

HARD FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

It's hard enough to keep house in perfect health, but a woman who is weak, tired and suffering all of the time with an aching back has a heavy burden to carry. Any woman in this condition has good cause to suspect kidney trouble, especially if the kidney action seems disordered at all. Doan's Kidney Pills have cured thousands of women suffering in this way. It is the best recommended special kidney remedy.

WILL INVESTIGATE

THE CAUSE OF THE SLOWNESS OF FREIGHT DELIVERY IN NORTH CAROLINA.

MUCH INTEREST IS SHOWN

The Corporation Commission Takes up the Matter of Less Than Carload Shipments With the Southern Railway Company in This State.

Raleigh. — Complaints have come to the corporation commission from time to time of the slow movement of less than carload shipments of freight between eastern and western North Carolina, and the commission has recently taken this matter up vigorously with the higher officers of the Southern Railway Company insisting that these lines of road, constructed primarily for the convenience of interchange of traffic between eastern and western North Carolina, should not be diverted by congestion of through traffic or by any other consideration, from serving this primary purpose, and it is the purpose of the commission to insist that prompt and expeditious freight service be given for interchange of products between these two sections of the state.

The commission is convinced that there would be a much greater interchange of products between these sections if the public was assured of prompt freight service, and is now assured by the officers of the Southern Railway Company that they are going to give special attention to the prompt handling of freight shipments between these two sections, that every reasonable means will be adopted to facilitate the handling of such shipments, and that a local shipment from their extreme western lines in this state to their eastern lines in about three days.

The commission desires to call the matter to the attention of the shipping public and to suggest that they enter freely into the interchange of products by freight service between these two sections, relying upon reasonably prompt transportation service, and that they give the commission the benefit of specific complaints as to any shipments between these two sections which is not transported promptly, with copy of bill of lading covering such shipments, so that there may be investigation of every shipment on which there is ground for reasonable complaint.

Opposed to Special Term of Court. Wilmington.—The bar of the county has gone on record as opposed to a special term of court here to begin December 16 and continue for two weeks. Recently there was a card issued from Judge Carter, who is holding court at Jacksonville, reviewing the entire situation and intimating that the chairman of the board of county commissioners is opposed to the term. A majority of the members of the bar took the statement of Judge Clark to mean an attack upon the chairman of the board.

White Man Kills Negro. Winston-Salem.—Mr. Oscar Fisher, a prominent liveryman of this city, shot and killed Will Yokely, a negro about 20 years old, employed at the stables. The shooting occurred in the office of the Fisher Livery Company. Only one shot was fired. The ball entered the left breast, and after shot Yokely ran out of the stable and up the alley on the south side of the Hotel Zinzendorf, when he fell and soon expired.

Government To Purchase Mt. Pisgah. Washington.—The government under the authority of the Weeks law, is preparing to purchase Mount Pisgah, the highest point in the beautiful Biltmore estate near Asheville. About 2,000 acres are being surveyed by engineers. Pisgah is connected with the outside world by a road built by Mr. Vanderbilt. It will make an attractive national park.

Have Completed Highway. High Point.—The grading of the High Point-Winston-Salem 30-foot-wide-road is now practically completed. The sanding of this splendid highway will begin in the near future and when completed will be one of the best links to hold these two bustling cities together. It is now proposed to celebrate the opening of this road by an automobile tour to High Point, when the Ringling shows will be here. Mayor Tate has turned the matter over to a committee composed of J. J. Farris and S. L. Davis.

For Appalachian Park. Asheville.—S. Montgomery Smith, the well known Asheville timber man and promoter, has just accepted an offer from the Government of $12 an acre for his Toe River boundary, consisting of 11,500 acres of cut-over land. This land is in Yancey county and adjoins Mount Mitchell. The land adjoins the McDowell county boundary of 8,100 acres which the Government recently purchased for $6.90 an acre and which is the only land purchased under the Weeks law for the Appalachian Forest Reserve.

WILSON PLAN WISE

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE THE APOSTLE OF REFORM, NOT OF REVOLUTION.

HE SEES MONSTROUS ABUSES

Would Correct Them by Cutting Off the Vicious Tariff Favors Which Have Built Up Monopolies and Trusts.

Gov. Wilson is the apostle of reform, not of revolution. Gov. Wilson believes that the constitution of the United States has been misconstrued and perverted, not outgrown. Gov. Wilson is the only candidate before the people today who at once realizes that reforms are necessary, and who proposes rational and constitutional means for effecting these reforms.

There are great, there are monstrous abuses, even in this free land. The government of the United States has done many things that it ought not to have done, and has left undone many things which it should have striven every nerve to do.

The government of the United States has built up bloated fortunes, and granted to favored manufacturers the power to tax the people; and at the same time, the government has failed—as every government always fails—to keep in proper subjection the monopolies it has created.

What shall be done to get rid of these abuses? President Taft says in substance that nothing much need be done, and that whatever is done need not be done in a hurry. Next century will do quite as well as now.

Mr. Roosevelt says in substance that everything must be done, and that the only way to do it is to throw the constitution in the scrap-heap; and make him practical dictator of the land, with the trusts and monopolies as his associates and counselors.

Gov. Wilson makes neither of these blunders. Gov. Wilson says that the first thing to be done in correcting abuses is to cut off the favors which nourish those abuses—the vicious tariff favors which have built up monopolies and trusts.

There is nothing revolutionary about that. But from the way every trust in the land is rallying to the support of either Taft or Roosevelt, you can see that the trust magnates think Gov. Wilson's plan is likely to be effective.

Gov. Wilson says that competition is a better regulator of prices than a dozen government bureaus. He proposes to restore competition by smashing the illegal combinations which have killed competition.

