Come to See Us

To The Public

To those who do not know me, I wish to say that I am a young man, born in New Bern, N. C. got my education in New York, and as soon as my education was completed I came back to my native State which I call home, and I expect to remain here.

I am proud to say that I find here in Williamston the best and grandest people I ever met. I also wish to thank the people here for their kind courtesies and good will shown to me. This is one of the greatest encouragements for a young man in the first start in business.

Yours truly,
