

IN THE FAT MAN'S CORNER

The FAT MAN has promised the Editor that he will make this corner the brightest and suggest spots in the whole paper. The FAT MAN is glad to have his readers send him bits of news, items and clever paragraphs—these things that put everyone in high, good humor and leave one all chuckling inside. The newer, the better, and he will pay at the rate of one dollar a piece for them when suitable for his corner. Unusable contributions will not be returned unless accompanied by addressed stamped envelope. The FAT MAN, Editorial Dept., National Pictorial News, Washington, D. C.

SELLING OUT

Bill: I make it a rule to pay 'as I go.

Dill: In these days you are mighty lucky if you don't have to pay coming and going.—Cartoons Magazine.

A NATURAL PLEA

"Do you want the shoulders padded?" asked the tailor of the mother who was buying a suit for her boy. "No, Mamma," pleaded her son, "tell him to pad the pants."

TAKING NO CHANCES

The train came to a grinding stop at a small town in the south and the head of a gentleman of color protruded from a window at the end of a car. Seated by his side could be seen a brown skinned maiden.

"Does yuh know a cullud pusson by de name uv Jim Brown what lives in yuh?" he asked a station lounge. "Ain't never heerd o' no Jim Brown home here, an' Ah lived in dis hyah town for ten years."

"Is yo' right shuah dey ain't nev'ly in yuh?" "Is yo' right shuah dey ain't nev'ly in yuh?"

WHAT SHE HAD

During dinner the other evening the eight year old daughter of the house suddenly interrupted the conversation.

"Dad, you and Mother can't guess what I have under the table."

Then, after the manner of parents who like to please their children, they guessed all kinds of things, but without success. So they said: "We give up. Tell us."

Whereupon the kiddie, drawing her face up in a grimace, replied: "A stomach ache."

WHY THEY WEAR 'EM

Squibb (looking in a hair dressers' window): I wonder why women wear switches any way?

Gibb: I suppose for the same reason that railroads use 'em.

Squibb: Why is that? Gibb: So as to get by.—Cartoons Magazine.

Soap, 1 cent a cake

Save meat-scrap and grease—make your own soap. Five and one-half lbs. of waste grease, one can of RED SEAL Lye and a little water make 10 lbs. of the best soap you ever used. Follow directions carefully.

No trouble or fuss. Thousands of women are saving a few dollars every year by using RED SEAL Lye to do the unpleasant work in the home.

Write for booklet of helpful hints. Full directions in each can. Be sure and buy only the genuine RED SEAL Lye.

Buggins: Except the fellow who is constantly telling about the things he is going to do some day.—Chicago Ledger.

MORE MONEY ON TOBACCO CROP OF 1922

Final Payment Will Be Received as Soon As Tobacco Is Sold

Another advance will be made by the Tobacco Growers' association on the 1922 tobacco crop in a very few days.

The money is now on deposit in the local banks and checks may be expected as soon as they can be delivered.

All of the 1922 crop has not yet been sold, and another advance and final settlement will be made when the balance of the crop has been sold.

A shortage of 700,000 homes in this country is estimated, but no one yet has had courage to estimate the garage shortage.—Pittsburg Gazette-Times.

COOPERATIVE MARKETING ASSOCIATIONS TO MEET HERE SATURDAY, OCT. 6

A county meeting of the Farmer-Cooperative Marketing associations is to be held at the court house, Saturday, October 6th, at 2 p. m.

All farmers are urgently requested to attend.

A young man going to call on his sweetheart can't go fast enough. After she is in the car he can't slow it down enough. Such is life.—A. A. Bill Hodges.

Your trip to Richmond

WHEN in Richmond, a cordial welcome awaits you at Miller & Rhoads Store. Make it your headquarters. Check your parcels and grips, refresh yourself in comfortable rest rooms, and shop around to your heart's content.

Miller & Rhoads Store is the shopping place not only for the people of Richmond, but for all the Virginias and Carolinas. Through its policy of good merchandise at fair prices it has deservedly won the confidence and goodwill of the people of these states.

Nowhere in the South will you find anything like Miller & Rhoads Store. It is something more than a "shopping place." It is a House of Service—everything for your convenience.

Shopping in Miller & Rhoads Store is pleasant and comfortable—wide aisles, high-ceilinged, spacious and airy floors. Electric elevators whisk you from floor to floor, relieving you of tiresome stair climbing. Your packages are delivered by automobile or sent by express or parcel post, free of charge—no need to carry them around with you.

Shopping at Miller & Rhoads makes a trip to Richmond extraordinarily worth while. Enjoy the beautiful and interesting sights of this charming old capital of the South, and at the same time make it a profitable visit by shopping for the wonderful values at Miller & Rhoads.

Come directly to Miller & Rhoads Store at Broad, Sixth and Grace Streets on your arrival in Richmond. Take a trolley car, a bus or a "jitney" from the railroad station. You will find us friendly and glad to serve.

A trip to Richmond should certainly include a pilgrimage to Hadden's famous statue of Washington. The First President himself posed for the statue eight years before his death. It is said to be the only statue in existence sculptured from the living model. It stands in the rotunda of the Capitol, just a few squares from Miller & Rhoads Store.

Bills from the most famous of American and European lands are here for your choosing; smart crapes, and suits for the new fall frocks. Handsome velvets for the costume suit, and gorgettes and chiffons in all the latest, stylish new evening shades.