Again, here is nothing revolutionary—but listen to the way the sugar trust, and the steel trust, and the woolen trust, and all the other trusts are screaming against Wilson!

Gov. Wilson knows that the general form of our government needs no changing. The agencies of government need to be changed in spirit. They need to be taken out of the hands of the interests and put in the hands of the people.

Gov. Wilson offers himself as the people's agent. Gov. Wilson has proven in New Jersey that an earnest, clear-headed man at the head of a government can get reforms without upsetting business or destroying constitutions. Gov. Wilson is the bearer of reforms which make revolution needless and impossible. Elect Gov. Wilson.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Director of Evening Department, The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 27.

WANDERINGS IN DECAPOLIS.

LESSON TEXT—Mark 7:31-37. GOLDEN TEXT—"He hath done all things well: He maketh even the deaf to hear and the dumb to speak."—Mark 7:37 R. V.

Last week we saw our Lord in the region of Tyre and Sidon dealing with the Syrophenician woman. In v. 31 (R. V.) we now see him journeying back towards the Sea of Galilee through the border of that section containing ten cities, for that is what the word Decapolis means.

1. JESUS THE HEALER (vv. 31-37). Jesus had gone north seeking rest but he "could not be hid," and now upon his return he continues to meet these sad cases which need healing, and who are brought to him by their intensely interested friends. Jesus does not need beseeching. He whose heart was touched with compassion is ready to hear the faintest cry.

This first section is rich with suggestions. Jesus takes the man apart suggesting the necessity for individual personal dealing with God. Men are not saved en masse but as separate individuals, it could not be otherwise and have a man retain his personality. To work any cure for our sins Jesus demands our individual attention. Then Jesus placed his fingers in the man's ears; suggesting the added emphasis that we must come into personal contact with God if we would be healed. We may stop to reason (Isa. 1:18) with him but our sins, that be as scarlet, will not be removed unless we come by personal, individual, experience under the blood, (Eph. 1:7).

"His blood avails for all our race, His blood avails for me."

Moistening the man's tongue with his own saliva suggests that the source of healing is to be in Jesus' own person. Our salvation is not in the words he spoke, nor the life he lived, but the life he gave (Heb. 9:12-14).

Fellowship With God.

Jesus also looked to heaven, indicating that we must continue in fellowship with God, and also indicating his own fellowship with the father. Jesus sighed over the wreck of sin. The son of man came to bear our sorrows and to share our griefs. (Isa. 63:9). Attention has been called to the sighs and the tears of Jesus. If our prayers were more accompanied by tears and heartfelt sighs they would be more powerful. (cf. Romans 8:26). It is equally true that if our sighing were accompanied by more prayers we would accomplish more in his kingdom.

After these preliminary and suggestive acts Jesus spoke the one word "Ephphatha"—Be opened—and deaf ears were opened to words of praise and counsel and to the cry of distress. Loosed was the man's tongue to speak his word of personal testimony and to witness for his healer. Read Isaiah 32:1-4 and 35:4, 5.

II. JESUS THE PROVIDER (vv. 1-10, cf. Matt. 15:32-38).

The tremendous stir Jesus caused is graphically suggested by Mark in verse one of this section. From far and near they had gathered and now at the end of the third day their small supply of food is exhausted. We are told by John (6:26, 27) why they had followed him, still they were deeply interested in him and considered him to be a prophet (John 6:14). Nevertheless Jesus was moved with a compassion then, even as now he is moved when he beholds us in our unworthiness.

No Hunger Too Great.

The compassion of Jesus is a very active principle, it does not consist of sighs and lamentations, or of investigations and condemnation of conditions. His compassion causes him to act. But the disciples are aghast at his suggestion that he feed this multitude of "about four thousand." "Whence shall one be able to fill these men with bread" (R. V.)? On the other occasion Jesus had asked Philip, who lived in the near-by town of Bethsaida, where they might find bread; but now they are in a desert place. It may seem strange for the disciples to ask such a question. He had fed a larger number with smaller resources.

After taking stock (v. 5) Jesus commands the people to sit down. He received their seven loaves (v. 6) and brake and gave, first to the disciples, and through them to the people. Such as they had, first given to him, responding to his touch, was enough and to spare (v. 8). When we give him our all he will bless, multiply and use.

Our Golden Text (v. 37) is suggestive of a wide application in teaching this lesson. We have in this lesson two incidents as illustrations. In both we can see those principles that govern his life and ministry, viz., unvarying loyalty to God and unswerving compassion for poor, weak humanity. As has already been suggested, we also see that the methods of Jesus varied, according to the individual need and always with the unswerving purpose of glorifying God. The same lesson of careful conservation of what remained is taught as in the case of the feeding of the five thousand.

Diplomacy in Small Things. Little Eloise Cave, aged seven years, was visiting her grandmother in Madison, Va., and was sent to carry a saucer of ice cream to a neighbor. By the exercise of infinite care she conveyed her burden safely to the house and gave it into the hands of the lady for whom it was intended. The lady, however, was less careful than Eloise had been, and dropped the saucer and broke it.

"You needn't mind about that," said the little diplomat, without an instant's hesitation. "I don't think grandma has a cup to match the saucer. If she has I will go right home and break it myself."—Popular Magazine.

H. A. Waring, 13 Fairy St., Orangeburg, S. C., writes, "I was confined to bed. My friends thought I would die of consumption. Three of the best doctors in South Carolina attended me without results. Part of the Truth. "Robert, dear, how do you suppose these dozens and dozens of empty bottles ever got into our cellar?" "Why, I don't know, my dear. I never bought an empty bottle in my life."—Fun.
