$ - MONEY ITSELF HAS NO VALUE - $

The only way to ascertain the value of money is through exchange. We are offering a dollars worth of goods for 60 cents cash. Ask yourself whether you are well supplied with the many things that you need. Give us a trial and you will realize how powerful your dollar is.

All our goods are marked in plain figures. The fine quality of our goods and the low price attached to it attracts the attention of the customers, and the goods itself makes its physical appeal.
