Ancient Custom Kept Up.

To determine the letting of a piece of meadow land, a quaint device was resorted to at Butterwick, near Boston, England. A candle was lighted and a pin stuck in its side. Then bidding commenced. The candle burned until the flame reached the pin, which fell out, and the land was declared let to the last bidder prior to the pin falling. There are people still living who remember when the sandglass was used at auctions in Lincolnshire, and the candle and pin is a revival of an ancient custom.
