STORMS

In preparing for the proverbial rainy day, don't wait until it begins to sprinkle. Storms are always unexpected. If they could be foreseen much of the suffering and disaster they cause could be avoided. About all human ingenuity can do to lessen the damage done by storms is to provide safe and secure shelter.

Financial and business storms generally come out of a clear sky.

Those who have not prepared safe shelter usually suffer loss.

Wise people prepare for financial storms by securing safe shelter for their money in a strong, safe bank. When financial and business tempests blow they have "money in the bank" and suffer little discomfort.

Are you prepared for the next storm? Is your financial umbrella where you can get it when you need it most?

May 31st, 1921.

Sergel Rachmaninoff, Esq.,
22 East 95th Street,
New York City.

My dear Mr. Rachmaninoff:

Under a contract between yourself and Thomas A. Edison, Inc., dated the 24th of April, 1919, it is provided, in effect, that the royalties payable to you on various selections, which you have recorded for us, shall continue, only so long as you do not make phonographic recordings of such selections for anyone else.

I shall be very glad to give you permission to record these selections for others, without the loss of royalties under the aforesaid agreement. This will give you the opportunity to record your "Prelude in C Sharp Minor" and other important works, which you have already recorded for us.

Yours very truly,

Thomas A. Edison

Facsimile of letter written by Mr. Edison to Rachmaninoff, the noted Russian composer-pianist.

This letter gives talking-machines the right to record Rachmaninoff in his famous "Prelude in C Sharp Minor," and other compositions which he has recorded for Edison.

Will any of them exercise that right? We fear not—the parallel would be too deadly.

But Rachmaninoff has recorded other selections for the talking-machines. Hear how they sound. Then come in, hear Rachmaninoff on the New Edison, and see what an astounding difference the comparison reveals.

Do it now—because the experience will help you in
