate, wring out a piece of sannel in it and bind quickly around the throat. The smell and heat seem to penetrate at once. Spread over the cloth to prevent scorching a paste made of the juice from two onions, one-quarter ounce white soap, two ounces fuller's earth and one-half pint vinegar. Mix, boil well and cook before using.

Strong Healthy Women

If a woman is strong and healthy in a womanly way, motherhood means to her but little suffering. The trouble lies in the fact that the many women suffer from weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism and are unfitted for motherhood. This can be remedied.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
Cures the weaknesses and disorders of women. It acts directly on the delicate and important organs concerned in motherhood, making them healthy, strong, vigorous, virile and elastic.

"Favorite Prescription" banishes the indispositions of the period of expectancy and makes baby's advent easy and almost painless. It quickens and vitalizes the feminine organs, and insures a healthy and robust baby. Thousands of women have testified to its marvelous merits.

Mrs. Hen, having performed her function of laying an egg, took a constitutional around the yard. Returning to her nest she found it empty and clucked angrily. "What's the trouble, ma'am?" asked the rooster. "It's mighty funny," she grumbled, "that I can never find things where I lay them!"

A Rare Good Thing.
"Am using Allen's Foot-Ease, the Antiseptic Powder, and can truly say I would not have been without it so long, had I known the relief it would give my aching feet. I think it a rare good thing for sore, sweating or tired feet.—Mrs. Matilda Holtzert, Providence, R.I." Sold by all Druggists, 25c.

The camel is good natured, al though it always has its back up.

Equine Notes.
Keep the feet soft and growing. There should be as much care taken in shoeing farm horses as race horses. The shoes should be reset every four to six weeks. The feet should be perfectly leveled and the calks short and even. Both the road and work horses should be treated to a foot bath daily. It is cruel to tack on any old shoe, in any old way, and expect hard and constant work. Good feed will put life into a horse a hundred times better than an eight-foot whip. Simply plunging each foot into a pail of water will do wonders in keeping the feet moist and in a growing condition. It makes some horses ugly to work them with horses that do not travel up with them. Match them as to gait as well as to other things. When you find out that one of your horses frets working double, better exchange him for one that is not so disturbed, or else keep him for a single driver. To develop a colt properly never allow him to lose his colt fat. It costs sometimes to keep him growing, but it is more expensive not to do it. Better feed a little extra as the grass in the fields gets short. Green rye, oats, sweet corn are all good to keep the colt moving in the right direction.

Nest Eggs.
While nest eggs have nothing to do with increased egg production, they have a good mission in teaching hens to lay in certain places instead of dropping their eggs any and everywhere.

HARD TO PLEASE
Regarding the Morning Cup.
"Oh, how hard it was to part with coffee, but the continued trouble with constipation and belching was such that I finally brought myself to leave it off. Then the question was, what should we use for the morning drink? Tea was worse for us than coffee; chocolate and cocoa were soon tired of; milk was not liked very well, and hot water we could not endure. About two years ago we struck upon Postum and have never been without it since. We have seven children. Our baby, now eighteen months old, would not take milk, so we tried Postum, and found she liked it and it agreed with her perfectly. She is to-day, and has been, one of the healthiest babies in the State. I use about two-thirds Postum and one-third milk and a teaspoon of sugar, and put it into her bottle. If you could have seen her eyes sparkle and hear her say 'good' to-day when I gave it to her, you would believe me that she likes it. 'If I was matron of an infant's home, every child would be raised on Postum. Many of my friends say, 'You are looking so well!' I reply, 'I am well; I drink Postum. I have no more trouble with constipation, and know that I owe my good health to God and Postum.' 'I am writing this letter because I want to tell you how much good Postum has done for us, but if you knew how I shrink from publicity you would not publish this letter, at least not over my name.' Read the little book, 'The Road to Wellville,' in pkgs. 'There's a Reason.' Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.
