FALL & WINTER COATS

EXCEPTIONAL VALUES

Into the assembling of these beautiful Coats have gone endless care, forethought and planning. There have been on the one side the securing of price concessions in connection with certain uncommonly attractive garments, on the other judicious selection of exclusive models and very successful have we been on both counts.

Have adapted themselves with delightful grace to the making of these coats.

Note the new ideas which they display—the fuller sleeve, the slender line from hip to hem—the collar, so big and luxurious—so all enveloping.
