A safe investment—a well prepared garden.

The family garden will receive more and more attention if located near the farm home.

The ideal garden soil is a deep, mellow, well drained loam of high fertility and retentive of moisture.

THOMAS JEFFERSON WAS ORIGINAL PROHIBITION PRESIDENT OF THE U. S

In his inaugural address a few weeks ago, Governor Silzer of New Jersey, quoted what he claimed to be an anti-prohibition statement of Thomas Jefferson, although he failed to cite when this alleged quotation was made, or where it may be found. It may be it is a forgery, like another statement attributed to Lincoln. Here is what Silzer said Thomas Jefferson said:

"No nation is drunken where wine is cheap, and none sober where ardent spirits are substituted as the common beverage. Wine is an antidote for the love of whiskey."

The New Jersey Issue calls the attention of Governor Silzer to a certain quotation from the writings of Thomas Jefferson. There's no question about the authenticity of these statements, for the issue tells where they may be found. One thing is certain, and that is they are not to be:

"He was the original prohibitionist and it was in response to his urging that congress passed the first prohibition law to protect the Indians." (See pages 349-50, Vol. III, The Writings of Thomas Jefferson.)

Later, January 10, 1809, he wrote as president to the chiefs of the various Indian tribes, as follows:

"My Children: We saw that the things were wasting away your numbers to nothing; that the intemperate use of ardent spirits produced poverty, trouble and murders among you. It has been our endeavor, therefore, like true fathers and brothers, to withhold strong liquors from you. This we have done, my children, because we are your friends and wish you well. If we feared you, or were your enemies, we should have furnished you plentifully with whiskey. We have been told, my children, that some of you have been doubting whether we or the English were your truest friends. What could the English do for you? They furnish you with plenty of whiskey, which keeps you in idleness and poverty." (See Vol. XVI, pages 461-2, The Writings of Thomas Jeeerson.)

In his later life, in a letter to Gen. 1803, Mr. Jefferson advocated that in legislation the state should protect its wards, "Such as infants, madmen, gamblers and drunkards." Of the latter he said: "The drunkard requires restrictive measures to save him from the fatal infatuation under which he is destroying his health, his means, his family, and his usefulness to society."

In 46 counties of the state, 1,720,905 containers were filled with canned products with a value of $3,905, according to Mrs. Jane S. McKimmon of the agricultural extension service. Most of this came from the gardens in those counties.

DRY LAW ENFORCEMENT NO EXPENSE TO TAXPAYER: FINES, ETC., OVER PAY COST

Specious Whine of Liquor Vendors Is Baseless; Prohibition Enforcement Big Source of Revenue to General Government

Prohibition enforcement is not an expense to taxpayers.

The liquor law violators pay the cost and something besides.

For instance, reports from state's attorneys of 23 representative Illinois counties show that fines and penalties brought into the county treasury more than the cost of enforcement.

The total cost in the 23 counties reported was $137,484. The returns to the county treasuries of these 23 counties amounted to $199,861. The average period covered in the reports was eleven months during the years 1921 and 1922.

These figures are compiled from reports made to American Issue, Illinois edition, and include all reports American Issue was able to secure. This statement is made to show that the figures presented are not selected from a larger list of counties with the least favorable reports omitted.

LESSON FOR MARCH 18

JESUS CRUCIFIED

LESSON TEXT—Luke 23:32-38.

GOLDEN TEXT—He was wounded for our transgressions. He was bruised for our iniquities, the chastisement of our peace was upon Him, and with His stripes we are healed.—Isaiah 53:5.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Psa. 22:1-21; I Cor. 1:23; 2:2; Gal. 6:14.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus on the Cross.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus on the Cross.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—What Our Saviour Endured.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Meaning of Christ's Death.

We now face the greatest tragedy of all time. No record in the annals of history approaches it. It is the very climax of all history. Though unique in its blackness, from it flows streams of liberty and life for all the world. Let every teacher drive the personal experience of Christ's death for him, and then get his people to see that Christ's death was instead of their own death.

I. The Place of Crucifixion (v. 33).

Thrusting Him away to Calvary, a hill north of Jerusalem resembling a skull. Calvary is the Latin word and Golgotha is the Hebrew. This is a significant name for the place where man's redemption was accomplished. The skull is an apt picture of man's condition as the result of sin—life and intelligence are gone, leaving only the dark empty cavern which once contained them. Jesus was not crucified in the city for He was to suffer without the gate (Heb. 13:12).

II. His Companions on the Cross (v. 33).

Two malefactors were crucified with Him. Their names are not given. This is a fulfillment of the Scriptures. "He was numbered with the transgressors." (Isaiah 53:12).

III. His Forgiving Love (v. 34).

He cried, "Father, forgive them." He doubtless had in mind not only the soldiers who acted for the government, but the Jews who in their blindness were ignorant of the enormity of their crime. He had no hatred in His heart. He prayed for their salvation.

IV. The World Revealed (vv. 35-43).

Jesus Christ on the cross is the supreme revelation of the world. Pharisaism, represented by the rulers, and religious formalism, represented by the soldiers, and rejection, represented by the thief, all came to a head at the cross. The climax of the world's attitude toward Christ was reached and representatives of each class were found around Jesus on the cross. The climax in the judgment of this world (John 12:31).

1. The Contrition (v. 34). They crucified for His sake were right under the cross where He was dying. This represents those whose primary interest in Christ is a means to get gain.

2. The Indifferent (v. 35). The people stood beholding. The great mass of the world is represented. Christ was treated with indifference.

3. The Scoffers (vv. 35-39). (1) The Rulers scoffed Him for His claim to being a Savior. They wanted a Savior, but not a crucified Savior. Many men are religious but have only a form of godliness which denies the real meaning. (2) The Soldiers scoffed Him for His claim to be a king. The title, "King of the Jews" had been placed over Him in bitter irony, but it was true, for by right of His Father's covenant He was the King over all. (3) The Thief (vv. 39-43). His brutal nature was revealed by his railing even when he was under condemnation.

4. The Penitent (vv. 40-43). The conscious sinner who discerned the spirit of the Sacrificial Lamb for mercy. The salvation of this penitent thief is a remarkable picture of the saving power of Christ. The man confessed his sin as against God and cried to Jesus for salvation. He saw that the dying Man was the forgiving God. The fact that he acknowledged his sin as against God showed that he was penitent. His request for Christ to remember him when He came into His kingdom shows that he recognized that the dying One was dying on the cross was making an atonement for sin and that He would come to reign as King. His salvation was immediate. Christ said, "Today shalt thou be with me in paradise."

V. The Death of Christ (vv. 44-46).

Shocking was the crime that nature threw around the Son of God a shroud to hide Him from the Godless crowd. Darkness fell upon the land at noonday. When the price of sin was paid He cried with a loud voice showing that His death was not through exhaustion but by His sovereign will.

Manners.

Manners are the happy ways of doing things.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Time.

Time devours all human things, and it is but fitting that we should snatch something from it for our turn, which may turn to account in life eternal.—St. Vincent of Lerins.

A Cheerful Face.

A cheerful face is nearly as good for an invalid as healthy weather.—Franklin.

Taking Our Colors.

We take our colors, chameleon-like, from each other.—Chesnutt.

Plan the garden before planting and make it of a size that will receive adequate attention.

There is no substitute for thorough and timely cultivation and this largely determines the final outcome of the garden venture.
