Mr. J. G. Latham of Washington was in town today taking subscriptions for the Washington Daily News. He has been with that paper for number of years. The Daily News has a large list of subscriberrs in Martin county, and is generally the first paper to bring the news. It sometime fails to reach here on the evening however which is always a dis-

PRACTICAL EDUCATION

The child's brain is susceptible of the highest development, but it should be developed along the line of its inclinations and for practicalof its inclinations and for practical-purposes. If ever there was a time when sanity in education was needed, now is that time. Our schools and colleges are educating the youth of this land away from the natural tendencies and from the human instincts of well developed boys and girls.

The education of today seems to destroy initiative, self-reliance, courage, and a desire for self-support. The educational system of today has apparently destroyed the desire on the part of children to be contributing members of society. They seem to think that the state owes them something because it gives them a free education. There are very few born learning to be master members, and the state of the The education of today seems to.

American master mechanica the factories of the land would have to close. The majority of the master mechanise controlling the factories today have been trained in foreign schools. There are very few apprentices. We have permitted the tyrannical labor unions of the country to destroy the school of apprentices. The idea of organizations or institutions arbitrarily saying how many apprentices they will permit to be trained! Such a tyrannical suggestion from an organization should not be permitted. Such a doctrine is a damnable curse to the manufacturing plants of this land.

Men of brains and money should

Men of brains and money should spend their time and money and their time and money and their energy is founding, erecting, and directing technological schools for the training of boys and girls in the great mechanical trades of life. They should be a great reamological schools be a great reamological black to be a great reamological black trades.

COME AND SEE IS ALL WE ASK

The Farmers Warehouse

Williamston, North Carolina

To my friends of Martin and adjoining counties:

The Farmers Ware-House of Williamston, Martin county, N. C. will be run independently as last year by the old reliable J. W. Hight, a man who knows tobacco and will always get you highest market prices for every pile of tobacco put on his floor. We have plenty of money, and will pay cash, we don't pay part and then promise to pay other in five or ten years. I have served you for the last twelve years, and have always tried to do the straight thing. So when you load your wagon, tell your driver to drive straight to The Farmers Ware House where you'll find doors will be opened day and night. The market opens in Williamston August 16, 1922. Here you'll find a full corpse of buyers from all the companies. I will have a full force of office men to serve you and one of the best auctioneers in the state. So if you will come to see me you'll make no mistake to get the high dollar. Thanking you for your past patronage,

I beg to be yours to serve,

J. W. Hight.
