FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 30, - 1917

The Germans in the West got "tanked up," but not on beer. It was British bullets.

If cotton reaches forty cents, as was predicted Monday on the New York market, there will be some sore spots in some farmers heads because they sold "too early."

Now that Thanksgiving is over, thoughts of the little Christmas stockings will fill the minds of men and women in this blessed land. But we should remember the homeless throughout the world.

The Republicans of the west have been holding a pow-wow this week to formulate plans to defeat the Democrats. Of course, Marion Butler was there, and that is a plenty to say about it.

Notice

By virtue of the authority conferred in me by a "Deed of Trust" executed to me by Joe Bell on the 23rd day of January, 1915, and duly recorded in the Register of Deeds Office in Martin County, in book H-1, page 251, to secure the payment of certain bonds bearing even date therewith, and the stipulations in said Deed of Trust not having been complied with, I shall expose for sale at public auction, for cash, in the Town of Parmele in front of the Post Office, at 11:00 o'clock, a. m. on the 22nd day of December, 1917, the following described real estate, to-wit:

Beginning at a ditch, O. L. Whitard's line; running South 85 E. 94 poles to Bryant Chance's line; thence south 17 1/2 W. 24 poles; thence south 18 E. 8 poles to a corner; thence north 86 1/2 W. 26 poles to a ditch; thence up said ditch to a bridge; thence a straight line to a pine stump in O. L. Whitard's line to the beginning, containing 31 acres more or less.

This is the 22nd day of November, 1917.

An Old Man's Stomach.

As we grow older and less active, less and less food is required to meet the demands of our bodies. If too much is habitually taken, the stomach will rebel. When a man reaches the advanced age of 85 or 90, you will find that he is a light eater. Be as careful as you will, however, you will occasionally eat more than you should and will feel the need of Chamberlain's Tablets to correct the disorder. These tablets do not contain pepsin, but strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its function naturally. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels.

Certain Cure for Croup.

Mrs. Rose Middleton, of Greenville, Ill. has had experience in the treatment of this disease. She says, "When my children were small my son had croup frequently. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always broke up these attacks immediately, and I was never without it in the house. I have taken it myself for coughs and colds with good results."

Mrs. P. O. Stuchell Tells How She Cured Her Son of a Cold.

"When my son Ellis was sick with a cold last winter I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It helped him at once and quickly broke up his cold," writes Mrs. P. O. Stuchell, Homer City, Pa. This remedy has been in use for many years. Its good qualities have been fully proven by many thousands of people. It is pleasant and safe to take.

For a Weak Stomach.

As a general rule all you need to do is to adopt a diet suited to your age and occupation and to keep your bowels regular. When you feel that you have eaten too much and when constipated, take one of Chamberlain's tablets.

FOR SALE.—One 5-room residence on Railroad Street in Robersonville, N. C. For terms apply to Mrs. George M. Underwood, 721 Boush St., Norfolk, Va.
