Slight Mistake.

One day an old country dame went to visit her son, who was a medical student in a large college. While she was waiting at the door a young man wearing a white coat and apron came out. Going forward to him, she asked in a meek tone:
"Are you a student coming out for a doctor?"
"No, ma'am," answered the young man; "I'm a painter coming out for a smoke."

Explaining the Tears.

At a golden wedding an entertainment was given to the surrounding community of the aged couple. At the close of the proceedings the host rose and relieved his feelings in an eloquent speech.
"Look at that, now, Pat," whispered an old Irishwoman, nudging her husband's elbow. "Did you see the poor old musther wid the tears in the eyes of him?"
"Shure, an' why wouldn't he be cryin'?" was the husband's retort. "An' he married to the same woman for fifty years!"

YES! LIFT A CORN OFF WITHOUT PAIN!

Cincinnati man tells how to dry up a corn or callus so it lifts off with fingers.

You corn-pestered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of freezone applied directly on a tender, aching corn or callus, stops soreness at once and soon the corn or hardened callus loosens so it can be lifted off, root and all, without pain. A small bottle of freezone costs very little at any drug store, but will positively take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and is said not to irritate the surrounding skin.
If your druggist hasn't any freezone tell him to get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house.—adv.

GUARDSMEN TO BE HELD IN SERVICE

ORDER CAME AFTER THIRD INFANTRY HAD BEEN MUSTERED OUT.

OTHERS HELD FOR SERVICE

Second Infantry and Companies A and B, Engineers Will Be Held For Probable Police Duty.

Raleigh.—Within an hour after all the organizations of the Third North Carolina Infantry, National Guard, except the supply company, had been mustered out of Federal service at Camp Bickett, orders were received from the War Department to suspend demobilization. It was too late to affect this regiment, but in consequence of the order the Second Infantry, ordered into camp at Camp Royster, Goldsboro, and brigade headquarters ordered to Raleigh, will be held there under arms, as will Companies A and B, engineers, now at Charlotte and Wilmington. Troops A and B cavalry, Asheville and Lincoln; Field Hospital No. 1, Asheville and Ambulance Company No. 1, Canton, have already been mustered out.

Brigade headquarters, including General Laurence Young and staff, were previously ordered to Raleigh for muster out. It is believed that under this order, headquarters will proceed to Raleigh to await muster out or further service.
In view of the orders given National Guard organizations in other states, it is expected that the North Carolina troops held in the service will be used, if necessary, for duties in the state.
The supply company, with much property work to complete, will continue in camp here for several days. In the meanwhile, no orders have been received calling the demobilized regiment back into the service, and while many of the officers, apparently are expecting this, no comment was made at the office of the Adjutant General.

The men of the Third showed pleasure in their release, now being enabled to visit their homes, many of them for the first time in nine months. Rousing welcomes are in store for practically all of the companies at their home stations. But while this is so, it is declared that little difficulty will be encountered in getting the men mobilized again, if the call comes.

The few days spent at Camp Bickett were delightful compared to the sand storms, the excessive cold of the nights in Texas. Lieutenant Colonel Claud McGhee expressing the thanks of Colonel Minn and the regiment for the courtesies shown by Raleigh.

"In coming to Raleigh we felt that we were coming home and in our arrival here we found that we were at home.
"Particularly do we wish to thank the management of the State Fair grounds for the use of their buildings and grounds, and for the assistance given us and the manner in which they worked for our comfort.
"We also wish to thank the management of the Rex Hospital for the excellent attention and medical aid given our sick."

"We regret very much that we have not shown our appreciation by field exercises and parades but we have been so busy with detailed work that it has been impossible for us to do so."

Asheville Adopts Belgian Babies.

Asheville.—That Asheville is thoroughly aroused on the subject of caring for Belgian babies is indicated by the fact that the committee, which started out to "adopt" 500 of the youngsters, is now planning to care for 1,000 babies. Already there is $752 in the fund, with enough in sight to make it $700, and the committee has taken on renewed activity in an effort to increase the amount to $1,000. The Bingham school boys have raised their donation to an even $100 and a number of other schools are expected to follow suit. Asheville may eventually increase the number to more than 1,000.

Salisbury.—"Tell the people not to plant potatoes" is the request made to the newspapers by Mr. M. L. Jackson, a prominent citizen of Salisbury and large farmer. "So many people are gardening this year who have never gardened before that Mr. Jackson fears many perfectly good potatoes are going to be wasted. "Plant only the eyes of the potato and eat the rest of it," says Mr. Jackson. This, of course, no new doctrine, potato raisers knowing all along that this is the way to do it.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By F. O. SELLERS, Acting Director of the Sunday School Course in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)
(Copyright, 1917, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR APRIL 8 JESUS RAISED LAZARUS FROM THE DEAD—EASTER LESSON.

