

The Prodigal Village

By Irving Bacheller

It was a fine, comfortable home, situated in the heart of the city, with a view of the river and the bridge. The house had been built by the late Mr. J. Patterson, a man of means and a man of good taste. It was a fine, comfortable home, situated in the heart of the city, with a view of the river and the bridge. The house had been built by the late Mr. J. Patterson, a man of means and a man of good taste.

Mrs. Bing Tried a Cigarette and Got Along With It Very Well.

When there was a loud yell in the streets at night Judge Crocker used to say, "It's Illiam again. The poor fellow is out a-hrangling."

William Hodgson, the carpenter, gave much thought and reflection to the good fortune of the Gilligan girls.

If a hired girl could earn twenty-five dollars a week and her board, a skilled mechanic, who had to board himself, ought to earn at least fifty. So he put up his prices. Israel Sued, the plumber, raised his scale to correspond with that of the carpenter.

Judge Crocker was in the little theater that evening that the Old Spirit of Binville received notice to quit. The sons and daughters and even the young children of the best families in the village were there.

It was a fine, comfortable home, situated in the heart of the city, with a view of the river and the bridge. The house had been built by the late Mr. J. Patterson, a man of means and a man of good taste.

It was a fine, comfortable home, situated in the heart of the city, with a view of the river and the bridge. The house had been built by the late Mr. J. Patterson, a man of means and a man of good taste.

When there was a loud yell in the streets at night Judge Crocker used to say, "It's Illiam again. The poor fellow is out a-hrangling."

William Hodgson, the carpenter, gave much thought and reflection to the good fortune of the Gilligan girls.

If a hired girl could earn twenty-five dollars a week and her board, a skilled mechanic, who had to board himself, ought to earn at least fifty. So he put up his prices.

Judge Crocker was in the little theater that evening that the Old Spirit of Binville received notice to quit. The sons and daughters and even the young children of the best families in the village were there.

It was a fine, comfortable home, situated in the heart of the city, with a view of the river and the bridge. The house had been built by the late Mr. J. Patterson, a man of means and a man of good taste.

It was a fine, comfortable home, situated in the heart of the city, with a view of the river and the bridge. The house had been built by the late Mr. J. Patterson, a man of means and a man of good taste.

When there was a loud yell in the streets at night Judge Crocker used to say, "It's Illiam again. The poor fellow is out a-hrangling."

William Hodgson, the carpenter, gave much thought and reflection to the good fortune of the Gilligan girls.

If a hired girl could earn twenty-five dollars a week and her board, a skilled mechanic, who had to board himself, ought to earn at least fifty. So he put up his prices.

Judge Crocker was in the little theater that evening that the Old Spirit of Binville received notice to quit. The sons and daughters and even the young children of the best families in the village were there.

It was a fine, comfortable home, situated in the heart of the city, with a view of the river and the bridge. The house had been built by the late Mr. J. Patterson, a man of means and a man of good taste.

It was a fine, comfortable home, situated in the heart of the city, with a view of the river and the bridge. The house had been built by the late Mr. J. Patterson, a man of means and a man of good taste.

When there was a loud yell in the streets at night Judge Crocker used to say, "It's Illiam again. The poor fellow is out a-hrangling."

William Hodgson, the carpenter, gave much thought and reflection to the good fortune of the Gilligan girls.

If a hired girl could earn twenty-five dollars a week and her board, a skilled mechanic, who had to board himself, ought to earn at least fifty. So he put up his prices.

Judge Crocker was in the little theater that evening that the Old Spirit of Binville received notice to quit. The sons and daughters and even the young children of the best families in the village were there.

It was a fine, comfortable home, situated in the heart of the city, with a view of the river and the bridge. The house had been built by the late Mr. J. Patterson, a man of means and a man of good taste.

It was a fine, comfortable home, situated in the heart of the city, with a view of the river and the bridge. The house had been built by the late Mr. J. Patterson, a man of means and a man of good taste.

When there was a loud yell in the streets at night Judge Crocker used to say, "It's Illiam again. The poor fellow is out a-hrangling."

William Hodgson, the carpenter, gave much thought and reflection to the good fortune of the Gilligan girls.

If a hired girl could earn twenty-five dollars a week and her board, a skilled mechanic, who had to board himself, ought to earn at least fifty. So he put up his prices.

