Peace On Earth

Though the world is the throes of pain as never before; though men's hearts are torn and bleeding with anguish, the sound of the joyous Christmas bells will be heard across the winter's world, and the music of the little children's voices will bring smiles to the lips which were wont to be sad, for again the Christ Child has come into the world, Christmas cheer will make the soldiers in camp and trench feel that the Holy Babe was not born in the little town of Bethlehem for nought. As they look out upon the sky on Christmas night, they will think of that star which led the men to the manger where Helay. For the time they will forget the dreadful carnage which the war brings, and think of the loved ones whose thoughts are with them that night.

Never has there been such tremendous sacrifice, and for that very truth, this should be the time when selfishness should be driven out of the hearts of men throughout the world; it is the day for the supreme test, the day when the love of the Child Jesus should fill the great American heart. Little children are crying for food in the war stricken portions of Europe; America is the mother of the world now, and she must unselfishly give of her blood and money. In this portion of God's America, there is plenty, and to spare. Let us truly embody in our thoughts and actions the spirit expressed in the angelic song, "Peace on earth, good will to men." Let the Babe come in our home and abide there, and then the Christmas of 1917 will be the most blessed in all your life.

To Hunt Bears

Two men from Ohio, A. E. Greenfield and a friend arrived here Sunday night for the purpose of hunting bears. They are friends of the late Mr. Cobb, who hunted here several seasons, and died after reaching home. Mr. W. C. Manning gave the hunters instructions how and where to find the section of the county in which Bruin prowls. They had expected to find the "Sunny South" and instead found ice and snow.

Papers Late

Last week, our bundle of papers failed to arrive from Charlotte until Saturday about 2 o'clock. This was due to congested express. So it was that our subscribers did not get their papers until the first of this week.

FOR SALE FOR SALE

Real Estate in North Carolina and Virginia
 For Quick Buyers

One hundred and fifty properties, including Farms, Dwellings, and Building Lots. Also several million feet standing pine, cypress and gum timber. Having formed connection with one of the oldest and most reliable Realty Companies of Norfolk, I am now in position to show and sell farms, standing timber and town properties. I can place purchasers in most any locality to suit their ideas, fancy and pocket books with acreage, kinds of soil for all crops grown in this climate. We have the finest trucking lands in the South around and near Norfolk. Beautiful homes. Stock raising and dairy farms on the James River. Also a bunch of cheap farms for buyers that don't care to leave the Old North State. One containing 150 acres, 65 cleared, price $7,000, $3,500 cash and $500 annual payments. Another 250 acres, 85 cleared, price $7,500, $4,200 cash, 11 $300 annual notes. These farms are 3 and 5 miles of Elizabeth City, respectively. Several wonderfully cheap farms at Sunbury. 210 acre farm, 140 cleared, 10 acres new ground, well rotted ready for plow. 2 two-story and 2 one-story dwellings, and ample out buildings. This is as good or best producing farm in Gates county, price 15,000, $5,000 cash, 10 yearly payments. 70 acre farm, 59 cleared, beautiful 6-room 2-story dwelling, ample out buildings, price $5,000, $2,000 cash, 6 yearly payments. Another, 114 acres, about 75 cleared. Buildings were burned this year, new barns, stables and shelters, no dwellings, price $5,500, $3,000 cash, plenty of time on balance.

Listen !! BUYERS Listen !!

The biggest values I ever saw I am offering to close before Jan. 1st, 1918. When the old gentleman told me the price, my countenance showed such surprise that his little daughter-in-law (like all good women, was on the job) said "Daddy hurry, bring Mr. Winslow a pitcher of Dismal Swamp Grape Camphor." She knew what I needed, but I was not slow in getting an option. Just think, five (5) little farms containing 350 acres all told. Within a radius of one mile—just like one farm with a two-story 6-room dwelling, plenty of out buildings and good tenant quarters—all these for the small sum of $7,500, $3,500 cash, eight $500 annual notes on balance or $7,000 all cash. His only son and family were crating furniture preparing to move back where he found his bride in West Virginia, the old gentleman was heart broken, didn't know what to do with his property, for he had to follow. This farm only 3 miles from Sunbury. Fine cotton, corn, peanut and field pea land, extra for stock raising. Buyer can sell the 5 farms separately and double his money in twelve months. Also have the home and vacant lots of Dr. Griffin, and dwelling and lots of Mrs. T. M. Hobbs in North Edenton for sale. These properties are up-to-date and in the new beautiful part of the town. By the way, the town is paving Main street to this section, making property values jump in prices. For further information, please write me. It will be a pleasure to set a date and show you any particular property.
