

"A SAFE BANK"

When men send out circulars with fairy tales of 600 or 150 or 50 per cent. per annum, the financial investor had better put his money in the bank. It is better to be sure of 4 per cent. and one's principal than to luxuriate on 150 per cent. dividends for two or three weeks and then lose both dividends and principal.

HOW TRUE THE ABOVE ARTICLE

Can you not call to mind men who have wasted their entire sustenance on some crazy "get-rich-quick" Let us care for your investments. You may have times of thinking that this old bank is slow. But paste this in your hat brother. She is safe.

A BANK ACCOUNT A MORAL BRACER

"A bank is built to keep money in--and your pockets are so arranged that you spend it." So states a farmer. Hear him again:

"I made money; a lot of it I carried around with me and the rest I left at home. Somehow or other I never got ahead, I couldn't understand it. I blamed the weather, the crops, the markets, the tariff --blamed everything but myself".

Then he got an idea--started a bank account with $10.00 and added to it. When opportunity came he took advantage of it and succeeded. "Opportunity takes off its hat to the man with the cash"

Engagement Announced

The first social affair of Easter week was that given by Mrs. Joseph H. Saunders at her home on Church Street from four to six o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. The interior of the home was attractively decorated and six tables were arranged about the rooms at which the guests were seated after the place cards were drawn. Then began the interesting game of Progressive Hearts, and soon the pleasure of the guests was manifested in the joyous laughter and animated voices. When on the touch of the bell by the hostess the game was ended, plates on which were large red hearts with cupids in white formed in cream, and delicious cake, were brought in and placed on the tables for each guest. There were also heart souvenirs, which, upon being opened, disclosed a card bearing this message: "Miss Mary Hassell-Mr. John L. Hassell, June 4th, 1914." The bride-elect, who was present and unusually attractive in a handsome gown belonging to her trousseau, received the congratulations of the guests and expressed her happiness in a gracious manner.

Miss Hassell is the daughter of Elder Sylvester Hassell and a young woman of culture and refinement, combining charm of manner with personal beauty, and is very popular here and in other parts of the State. Her marriage will be one of the most important events of the year in Williamston.

Mr. Hassell is the son of the late Dr. Alonzo Hassell and a member of the firm of J. L. Hassell & Co., a man of splendid business training and one of the most prominent of the younger men in this section.

Among the guests of Mrs. Saunders to do honor to the bride-to-be were, Mesdames Wheeler Martin, Sr., K. B. Crawford, A. T. Crawford, C. B. Hassell, Harry W. Tilden, H. D. Cook, F. U. Barues, W. H. Crawford, John D. Biggs, Wheeler Martin, Jr., Alonzo Hassell, S. F. Williams, W. H. Biggs, W. H. Stallings, Jas. S. Rhodes, Grover Hardison, Morrison Bethea, Misses Lamb, Nannie Biggs, Deborah Fleming, Anna Pope, Essie Peel, Hattie Thrower, Irene Smith.

Lucid Explanation.

"There's a terrible noise in the nursery, Mollie," said her mistress. "What is the matter? Can't you keep the baby quiet?" "Sure, mum," replied Mollie, "I can't keep him quiet unless I let him make a noise."—Lippincott's.
