FARMER RELATES STORY OF TROUBLE

THAT IS THE WAY J. F. HOLLEY SAYS HIS RHEUMATISM ACT-ED—IS A WELL MAN SINCE TAKING TANLAC, HE SAYS.

"This Tanlac is the first medicine I have ever taken that did what people said it would do," said J. F. Holley, residing at 427 Breckenridge street, Lexington, Ky.

"I was in an awful fix for over two months," he continued, "and my entire system seemed to be run down and worn out. Rheumatism was my worst trouble, my muscles seemed to be tied in knots. I could hardly sleep at night and would feel as tired in the morning as when I lay down at night. My digestion was affected, I had no appetite, my nervous system was disordered, and I suffered with would draw me up so I couldn't use my right arm at all.

"One day a friend of mine told me about Tanlac and I got a bottle and started taking it. It has certainly made a new man of me. I can eat anything I want, and this is something I haven't been able to do in years, and I sleep like a log at night.
That awful rheumatism is all gone and my strength has been restored and built up every way. I am glad to tell others what Tanlac has done for me."

Farmers Should "Buy A Ticket for Home"

Some people say that stock gamblers and race track followers used to have the custom of buying a ticket "for home" before putting all their money on one plunge or before betting their last cent on the races. Then if worst came to worst they could at least get home and make a new start.

Before deciding to gamble on the cotton acreage in 1919, Mr. Farmer, and Mr. Business Man, hadn't you better "buy a ticket for home." Safety demands that you protect yourself and your families by producing the food for the south upon the farms of the south as an insurance against a possible loss on the cotton market. Buy that ticket now. It is easy to do. Let me tell you how to buy a special rate farmers' safety ticket for home in 1919. The directions for getting that ticket are as follows:

First—A home garden for every farm family in the South to supply the home needs for the maximum number of days in the year with a sufficient surplus to be canned, stored or dried for future use, including an ample supply of Irish and sweet potatoes and, wherever possible, a small patch of cane or sweet sorghum to produce the home syrup.

Second—The production of corn on every farm sufficient to maintain the family and the live stock in ample food and feed for a year. In western Texas and Oklahoma grain sorghums should be substituted in place of corn for safety's sake.

Third—Produce the hay and forage necessary to amply supply the livestock on the farm for one year with an excess for the sake of safety, and special attention should be given to the sugar legumes, velvet beans, cowpeas, soy beans, and peanuts, especially for feeding purposes.

Fourth—Produce the most eggs and milk for every family on the farm. This means the production of logs, cattle and poultry and the care and keeping of good family cows.
Livestock is necessary in order to eat up the otherwise waste products of the farm and convert them into cash.

Fifth—Produce your cotton on a moderate acreage, well prepared and well tended. Secure the best seed of the very best varieties.

Sixth—Plan to meet all family and farm expenses from the surplus products of the farm outside of the cotton crop, and to have in the fall of 1919 a good supply of laying hens, at least two milk cows for every family and hogs in the lot to fill the family smoke house during the winter, potatoes either in the bank, the cellar or the storeroom for the winter's use, canned or dried vegetables and fruits, and a barrel of molasses for the family in crop of corn sufficient to last until the next crop is made, with good storage facilities for protecting same and ample hay and forage for the live stock.

This is the farmers' "ticket for home." If every farmer in the south will buy one of these tickets we are satisfied that he will not gamble on an excessive acreage in cotton.
