Globe Trotter

R. F. Lambert, known as "Black Diamond", the European traveler has been in town this week. He was at the Gaiety Theatre Monday biting nails in pieces, telling of his travels, and cutting cloth into fancy designs for the ladies. He wore a rattle snake belt, having killed his snakeship and stripped the skin. His claim that he has traveled 222,630 miles to Williamston, was not doubted when one examined his records from prominent men in all parts of the world.

Spring Millinery

Thursday and Friday of last week marked the opening of Spring Millinery in the stores of Harrison Bros and Waters and White. The styles are more modest than for many seasons, the useful sailors predominating. Flowers, ribbons and velvets adorn these and other shapes, and the combination of colors is very striking. Large crowds of women examined these thoroughly. The wearing of hats has begun earlier this year than at any former one. Easter is the first Sunday in April, and the average woman desires to select before that event.

Mrs. P. H. Brown and Miss Ozella Proctor at Harrison's and Mrs. W. R. White and Miss Eula Lee Waters at Waters and White are artists in fashionable headwear, and have brought to Williamston the latest in millinery. The trade can find here whatever is needed to please the fastidious.

MONEY IN TRUNK USUAL RESULT

Mr. Pope Vernon, a good citizen of the Prestonville neighborhood, was robbed one night last week. He kept his money in a trunk in his room, unknown parties broke in his room one night while the family was away attending a school exhibition. The trunk contained about $70.00 and some change. Sixty five dollars was missing when Vernon came back. A five dollar gold piece and some change were overlooked by the robbers. There is said to be a great deal of money being kept in farmers' homes these days, and it is expected that many such affairs will be reported. A number have already occured.

To the readers of the Enterprise. Don't keep your hard earned money at home where it is not safe, but bring it to this bank. Our vaults and safes are absolutely burglar proof, but to make sure doubly sure we carry Burglary Insurance. There are so many mean people who do nothing but go through the country and rob homes of money. They may visit your home next.

Bring your money to this bank. We will give your four per cent interest on money if left three months, but should you need your money before the three month are out you can get it.