Judge Crocker was in the little theater that evening that the Old Spirit of Binville received notice to quit. The sons and daughters and even the young children of the best families in the village were there.

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

She Kept Her Locks Dark and Glossy with Sage Tea and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, you can say that you have the radiance and preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE

Having qualified as executor of the estate of Mrs. Margaret Taylor, deceased, notice is hereby given to all persons holding claims against said estate to present them to the undersigned for payment, on or before the 24th day of February, 1922.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE

Having qualified as executor of the estate of Mrs. M. J. Lawrence, deceased, notice is hereby given to all persons holding claims against said estate to present them to the undersigned for payment, on or before the 24th day of February, 1922.

NOTICE OF SALE

North Carolina, Martin County. Under and by virtue of the authority contained in a certain Deed of Trust from O. M. Lilley and wife Mauld Lilley to the undersigned trustee and bearing date of 17th December 1919 and recorded in the Register of Deeds office for Martin County in book A-2 page 329, executed, to secure payment of a certain bond of even date therewith and the stipulations contained in the said deed of trust not having been complied with and at the request of the parties interested, the undersigned trustee will sell, for cash, to the highest bidder, at the Court House Door, in Williamston, N. C., at Twelve o'clock, on the 7th day of March 1921 the following described real property, to-wit:

A tract of land beginning at the mouth of Tar Landing Road near S. W. Harrison; thence, running up the Williamston Road 4-4 poles to a Small Oak, South 9 East to the run of Black Swamp; thence, running down the various courses of said Swamp to a corner formerly mess Swamp to a corner in the line of Levi S. Yate's land, being a corner formerly between Shephard and Yate thence, N. 25 West along Yate line 123 poles to the mouth of Tar Landing Road the beginning, containing 100 acres, more or less.

PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH

Tell How To Open Clogged Nostrils and End Head-Colds.

RUB BACKACHE AND LUMBAGO RIGHT OUT

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a small bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" in any drug store pour a little in your hand and rub it right into the pain or ache, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE

Having qualified as executor of the estate of Mrs. M. J. Lawrence, deceased, notice is hereby given to all persons holding claims against said estate to present them to the undersigned for payment, on or before the 24th day of February, 1922.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE

Having qualified as executor of the estate of Mrs. M. J. Lawrence, deceased, notice is hereby given to all persons holding claims against said estate to present them to the undersigned for payment, on or before the 24th day of February, 1922.

NOTICE OF SALE

North Carolina, Martin County. Under and by virtue of the authority contained in a certain Deed of Trust from O. M. Lilley and wife Mauld Lilley to the undersigned trustee and bearing date of 17th December 1919 and recorded in the Register of Deeds office for Martin County in book A-2 page 329, executed, to secure payment of a certain bond of even date therewith and the stipulations contained in the said deed of trust not having been complied with and at the request of the parties interested, the undersigned trustee will sell, for cash, to the highest bidder, at the Court House Door, in Williamston, N. C., at Twelve o'clock, on the 7th day of March 1921 the following described real property, to-wit:

A tract of land beginning at the mouth of Tar Landing Road near S. W. Harrison; thence, running up the Williamston Road 4-4 poles to a Small Oak, South 9 East to the run of Black Swamp; thence, running down the various courses of said Swamp to a corner formerly mess Swamp to a corner in the line of Levi S. Yate's land, being a corner formerly between Shephard and Yate thence, N. 25 West along Yate line 123 poles to the mouth of Tar Landing Road the beginning, containing 100 acres, more or less.

MARGOLIS BROS. AND BROOKS

Service Quality Price. We are a... the fundamentals of... QUALITY... PRICE... Yours for better service.

PEANUT GROWERS MEETINGS FOR MARTIN COUNTY

- Robersonville—Saturday, February 26, 3 p. m.
- Parmele—Monday, February 28, 7:30 p. m.
- Hassell—Wednesday, March 2, 7:30 p. m.
- Hamilton—Friday, March 4, 7:30 p. m.
- Oak City—Saturday, March 5, 3 p. m.

GROUP II

- Williamston—Saturday, February 26, 3 p. m. Meeting at City Hall.
- Everett—Monday, February 28, 7:30 p. m.
- Bear Grass—Wednesday, March 2, 7:30 p. m.
- Griffins—Friday, March 4, 7 p. m.
- Jamesville—Saturday, March 5, 3 p. m.

J. FRANK FOOSHE SECRETARY AND MANAGER