Newspapers have had many obstacles before them for the past few years—high wages and scarcity of materials have doubled our cost. We have not advanced our price on the weekly, but are forced to advance the semi-weekly from $1 to $2 per year AFTER MAY 1ST. Until that time we will take new subscriptions or renewals at $1 per year and any subscriber who has paid in advance can extend his time one year after the time paid to if he renews prior to May 1st.

We are sending quite a number of sample copies of the Enterprise this week and if you get one it is an invitation to place your name on our subscription list. All you have to do is to en-
