EXPLAINED.

There! That refutes the comic paper joke that messengers don't run—
"Yes, I believe there is a dog fight up the street."

Good Marksmen.

A Yankee entered a hotel in the Highlands when he overheard a party of gentlemen speaking about shooting.

"Gentlemen," he said, "I guess I have seen some good shooting in my time. I have seen a fly killed on a flagpole at 300 yards."
An Irishman, who was one of the party, said: "Begorra, it's purty good, but I believe I've seen better. When I was in the army the major used to roll an empty beer barrel down the hill and every time the binghrole turned up we put a bullet in. Any man who couldn't do it was dismissed. I was in that corps for fifteen years and never saw a man dismissed."

Air Laws.

Wilbur Wright, at a tea in Dayton, said with a laugh:
"Already there are air laws, stringent as road laws. Without them we should soon be seeing advertisements like this:

"Two dollars reward will be paid by Mrs. John Doe for information leading to the identification of the aviator on a Wright roadster who, while flying over my house yesterday afternoon, dropped a can of oil down my chimney and completely ruined a plum pudding I was cooking."

A TROUBLE MAKER

Coffee Poison Breeds Variety of Ills.
A California woman who didn't know for twenty years what kept her ill, writes to tell how she won back her health by quitting coffee:

"I am 54 years old," she says, "have used coffee all my life, and for 20 years suffered from indigestion and insomnia. Life was a burden and a drag to me all the time, and about once a year my ailments got such hold upon me that I was regularly 'sick in bed' for several weeks each time.

"I was reluctant to conclude that coffee was the cause of my trouble, but I am thankful that I found out the truth.

"Then I determined to use Postum exclusively—for a week at first—for I doubted my ability to do without coffee for any length of time. I made the Postum carefully, as directed, and before the week expired had my reward in a perceptible increase in strength and spirits.

"Seeing the good that my short experiment had accomplished, I resolved to continue the use of Postum, cutting out the coffee entirely. This I did for nine months, finding, daily, increased cause for gratification at my steadily improving health. My indigestion gradually left me, my sleep returned, I gained 26 pounds in weight, my color changed from sallow to a fresh, rosy hue and life became a blessing.

"Then I thought I would try coffee again, and did so for a few weeks. The punishment for deserting my good friend, Postum, was a return of my old troubles.

"That taught me wisdom, and I am now and shall be all my life hereafter using Postum exclusively and enjoying the benefits it brings me." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

"There's a reason," and it is explained in the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

SPECIAL STATE APPROPRIATION

SECOND HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS APPORTIONED TO FIFTY COUNTIES.

THE EDUCATION BOARD MET

Sixty-Six Counties Received Aid Last Year.—The Number Reduced This Year.—Only One Half of the Counties Now Require Aid.

Raleigh.—The state board of education approved the apportionment of the second $100,000 state appropriation to bring the school term in the weaker counties up to the four-month term minimum, there being just fifty counties—half the counties in the state—entitled to this aid. There were 66 last year, while there was lacking $30,000 for enough to meet the demands. This time all fifty counties get sufficient funds and there is about $13,000 left out of the $100,000. The decrease in the demand on the state appropriation is due to the increase from 18 and 20 cents in the state school tax and to the increase in tax valuation of property. So the revenue for the elementary schools this year will be greater by $350,000 than any previous year.

The counties receiving aid this year are: Alexander, $33,108; Alleghany, $3,603; Ashe, $3,079; Beaufort, $2,897; Bladen, $1,531; Burke, $1,422; Caldwell, $1,384; Camden, $1,316; Carteret, $1,750; Chatham, $1,280; Cherokee, $1,352; Chowan, $600; Clay, $500; Columbus, $1,717; Currituck, $2,600; Dare, $3,154; Franklin, $2,570; Gates, $300; Graham, $461; Granville, $1,013; Greene, $330; Henderson, $1,279; Hyde, $2,473; Jackson, $3,402; Jones, $1,239; Lee, $394; Lincoln, $1,721; Lincoln, $1,099; Madison, $1,829; McDowell, $591; Mitchell, $1,508; Montgomery, $750; Northampton, $1,060; Onslow, $1,924; Orange, $1,432; Pamlico, $3,178; Person, $821; Polk, $726; Randolph, $1,175; Stanley, $614; Stokes, $1,546; Transylvania, $3,092; Warren, $777; Watauga, $1,398; Wilkes, $4,734; Yadkin, $1,409; Yancey, $2,749; Total apportioned, $86,042.

