READ THIS LETTER:

Everetts, N. C., Nov. 11th, 1919.

Atlantic Coast Realty Co.,
Petersburg, Va.

My dear Sirs:

I wish to say that the sale you made for us on Oct. 31st was certainly a nice one, and especially when we consider everything that was against us. Some of your Big Bugs (Ferrelle and Morton) were taking care of the "Fla" and most every one around Washington was doing the same thing and it was raining. But those fellows looked that small crowd under a cow-shelter, got out in the rain to be in front of them, and sold them 122 acres of cleared land and 147 acres of wood land for $46,600, and sold to responsible people and evidently patriotic ones, judging from the amount of Liberty Bonds I have seen them handle since the sale.

Mr. J. L. Wynn, my partner in the deal, joins me in thanking you for making us a handsome profit, and beg to remain, with best wishes,

Yours very truly,

Geo. W. Williams, M. J.

We have other endorsement letters that emphatically express the satisfaction of our customers. Write for copies of these and booklet explaining our methods.
