MKS. CRAWFORD ENTERTAINS 20TH CFNTURY CLUB

The Club Members and Guests Have Enjoyable Evening

The Twentieth Century club held its regular bi-weekly meeting with Mrs. K. B. Crawford on Smithwick street, on Wednesday afternoon from four to

The hostess, assisted by her sister, Mrs. kopert Caurchill of Unicago, who is visiting her, very graciously received the guests and a most enjoyable meeting was held in Mrs. Crawford's home.

The club is studying noted south ern writers this year and Thomas Nel- , Jun's DRAFT Son Page, one of the south's mos gifted and versatile writers was the subject of discussion for the atternoon. The recent death of this noted man made the paper on his ute, which was read by Mrs. Wheeler Martin unusually interesting. A selection from his writings was read by Mrs. W. H. Harrell and current events were given by Mrs. F. W. Hoyt.

A very attractive musical program was rendered b ysome of William- 40 for military service, according to ston's most talented musicians. Miss information from Warsaw teday. Vella Andrews stang a selection from the opera, "Il Travatore." Mrs. Churchili and Mrs. Warren Biggs played a piano duet and Mrs. J. S. Rhodes sang "Mamuy's Song."

Ice cream and cake were served by the hostess at the conclusion of the program. Beside the club members | war, is reported to be with the Ruspresent, were: Mrs. W. J. Hunter, Mrs. Carrie Biggs Williams, Mrs. J. G. Godard, Jr., Mrs. A. T. Crawferd, Mrs. G. H. Harrison, Mrs. C. A. Harrison, Mrs. L. C. Bennett, Miss Anna Pope, Mrs. F. W. Graves, Mrs. Luke Lamb, Mrs. A. V. Joyner, Mrs. P. B. Cone, Mrs. L. T. Fowden, Mrs. M. D. Watts, Miss Anna Crawford, Miss mary smith, and Mrs, Maurice Moore.

The members present were: Mrs. W. H. Biggs, Mrs. B. A. Critcher, Miss-Velia Andrews, Mrs. W. H. Harrell, Mrs. F. W. Hoyt, Mrs. W. Martin, Mrs. Clayton Moore, Mrs. J. S. Rhoue. Mrs. J. H. Saunders and airs. h. M Stubbs.
