Christmas cheer next, not to mention Santa Claus.

Eggs are still scarce and high. It looks bad for egg nog later on.

WANTED:—We want to buy live cattle.

Williamston Land and Improvement Co.

Tobacco sales on the Williamston market were heavier last week than any for this month.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—One pair of Stimpson Platform Scales. Two pairs of Scales with brass scoops.—J. A. Mizell, City.

Only five weeks till Christmas. Why not order some of those "Photo Calendars" for your friends from the Williamston Studio?

The postoffice building has on a new dress on the interior and on the front. It is a little more in keeping with the receipts for the year.

WANTED.—Several carpenters at once for rough and interior work. Two months job. Best wages. Come with tools ready to work.—C. V. York, Greenville, N. C.

Ward & Co., are showing the finest lot of stock brought to Williamston since the growth of the trade in the best Western mules. It pays to buy the best, so see this lot at the stables on Main Street.

Frank F. Fagan was host at an elegant luncheon served at the residence of Col. and Mrs. Wheeler Martin in honor of Misses Skinner and Shelburn, after the play on Wednesday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. John D. Biggs returned Saturday from Jacksonville, Fla., where they went to attend the Inland Waterways Convention to which Dr. Biggs was a delegate from North Carolina. He stated that he was expressing his regret that the State had so few delegates, when a Northerner remarked: "You have John Small, he is sufficient."

The Thespians under the management of Mrs. F. D. Winston presented "Coast Folks" here last Friday night. They arrived by gas boat in the afternoon and billed the town. A fair-sized house greeted them. The acting of Mrs. Winston and the selection from "The Rose Maid" sung by Mrs. C. J. Sawyer, were the attractive features.

Bazaar Wednesday

The women of the Episcopal Church will hold a bazaar on Wednesday evening in the vacant building next to W. J. Hodges, and will have on sale fancy articles suitable for Christmas presents, cakes, salads, ice cream, oysters, etc. The Young Woman's Auxiliary will have a booth in which they will offer their display of fancy articles. People desiring attractive presents to offer at the coming season, will be able to select them there. Doors will be opened at 7:30 o'clock, and no article will be sold or bargained for until then, so that the general public can have an opportunity to see the display. The preparations for and the management of the bazaar are in the hands of a refreshment Committee with Mrs. J. P. Simpson, Chm., Committee on fancy articles with Mrs. K. B. Crawford, Chm., and on hall arrangement with Miss Hattie Throver, Chm. The public is cordially invited to come and spend a pleasant evening

Sad Accident.

Late Monday afternoon, while Norman, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ward, was chopping with an axe, Bisco, seven years old and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kader Rogerson, ran across the yard and fell beneath the axe. The bone back of the ear was almost severed and the skull deeply marked. A few inches lower would have meant instant death to the little fellow. Drs. Saunders and York were hurriedly summoned and immediate attention given to the sufferer. Though severely hurt unless some unforeseen complications arise, Bisco will soon be out again.

BAZAAR.—The ladies of the Christian Church at Robersonville will hold a bazaar in the church building on Tuesday night, Wednesday and Wednesday night. Refreshments will be served, and on Wednesday dinner will be served also. The proceeds will be given for the benefit of the church.

E. C. T. School Notes

The Athletic League of East Carolina Training School has been organized with a membership of ninety-four. The purpose of the League is: To give recreation to the students of the school; develop and encourage athletic spirit and to train girls to carry on work of an athletic league so that organized play will become a permanent feature of the school. Basketball, tennis and cross country walking clubs form subdivisions of this league.

The Training School has offered free of charge, Saturday courses to the teachers of the vicinity who wish to avail themselves of the opportunity for special study. These courses are on the following subjects: Pedagogy, English, Mathematics, Primary Methods, History, Latin and Drawing.

The Bursar has established a system of banking known as "East Carolina Teachers Training School Bank", by which the girls make their deposit and withdrawal in the office. The purpose of this is to teach the students the simple principles of banking and to give them some business methods.

Oak City Items

The young men of the Literary and Debating Society gave a box party Friday night for the benefit of the High School. The attendance was large and the entertainment a splendid success. The side shows caused a great deal of mirth. The "Old Mill Scene" by Miss Jennie Rawls, The Fortune Teller by Miss Zolma Bradley and The Bridal (Bride) scene by Master Edwin Bradley. The boxes were many and beautiful and sold from 50 cents to $4.50. The cake given the Society by Mrs. Lewis Johnson was awarded Miss Ethel Everett as the prettiest girl after a lively contest over the votes. Miss Hannah Long was only a few votes behind. The sum taken in for the votes on the cake was $25.90, and the total amount for the entertainment was over $55. This will be used for lights, a flag and pole and other furnishings for the school.

