Mr. Frank W. Kellinger

The news of the death of Frank W. Kellinger reached here last Saturday, and Mr. and Mrs. Asa T. Crawford went to Rocky Mount on the evening train to accompany the body to Norfolk. Mrs. Kellinger and Miss Della Lanier reached Aiken, S. C., a few hours before death came, and though the end was near, he recognized his mother and then lapsed into unconsciousness. At seven o'clock on that day, Friday, October 23rd, the suffering spirit fled to that bourne from whence no traveler ever returns.

He was reared in Norfolk, and graduated at Wake Forest and studied law at Lexington, Va. While at college his health began to fail and though he sought every means of restoration, could never fully combat the disease which finally brought death. For weeks he had been in Ashville for treatment, but decided to reach Aiken, where he had received great benefit before. The trip proved too severe for one in his weakness, and remedies could not help. He had hoped to regain enough strength to succeed in the business in which he was employed, and make a home for his mother, who has lived here for several years with relatives. Much sympathy is felt for her for in losing him she has lost the most precious thing in life—her only child.

Upon the arrival of the funeral party at Norfolk, a committee from the Elks Lodge met the body and bore it to the Elks Home, where services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Melton, of the Baptist Church, and the interment was in the family plot in the city. All instructions for the funeral had been given by him to the Elks previous to his death.

LOCAL

Full moon on Monday at 5:49 in the evening.

Dr. J. C. Caldwell preached to attentive congregations at both services at the Christian Church on Sunday.

It pays to sell tobacco on the best market and to purchase supplies in the best town in North Carolina. Then why not come to Williamston?

FOR SALE—One store 28 by 100 ft warehouse and stables on same lot, best business part of Williamston, N. C., also 3 yokes oxen for sale. For further information see or write

L. E. Corey
Jamesville, N. C.

The Dixie Warehouse sold 166,672 pounds of the golden weed for the week ending Oct. 23rd. Prices were good, but much of the offerings were "soft tobacco" owing to the week of extremely bad weather.

FOR SALE—Two yokes of oxen, one yoke good size others of medium size all well broke.

J. J. Roberson
Jamesville, N. C.

Several members of the Roanoke Hunting Club have been on their house boat at Calm Point for a week of sport. On Sunday a few friends went down to partake of a game dinner prepared by an excellent chef.

"Lucille Love" is attracting many to the Gaiety. It holds your attention like an interesting novel. The next installment is on Wednesday night. Don't miss it.

See the Mutual Girl at the Gaiety tonight and learn about the theft of the cameo. It is charming to watch her movements.

Mrs. T. C. Badham and little daughter, of Edenton, are the guests of Mrs. Wheeler Martin.

LOST:—One long bar pin somewhere between my home and that of S. R. Biggs' bungalow. Return to J. L. Rodgers, City.

Fell Asleep

The Reaper Death in the ingathering of fair young souls, took away that of Anna Leggett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Leggett, on Friday, October 23rd, 1914, at 2 o'clock p. m. For two months, her brave spirit had struggled for life, and the tender and constant ministrations of nurse, physicians and loved ones were unavailing against the ravages of typhoid fever and gastritis. Gently she fell asleep before her feet had touched the threshold of womanhood, for God gave her to the loved ones at home for only sixteen short years and then in His infinite wisdom called the spirit from earth to Heaven.

The death of this attractive young girl brought great sorrow not alone to the family, but to many friends and companions, who loved her for her sweetness of character, and beauty of person. Patient and gentle, she bore her sufferings with Christian fortitude and as the closing of a flower when the sun dies in the Western skies, she passed out into the life eternal.

Saturday afternoon, the funeral services were conducted by Dr. Coggins and Rev. Cecil F. Outlaw, of the Christian Church, a large number of people being present to pay the last respect to the beloved dead. The body was laid to rest underneath the flower-covered mound until the Resurrection Morn.

Voters of North Carolina

Answer these questions on Election day:

Under Republican rule Wall Street controlled the money and credit of the Nation. The Democratic party destroyed that control.

Are you with Wall Street or the Democratic Party?

The Democratic Party drove Cannonism from the halls of Congress.

Are you for Cannonism or the Democratic Party?

The administration of Woodrow Wilson has extended the Parcel Post and reduced the cost of transportation.

Would you take a backward step on the Parcel Post?

Woodrow Wilson drove from Washington the paid lobbyists of special privilege who flourished under Republican rule.

Are you for Woodrow Wilson or the Lobbyists?

The Republican Party levied a tax on necessities. The Democratic Party levied it upon the incomes of the rich.

Are you for a Tax on Necessities or a Tax on Wealth?

Would you restore the panic-breeding currency laws that made possible the great industrial and financial disaster of 1907?

Would you restore Schedule K of the Payne-Aldrich-Smoot Tariff?

Would you repeal the Agricultural Extension Bill?

Would you put down the pipe lines connecting the special interests with the seat of government that Woodrow Wilson has taken up?

Would you re-establish the old partnership between rotten politics and rotten business?

The Democratic Party restored White Supremacy in North Carolina.

Would you return to the Dark Days of Bulterism, Fusionism and Negroism?

Vote Early and Vote Right

The general election will be held on Tuesday next at which time the voter will cast ballots for all county officers, Congressman, Judges, Legislator, etc. While the campaign has not been waged vigorously owing to the general depression caused by the European War, there is no good reason why every voter should not express his opinion at the polls. On the other hand, there is every good reason why the Democratic candidates should be voted for at this time, when the country needs a continuance of safe, sound Democracy in county, state and nation. In National politics, the party has had a trial, which rarely is given to any, and has come out of it with the confidence of the entire country irrespective of party lines. President Wilson, the man, is still guiding the Ship of State into waters calm and sure, and at no time within the past fifty years have we needed a leader of like character more. There is nothing in the official life of the man which requires an explanation, and the party lead by him has redeemed the pledges made to the people.

