

The Gaston county doctors took the proper stand when they refused to allow the North Carolina Tubercular Association to meet in that county because it was headed by Dr. L. B. McBryer.

Dr. McBryer will be remembered as the head of the State Sanitarium for many years. It began to look as if the institution belonged to him, which the people stood for with patience until some saw danger of his taking charge of the whole state. This brought on investigation by a legislative committee, which uncovered many flagrant conditions.

During the investigation Dr. McBryer, under cover of a band of political allies, undertook to uphold his acts. He was then put at the head of the North Carolina Tubercular Association. A paying job but one in which he could handle no money.

The Gaston doctors did just the correct thing in repudiating the action of a political ring in putting McBryer at the head of an important state organization.

It seems that the first thing many people want to do when they are placed in office is to build up around them a political dynasty strong enough to choke the will of the people to the end that they might perpetuate their own power.

Dr. McBryer failed to pull it over the doctors of Gaston county.

We are unable to say what the expense of the Leaman-Coston Evangelistic Part have been and what they will be at the end. But we do know that they will be many many times less than the amount of good accomplished. Even tho they should run into the hundred thousands of dollars the amount would seem small in comparison with the value received. The value may be determined from two standpoints—that of dollars and cents and that of human souls. And when we stop and think of the number of souls saved and what it means in the hereafter, it would be a hard matter to really determine the value in dollars and cents.

The work of this party is taking effect in a very thorough manner. Last Sunday the various Sunday schools reported an increase in numbers ranging from 100 to over 200 per cent.

And while Mr. Leaman says there are yet many who have not benefited by the meeting, we believe that if he should be called away, our town would have received more for its investment than it has from any other ever made by it. Then to know that the party will be here several weeks longer, why to estimate the value derived and to be derived is beyond our power of telling just what it will be.

A BOY AND HIS STOMACH

What's the matter with you—Ain't I always been your friend? Ain't I been a partner to you? All my pennies don't I spend in getting nice things for you? Don't I give you lots of cake? Say, stummick, what's the matter that you had to go an' ache? Why, I loaded you with good things yesterday, I gave you more Potatoes, squash an' turkey than you'd ever had before. I gave you nuts an' candy, pumpkin pie and chocolate cake. An' las' night when I got to bed you had to go an' ache. Say, what's the matter with you—ain't you satisfied at all? I gave you all you wanted, you was hard jes' like a ball, An' you couldn't hold another bit of puddin', yet last night, You ached mos' awful, stummick; that ain't treatin' me jes' right. I've been a friend to you, I have, why ain't you a friend o'mine? They gave me castory oil last night because you made me white. I'm awful sick this mornin' an' I'm feelin' mighty blue, Cause you don't appreciate the things I do for you.

The Stomach's Reply to The Boy Well, boy, I'm a friend of yours and I'll do the best I can, If you do not abuse me, to make of you a man, You asked me what's the matter—why I had to go an' ache.

When for me you spent your pennies, for candy, pies and cake? Yes, you loaded me with good things, potatoes and turkey; more Than you had ever given me in the same time before;

Then you gave me nuts and candy, pumpkin pie and chocolate cake. Until I had to work so hard it made my poor sides ache.

Then you failed to chew your food last night, and swallowed it whole. That's why they gave you castor oil, your stomach to console.

You're awful sick this morning? Well, I guess you ought to be becuz you do not chew the things you're stuffin into me.

You ask: What's the matter, stummick, ain't you satisfied at all? When you try to put a gallon where two pints are gone too small.

Til I was hard just like a ball, and I just had to ache.

You save you've been a friend to me and I've befriended you? You've abused and overworked me 'til I'm sore all through and thru; You gave me all I wanted before you gave me pie and cake! Then you asked me what's the matter that I had to go and ache!