Lamb, who is President of the North Carolina Society of the Cincinnati, was entitled to a seat in the conference, but he was also appointed a delegate by Governor Locke Craig. Many distinguished foreign delegates will be present, and the meeting will be one of the most interesting of the year in the United States.

A Former Pastor Writes

The Williamston ENTERPRISE, Dear Friend:—

I wish to thank you most sincerely for the kind things you said about Mrs. Dowell and myself in your issue of November 7th. I have been so very busy since leaving Williamston that I have been here but little, and have had no time to answer some letters from my friends as I should have done. I left hurriedly and had no time to say good bye to those I would like to have visited and shaken hands with once more. I wish to thank all for their kindness to me and my family, and to send you a year's subscription to The "ENTERPRISE", as I shall wish to keep up with the good people with whom I parted so reluctantly.

With best wishes,
Yours truly,
Geo. J. Dowell.

Ayden, N. C.

Hamilton Items

Miss Fannie Matthews left Friday for Tarboro to visit Miss Fanny T. Johnson.

Reuben Edmondson has purchased the hotel from Miss Hattie Darden.

Mrs. Mary Gladstone and Miss Lelia Pippin returned home Saturday.

Asa Johnson went to Scotland Neck Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Peel and Miss Martha Council spent Friday in Robersonville.

Miss Lou Council, of Oak City, is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. L. Haislip.

W. S. Rhodes is very ill with La Grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Waldo spent Sunday at Ballards.

An ice cream supper was given Friday night by the ladies of the Episcopal Church.

Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Anthony and children are visiting Mr. J. B. Anthony.

Charlie Perkins with several men motored to Robersonville Sunday.

Gladstone Anthony was in town Sunday.

Miss Elizabeth Davenport is at home from Rocky Mount where she has been to have her eyes treated.

Judge J. D. Winston spent Wednesday night in town.

The Recital

Saturday evening, Misses Harriet Settle and Pearl Monk, of the Atlantic Christian College, gave a recital which greatly delighted the audience. Owing to conditions, the number present was small, and those who failed to attend missed the most entertaining evening of the season. Miss Settle, who is well known here, has always given pleasure to Williamston people. She possesses a voice of splendid timbre, which has been carefully cultivated. Her numbers on the programme were pleasing. Miss Della Lanier was accompanist on the piano.

Miss Monk is the teacher of expression at the A. C. College, and every number she gave was faultless in tone and manner. Her recital of "Madam Butterfly" was loudly applauded, and nothing more entertaining has been heard here in a long time. Misses Settle and Monk while in town were the guest of Mrs. W. C. Manning, and they left Monday afternoon for Robersonville where they gave a recital on Monday evening.

Sunday School Rally

There will be a special Sunday School Rally on Sunday November 30th, in the following churches with a special program at each place as follows: At the Christian Church, Jamesville, at 10 a. m., at Cedar Branch Church in the country at 2:30 p. m., At the Methodist Church, Jamesville, at 7:30 night.

There will be special music at each of the services, and a rich and spicy program. We surely hope that everybody will take an interest and be present, and they are cordially requested to invite their friends. Let us have the day in real pleasure and benefit. There being no regular preaching at any of the churches, we hope that a number may come and help us make the day one of real worship.

A. Corey,
For the Committee.

Parrale Items

Nicholas Roberson and Jodie VanNortwick spent Sunday in Washington.

Paul Edmonson was here Friday.

D. S. Powell went to Robersonville Monday.

Miss Lela Nelson spent the week-end with Miss Lina Carson near Stokes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whichard spent Saturday in Robersonville.

Mrs. J. G. Andrews spent Sunday with Mrs. R. L. Whitley.

Underwent Operation

Friends here and elsewhere will be pleased to learn that Miss Mae Bennett, who went to St. Vincent's Hospital for treatment, has undergone a successful operation. Miss Bennett has been a most efficient operator in the Williamston Telephone office for 5 years, and subscribers all along the lines regret that she has been obliged to seek treatment from a specialist. It earnestly hoped that her stay in the hospital will be short.
