

He Goes Before the Investigating Com mittee and Tells About Relations to Harvester Company.

Washington .-- The nominations by President Wilson of three of the five members of the Federal Reserve Board-Charles S. Hamlin, W. P. G. Harding, and A. C. Miller-were confirmed by the senate.

The nominations of Paul M. War burg of New York and Thomas D. Jones of Chicago have not been acted upon by the Banking and Currency Committee and probably will not be for a few days. It was stated that Mr. Warburg would ask the President to withdraw his nomination, but Acting Chairman Hitchcock of the Banking Committee telegraphed an invitation for him to appear and submit to the committee's questions. It was suggested, however, that Mr. Warburg probably would decline the invitation and that this would be followed by an announcement from the White House that the nomination had been withdrawn.

Mr. Hamlin, Mr. Miller and Mr. Harding take the oath of office within a few days and the work of setting in motion the new Federal banking sys tem can begin at once. The Secre tary of the Treasury and the Comptroller of the Currency are exofficio members of the board, which consists of seven members. The five will con stitute a quorum to do practically all preliminary business.

Mr. Jones was before the committee for nearly four hours to tell about his relations with the International Harvester Company and the New Jersey Zinc. Company, both so-called trusts. He was questioned at length by the members. No proposal was made to vote on a report to the Senate on his nomination, but it is regarded as probable that if approval is given it will be by a close vote.

Senator Hitchcock was authorized to give out information secured from Mr. Jones. His report in substance was:

"Mr. Jones was asked about his relations to two large business enterprises, one of which was the Interna tional Harvester Company, Mr. Jones said he became a director of that company in April, 1909, purchasing one share to qualify, at the request of Cyrus H. McCormick, an old friend. He said he fully approved all the actions of the company since he became a director and believed that they were proper and within the law. 'Mr Jones also announced he is in accord with the company's policy and said he had nothing to lose or gain by the decisions of the courts in the anti trust suit in the Harvester case.

"Prior to 1897 Mr. Jones told the committee he owned and was president of a zinc company at Mineral Point, Wis.

There are men in Washington today, he declared, whose patriotism is not showy but who accomplish great patriotic things. They are staying in Washing ton, doing their duty, keeping a quo rum in each house of Congress to do business. "And I am mighty glad to stay there and stick by them," he

TRAVIS CONFERS

President Expects Business Men to Learn That They Have Nothing to Fear.

MEETING IS VERY CORDIAL

Washington -- For nearly an hour President Wilson discussed business conditions with J. P. Morgan at the first of a series of conferences which will bring to the White House men foremost in American industry and finance. It was one of the very few occasions during the 16 months of his administration that the President has received one of the recognized leaders of big business.

Officials said that while the Administration's greatest legislative projects were underway-the tariff act, the currency bill, and while the trust program was being perfected-the President felt there should be no opportunity for a charge that they were receiving inspiration from business or financial centers.

Now that two of the Administration reforms have been completed and a third is in a final stage the President is said to feel that an exchange of thought and information with captains of industry will be conducive to the business revival he expects to see along lines which the administration bolds to be legal.

Soon Henry Ford, Detroit manufacturer, will confer with the President and after that a delegation from the Chicago Association of Commerce, including representatives of six corporations with Nation-wide interest, will come for a conference.

Out of these exchanges the President expects business men to learn that lawful enterprise has nothing to fear from the Democratic administration; that the trust program having reached a point where he foresees its successful completion, business shall have the rest many of its leaders have been asking; and that under the "constitution of freedom," as the President has christened the trust legislation commerce and finance respecting the laws will not be harassed by the Fed eral government.

Whether Mr. Morgan came at his own request or at the invitation of the President was not established. That point often is left in doubt as to important White House conferences. Officials said Mr. Morgan asked for the engagement. Another version was that mutual friends arrangthat delegates might be clothed with ed for Mr. Morgan to "talk things over" The two men have been acquainted for some time and Mr. Morgan knew the President at Princeton and the personal element in the call was a large one.