Vote early and vote the Democratic ticket from township constable to Senator Overman.

Ginners Report

A statement from Wm. J. Harris, Director of the Department of Commerce, handed to us by John E. Pope shows that prior to Oct. 18, 1914, there were ginned in Martin County 1897 bales of cotton, as compared with 1378 for the same period in 1913.

Prison Reform Lecture with Films

On November 16th, John F. McCarthy, who has lectured in every section of the country, and has endorsements from President Wilson, Theodore Roosevelt, the leaders of the Y. M. C. A. of the United States, and others will appear here and deliver his interesting lecture on Prison Reform, illustrating the same by four reels of moving pictures. Mr. McCarthy is an ex-convict and knows whereof he speaks. His appearance here will be at the Gaiety Theatre and people should give him a splendid house. The following letter has been received by the managers here:

"Mr. John F. McCarthy has been known to me for some little time, and I have good reason to have confidence and respect for him. I believe he is honestly endeavoring to render a public service, and do good to his fellow men. His plans for lectures on Prison Reform should have a large hearing and accomplish beneficial results.

(Signed)

Ralph W. Brown,
Chm. Bd. of Directors Religious Work Department."

Watts-Hornthal

On Wednesday, October 21st, at noon, at Plymouth, Miss Florence Harlee Hornthal was married to Mr. W. B. Watts. The bride is the charming and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis P. Hornthal. The groom is a highly successful business man of Plymouth, being cashier of the Washington County Bank and connected with other enterprises of importance here.

The popularity of the contracting parties was attested by the number of the wedding presents and the hosts of friends from here and elsewhere attending the ceremonies.

The impressive ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. P. Parker, Rector of Grace Episcopal church of this town, the wedding being in this church at noon. The historical little church was never more beautifully arranged nor the decorations more fitting and attractive.

Miss Martha Hornthal, sister of the bride, sang, "O Perfect Love," upon the entrance of the bridal party. The bridal party was composed of the maid of honor, Miss Gladys Hornthal, sister of the bride, carrying pink roses, Miss Mary Smith, carrying yellow chrysanthemums, the ushers were, Messrs. W. R. Hampton, Lloyd Horton, Maurice Watts and Henry Gurkin. The bride, carrying a bouquet of bridal roses and maidenhair fern and attired in a beautiful blue traveling suit, entered upon the arm of her father, and the groom with his brother, Mr. J. W. Watts, Jr. The music was delightfully rendered by Miss Laura Smith.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Watts left for Washington and other northern cities for an extended tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis P. Hornthal entertained the bridal party at their attractive home on Main street on the night preceding the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Watts are exceedingly popular and enjoy a wide circle of friends who wish them a long life filled with unalloyed happiness.

Getting Results.

A colored woman was arguing and arguing with her husband, and when she had finished he said: "Dinah, yo' talk don' affect me no mo' than a flea bite." "Well," she answered, "Ise gwanna keep yo' scratchin'."

Nominated For Judge

The Republicans at Rocky Mount on October 17th, nominated Col. Wheeler Martin for Judge of this Judicial District. Col. Martin protested against such a movement, but his popularity among the members of his party, brought about the nomination despite his efforts to stop it. He will be opposed by the Democratic nominee George W. Connor, of Wilson.

For Better School Attendance

In order for the schools to attain their greatest degree of efficiency, there must be cooperation with the teachers on the part of the parents. The following are a few suggestions as to the ways in which parents can cooperate with, and materially assist the teachers:

Since we cannot successfully teach children who are not in school every day, every parent ought to see to it that his children attend each school day, and do not absent themselves for every trival reason or pretext that may occur.

Whenever a child is absent from school, or tardy, he must bring a written excuse from his parent.

School begins at 8-45 in the morning and at 1-15 in the afternoon. In order to avoid loitering in front of the building, with its attendant evils, please do not let your children leave home before 8-25. This will allow plenty of time, if they come straight to the school building.

You will help the teachers very much, as well as help to preserve the health of the children, if you do not allow them to bring candy, peanuts, chewing gum etc. or let them have money to buy these things on the way to school.

On rainy days please see that the children are well wrapped, and supplied with umbrellas and overshoes, for it is almost impossible, with so many, to dry their feet and clothes.

In nearly all the grades home work is assigned. Please see that your child has an opportunity to study every evening, and takes advantage of the opportunity.

If the parents of the community will cooperate with us along these lines, we can assure them a more satisfactory school system, resulting in better service to the community, and better training for our boys and girls.

J. T. Jerome, Supt.

Notes Political

Hon. Harry W. Stubbs, Senatorial candidate for the Second District, was in Belhaven last week and had a most enthusiastic reception. A brass band rendered enlivening selections and Mr. Stubbs spoke eloquently on the principles of Democracy, and explained the proposed Amendments.

When the county officers met at Ballards on Thursday of last week, they found that Mess. Jim Everett, Mart Ballard, Moye and Van Taylor and others had prepared an appetizing dinner of barbecue with all necessary condiments. This was highly enjoyed and appreciated. Hon. R. H. Salsbury was host to the candidates at their meeting at Hassells, and provided an elegant 'cue for them and all present.

Congress adjourned just in time to allow the Congressmen a few days in their respective districts. Hon. John H. Small has issue letters to his constituents explaining his inability to meet with them. Everybody is willing to trust John Small for anything and anywhere. They know that he is always on his job looking out for the people's interests as far as in him lies.

The Republicans of Martin County have, so far as learned, decided not to put any ticket in the field. Devotion to party caused Col. Wheeler Martin to allow his nomination for Judge of the district.