LESSON TEXT—John 11:1-27, 43, 44. (Read 11 to 44.)
GOLDEN TEXT—Jesus said unto him, I am the resurrection, and the life.—John 11:25.

This lesson occurred about two months before the crucifixion, Jesus being in Bethabara at the time of this call (See John 10:40; 1:28). There are four recorded cases of resurrection from the dead: Jairus' daughter (Matt. 9), the son of the widow of Nain (Luke 7), Lazarus, and also Jesus after his crucifixion (John 20).

I. The Lesson of Unbelief. Bethany, the home of Lazarus, is on the southeastern slope of Mt. Olivet, two miles from Jerusalem. Christ and his disciples were on the east side of the Jordan, having been driven there by the hostility of the Jews (John 10:31). He purposely delays his stay in that place that this event might give an opportunity for the manifestation of his wonder-working power. This delay was in face of his supernatural knowledge that Lazarus' sickness had been fatal, for he said plainly to his disciples, "Lazarus is dead." Philosophers have often called death a sleep, but always one from which there was no awakening; hence the skepticism of these sisters is not surprising. (1) They limited the power of Jesus to his person "if thou hadst been here." (2) They also limited his power to a certain place, "if thou hadst been here" (v. 21).

II. The Lesson of Pain. The suffering of these sisters produced sacrifice and self-devotion. Suffering brings blessing to others. It is also a means of self-culture. Suffering drives us to the Christ, and reveals to us the unrealized side of Christ's character (v. 25). Jesus is often never more kind than when he seems to be least kind. In the midst of her skepticism and pain Jesus gave Martha a new and glorious thought about the resurrection, "I am the resurrection and the life." If we desire that, all we have to do is to get Jesus himself (1 John 5:12). Resurrection has to do with the body, and life has to do with the spirit (John 17:3). All will ultimately experience resurrection, but only those who believe on him receive life (John 3:36). There is a resurrection of the body and there is a resurrection of damnation (John 5:29). Martha answered, "Yea Lord, I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God." It is all-important that we should really believe that (John 20:31; 1 John 5:15).

III. The Lesson of Love. Love always manifests itself in deeds. Martha secretly and quickly arose and left the waiting friends to go and meet the waiting Master. "The Master is come." He still comes, and calls to us, and, if, like Martha, we spring up gladly to meet him, he will fill our lives with blessing and joy. Jesus came to these sisters individually (v. 21, 28). He had entered the danger zone in order to be there (v. 8), and it was Thomas, the doubter, who wanted to accompany him (v. 16). "Jesus wept," not with the weeping of professional mourners, but with the silent, grief-stricken sisters.

IV. The Lesson of Power. Jesus had let natural causes work to their fullest extent. Coming to the tomb, Jesus said (v. 39), "Take ye away the stone." It was four days after the death of Lazarus before he came forth. Jesus was soon to die and rise in three days after his entombment. The stone had to be removed from the tomb of Lazarus; it rolled itself away from the tomb of Christ. The restrictions which Christ placed upon his exercise of power, viz., that he allowed Lazarus to die, to be buried, and his body to reach the point of putrefaction, and not to come forth until Jesus himself, in his body, was present at the tomb, emphasizes the lesson of the restraint of power for the glory of God. Out of such extreme circumstances of seeming impossibility God manifested his glory (Rom. 8:28).

Browning has given us a wonderfully imaginative picture of his renewed life on earth:
And oft the man's soul springs into his face
As if he saw again and heard again
His sage that bade him rise,
And he did rise.

The effect of the miracle was twofold. Many who were present believed on Jesus; others did not.
Some went to the Pharisees to relate what they had seen, only to meet with rebuff.

The remainder of the chapter is occupied with the plotting of the Pharisees against Jesus, and from this grave there stretches the shadow of a cross upon the path of Jesus.

This miracle ranks next to Christ's own resurrection as a demonstration of immortality.
Are we on resurrection ground? Has the stone been rolled away?
The resurrection of Lazarus proves that our earthly existence is only temporary, that our real existence is eternal.

Sound Advice.

The successful man of business was giving his son sound advice.
"My boy," said he, "whatever you do, don't brag."
"No, father," said the young man, dutifully.
"At least, not until after you have done it."
"And then?"
"Then," said the father, slowly, "if you were clever enough to do it really well, you will be clever enough to know that it's not worth bragging about."

Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.—Adv.

To Prevent Old Age Coming Too Soon!

"Toxic poisons in the blood are thrown out by the kidneys. The kidneys act as filters for such products. If we wish to prevent old age coming too soon and increase our chances for a long life, we should drink plenty of pure water and take a little Anuric," says the world-famed Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y.
When suffering from backache, frequent or scanty urine, rheumatic pains here or there, or that constant tired, worn-out feeling, the simple way to overcome these disorders is merely to obtain a little Anuric (double strength) from your nearest druggist and you will quickly notice the grand results. You will find it many times more potent than lithia, and that it dissolves uric acid as hot water does sugar.