The Wake County Physicians.

The health of the city of Raleigh and its excessive death rate was mainly the subject of discussion at the regular monthly meeting of the Wake County Medical Society, at which time interested citizens were invited to be present. The outcome of the papers read and discussion was the appointment of a committee, composed of Dr. W. S. Rankin, Dr. M. C. Horton and Dr. A. W. Knox, to go before the aldermen and request that an investigation be made as to the sanitary condition of the city. Some of the doctors did not favor a county body requesting anything of the aldermen, but a vote settled the matter.

Died From Wound Inflicted by Son.

Mr. Daniel Hill died in a High Point hospital, where he had been confined since he was shot through the head by one of his sons at his home during an affray between his two sons, whom he tried to separate. When the news of his death reached his two sons, who are both confined in the city police station pending his death, they both broke down and seemed to take their father's death very hard. The following gentlemen composed the coroner's jury who held the inquest under Coroner Wood: R. B. White, J. R. Cook, J. L. Sechrist, G. A. Matton, J. M. Harrell and D. S. Leak.

Lutheran Laymen's Meet Closes.

Lutheran laymen at the closing session of their first convention in Salisbury, by their resolution, recommend to the United Synod that the Lutheran church shall take its share of the unsaved world. This means that the number of the missionary workers of the Church shall be quadrupled, and the church set as the individual standard a contribution of $2.50 per capita.

Progressing With Building.

Chairman Ashley Horne and Mr. J. A. Long of the state building commission, having in hand the erection of the fire-proof state administration building for which the John T. Wilson Company of Richmond has the contract spent the past few days in Raleigh and looked thoroughly into the progress and status of the building. They are well pleased with conditions and the progress being made by the contractors who have been handicapped considerably bad weather this week.

Who Will Be Next Postmaster?

The question of who will be the next postmaster of Wilmington is causing some little interest. The term of Postmaster Thomas E. Wallace will expire the latter part of this month and he is in the race for reappointment. He has as his opponent Mr. W. S. Clayton, who is deputy collector of customs under Mr. B. F. Kieth, who has always been diametrically opposed to Postmaster Wallace in the councils of the Republican party. Mr. Clayton has the hearty support of Mr. Kieth and his friends.

There was a class of ten from the Wake Forest law school and all of them were successful in the examination.

Condition of Knitting Mills.

According to report issued by Commissioner of Labor and Printing M. L. Shipman, sixty-five knitting mills are reported for North Carolina during 1911 and 54 of them show a capital stock of $3,043,125. The number of spindles in use in these mills is given as 48,892; knitting machines, 7,762; sewing machines, 583; making use of 4,735 horsepower. Seven do not report horsepower. Thirty-two mills use steam for power; thirteen use electricity; nine, gasoline; four, electricity and steam; three, water; one, electricity and gas; three do not give power used. Number of employees reported is 6,475; 2,302 males and 3,590 females; three mills, employing 583 do not classify employees. Fifteen thousand seven hundred and sixty persons are dependent on the operation of these mills for a livelihood.

Statesville To Make Strong Fight.

It is now an assured fact that Statesville will make a strong bid for the location of Rutherford College here. A meeting of the board of trustees of the college will be held within the next week or ten days, probably at Statesville, for the purpose of considering the proposed change of location of the college, and at that time Statesville will be ready to advance some strong arguments for the location of the institution here.

Cannot Find State Witness.

It turns out to be improbable that any warrants can be issued in Charlotte against culbs and drugs stores from which whiskey was purchased from Rev. R. L. Davis, secretary of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League. It is certain that the officials in charge of the affair have been holding a number of conferences every day, but no indictments have resulted. The report is current that the party who made the purchase of whiskey and beer and was depended upon as the state's material witness, the one witness around whom the body of the cases clung, is not "among us" any more.

