Trustee's Sale

Under and by virtue of the authority conveyed in me by a Deed of Trust executed to me by W. N. Roberson and wife, Sally Roberson, and W. Ed Roberson and wife, Ellie F. Roberson on the 4th day of December, 1916, and duly recorded in the Register of Deeds Office in Martin County in Book M-1 at page 307 to secure the payment of a certain bond bearing even date therewith, and the stipulations in said deed of trust not having been complied with, and at the request of the owner of the bond, I shall expose at Public Auction for Cash on the 12th day of November, 1918, at 12:00 M. at the Court House door in Martin County, the following tract of land:

Beginning at a fence post in a line running a North Eastern corner 125 rods, thence a South course 100 rods to a fence post, thence a line to the Westward course long 100 rods, thence a line to an iron stake corner, thence a Northwesterly course to an iron stake, a corner, thence a Southern course along Hiram Bowen's line to a black gum, a corner, thence a Westward course and across W. N. Roberson's line to the beginning, thence a Northern course along said W. N. Roberson's line to the beginning, containing 35 acres, more or less, being part of the Abram Biggs land, lying on the South Eastward side of said tract of land.

In The Superior Court
Sam Moore,

vs.

Will Moore et al.

The defendants, Will Moore, Geo. Moore, Edward Frazer and wife, Jennie Frazer, will take notice that an action entitled as above has been commenced in the Superior Court of Martin County, to sell for division the land formerly owned by Granville Moore, their father, containing thirteen acres more or less, and the said defendants will further take notice that they are required to appear before the clerk of the Superior Court of Martin County on November 14th, 1918 and answer or demur to the complaint in said action, or the plaintiff will apply for the relief demanded in said complaint.

This 9th day of October, 1918.
R. J. Peel
Clerk of the Superior Court.

Trustee's Sale

By virtue of the authority conferred in me by a "Deed of Trust" executed to me by Paul A. Ballard and wife, Ella C. Ballard, on the 28th day of September, 1917, and duly recorded in the Register of Deeds Office in Martin County, Book O-1 Page 145, to secure the payment of a certain bond bearing even date therewith, and the stipulations in said Deed of Trust not having been complied with, I shall expose at public auction, for cash, on Friday the 15th day of November, 1918 at 12:00 M. at the Court House door in Martin County, the following property:

Beginning in the Public River road leading from Williamston to Hamilton, where the Poplar Point road makes into it; thence a Southerly course along the line, T. B. Slade's line, to the head of a branch near where Jno. Cane formerly lived; thence down said branch to T. B. Slade's corner in the Downing patent line; thence North 74° West along said Downing's line to M. B. Ballard's, now J. G. Staton, Trustee, and Perry Baze-more, corner; thence a Northerly course to the run of a branch; thence up the various courses of said branch to the public road, near the school house; thence along said road to the beginning, containing 60 acres, more or less, excepting one acre conveyed to the School Trustees for a public school, and being same land conveyed to Paul A. Ballard by Joseph R. Ballard, by deed which appears of record in Book B-1 at page 573, Martin County Registry.

This 4th day of October, 1918.
Clayton Moore, Trustee
