WEST END, Sept. 10.—The marriage of Miss Emily Louise Von Canon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. ROANOKE FAIR FRIGORAMA IS GETTING BETTER EVERY DAY AS TIME IS NEARER. New Bookings Have Been Made in Almost Every Department at the Fair Recently.

The bookings in the live stock department of the Roanoke Fair have gone beyond expectations and the famous Pinehurst Farms have written the manager that they wish to bring direct from the Southern Berkshire congress a large exhibit of prize winners.

The races will be more exciting than any others ever run on this track. The secretary of the North Carolina grand circuit advises that he has just returned from the big meets in the west and that the original entries of some of the fastest horses in the United States will be a certainty. They are coming to Williamston and race for the money. No Hippodrome races in these; every horse is out for the big dollar.

Bookings in the open classes continue to pour in. The stable room will be doubled to take care of the entries. The poultry department bids fair to outrival any show ever in this fair. Orders from all over the state have signified their intention to come in complete for the two cups being offered by the Williamston Chamber of Commerce and the many specialists in the business meet of Williamston.

Tuesday, November 13th will be school day, and all children will be admitted free at the main gate on that date for the day program. The night program will be augmented every before; a double bill of five work and free acts that will amuse both young and old. Keep these dates open. You will want to come both day and night.