The Wreck of a Freight Train.

Six freight cars were derailed just west of Pee Dee and traffic was delayed on the Seaboard Air Line for a considerable time. Nobody was injured, and in a few hours trains were able to pass over the tracks which had been cleared by two or three extra train crews.

Developments in Mysterious Case.

On a warrant sworn out on information and belief by Rev. Sylvester Betts, who is a member of the coroner's jury, William Hunter, the waiter in the Wilson chop house, which is operated in connection with the Wilson apartments, in which the triple asphyxiation tragedy occurred, was arrested by the police and committed to jail under a $1,000 bond on the charge of larceny of a revolver, watch and $100 from the three ill-fated men, Alton Johnson, Hugh Porter and Fred Jernigan of Benson.

Will Soon Offer to Extend Road.

Interest centers in the recent purchase of the Winston-Salem Southbound Railroad of properties in Winston-Salem, and a well-known traction man said that it was probably a matter of a short time before the Southbound would make an offer to extend the tracks into the business heart of the city and, in conjunction with the Atlantic Coast Line and the Norfolk & Western, propose to erect a fine passenger station and terminal. Recent purchases and franchises permit the Southbound to come into Salem.

HE WAS SOMEWHAT PEEVED

Attendant at Spiritualistic Seance Considered Himself Aggrieved and Said So.

Charles M. Cross of Indianapolis thinks variety adds spice to life, so he went to a spiritualistic service.

It was a lively affair with sepulchral voices sounding through trumpets, tambourines playing mysteriously in mid air, and cold, clammy hands of partially materialized men and women making free in the dusky room with those who were in the flesh. In the midst of it something dealt Mr. Cross a vicious whack on the nose and he called for lights in a tone not to be disobeyed. With the light the circle as disclosed was all natural and human again. The most human member of it was Mr. Cross, with a bloody nose, spilling for a fight and all the "madder" because he did not know whom to fight.

"Who did that?" he demanded of the medium.

The medium said the gay spirit was that of St. Peter.

But even this explanation did not satisfy Mr. Cross.

"Well, all I ask of St. Peter," he said, "is to materialize for just one minute and if I don't make a vacancy for a new gatekeeper I won't ask to get in."—Indianapolis News.

Unjustifiable Suspicion.

The colonel had caught Rastus red-handed, coming out of the hen coop with three fat pullets under his coat.

"So," he said, "I've caught you at last stealing my hens, have I?"

"What, me, suh?" replied Rastus, in pained surprise. "Why, Mars Colonel, suh, I hain't a-stealin' no hens, suh."

"Then what are you doing with them under your coat?" demanded the colonel.

"Why, Mars Colonel, hit look to me so like it war gwine to snow, suh, dat ah went out to de coop to bring dem hens in by de kitchen fish, suh, to keep 'em from gittin' froze, suh," said the old man, with a deep sigh, to think that his honor had been suspected.—Harper's Weekly.

AFTER THE DOCTOR FAILED.

Even the most stubborn cases of malaria yield to Elixir Babek. In the summer of 1896, I contracted the disease known as Malaria. After a year's fruitless treatment by a prominent Washington physician, I was entirely cured by your Elixir Babek.—Brasie O'Hagan, Troop E, 6th U. S. Cav. It is equally good for bilious disorders. Self-Sacrificing Essential.

"You don't claim to be a party leader?"
"No," replied the quiet citizen.
"Everybody wants to be the leader of the party. It strikes me that somebody ought to be willing to be the party."

An untimely death so often follows neglect of slight cough or cold. If Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullein is taken in time it will prevent any evil results. It cures coughs, colds, consumption, Whooping Cough, etc.

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he "cannot do anything without an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst of cases.

It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. The only one good enough that its makers dare to print its every ingredient on its outside wrapper. There's no secrecy. It will bear examination. No alcohol and no habit-forming drugs are found in it. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.,—take the advice received and be well.
