One of the mysteries of road building is the engineering. An example may be seen at the Welches Creek bridge, where a new bridge has been built almost 8 feet above the present road, and the present road is above any water since Noah's Ark rested on Ararat.

The cost of the greater elevation will reach well into the thousands of first cost and will be much harder to keep up and is not worth as much as a lower bridge would be.

The engineering will necessitate a fill of many hundred cubic yards of earth.

The people of course pay these bills. They have to; but why let such expenditures hinge on one man, designated "the engineer"?

The people still have two grand and glorious privileges left—one to grumble and the other to pay their taxes.

Our question is—Why spend money foolishly?

The United States has brought suit against the Peanut cleaners, alleging that the cleaners are organized and working in restraint of trade.

The suit is brought under the Sherman Anti-trust Act and is an action similar to that brought in 1914 by the Government against the American Tobacco Co., which forced the company to dissolve; and, while it did not perfect things, there is no doubt but that the tobacco growers of America have received many millions more than if the suit had not been brought.

It is quite apparent that the peanut growers have had a bad deal from the cleaners, who have gone all the way controlling and manipulating every detail of the peanut business.

Peanut farmers are looking with much interest at the proceedings in the case.

The testimony of Mrs. Frank D. Scott, wife of Congressman Frank D. Scott, of Michigan, in a court suit for divorce is a grand indictment against our Congressmen, Army officers, and other political dignitaries in Washington.

She says there were many egg-nogg parties and that on certain trips, especially to Panama, "We wives of Congressmen were thrown together a lot, because the men gambled and drank all day.

She made the statement that "In Washington every time you turn around it is a cocktail. We served them to everybody."

The testimony of Mrs. Scott gives a fair explanation of our political evils. Drunkenness is the order with so many men. Most of the time the fellow that wants special favors furnishes the liquor and then owns the legislator, hence the evils existing in our political affairs.

HUNTING PARTY ON OLD CHRISTMAS DAY

A party was out hunting Old Christmas Day, January 5, but failed to have any luck until late in the day. About dusk the dogs struck a good trail, which led the party to believe that it was a squirrel, but upon closer observation they found it to be a coon. After being shot twice the animal seized the heel of Mr. W. L. Taylor's boot and refused to turn loose until the return of the dogs. The coon weighed 11 pounds.—Reported

Blinding Headaches

"For about twenty years," says Mr. P. A. Walker, a well-known citizen of Newburg, Ky., "one of our family remedies has been Black-Draught, the old reliable. . . . I use it for colds, biliousness, sour stomach and indigestion. I was subject to headaches when my liver would get out of order. I would have blinding headaches and couldn't stoop about my work, just couldn't go. I used and it relieved me.

"About eight years ago my wife got down with liver and stomach trouble. . . . We tried all week to help her, . . . but she didn't get any better. One day I said to the doctor, 'I believe I will try Black-Draught, it helps my liver.' He said that I might try it and to follow directions. She was nauseated and couldn't eat a meal. She began taking Black-Draught and in two days she was great. . . . I did and in a week she was up.

Try Black-Draught. It costs only one cent a dose. Sold everywhere. E 99

There is less price variation due to quality in hogs than in any other animal in the live stock kingdom. Yet, quality speaks, even on the hog market, with top prices going to the smooth, plump porkers. According to the Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation, during the past year choice fat-backs in the lightweight class on the Chicago market, averaging from 150 to 200 pounds, brought from 37 cents to $1.50 per hundred over common hogs of the same class. At the beginning of the year choice lightweights were selling 37 cents a hundred over the common lot. Through February highest prices for lights were $1 over the low price. During March, April, May and June the spread narrowed only to widen again through July and August. In October top prices in the lightweight class were hovering around $10.00 while low quotations were two dollars less per hundred.

Butcher and bacon hogs are graded as choice, good and medium in the heavyweights, and choice, good, medium and common in other weights. Formerly there existed a grade known as prime, which possessed the maximum of condition, form and quality. At present it is extremely difficult to get this grade, or the desired market weights. Choice hogs have the conformation and quality that are desired in prime hogs, but are not quite so well finished. Good purebred sires are relatively cheap now and their use would insure higher quality litters next spring.

Weakening Night Coughing Banished Very Simple Way

It is really astonishing how a persistent, exasperating cough that has kept you awake night after night, and is rapidly wearing you down is usually stopped short by a very simple method. Hundreds have found that they can sleep the whole night through undisturbed often the first time they try it.

The method is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take a teaspoonful at night before retiring and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing, without following with water. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. Getting at the cause like this, in a perfectly simple way, it stops the spells almost instantly, you get your best night's rest perhaps in weeks, and in a very short time the whole cough condition is gone.

This simple treatment is splendid not only for coughs and chest colds, but also for bronchitis, bronchial asthma, hoarseness and almost every kind of throat irritation, including children's spasmodic croup. Very economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. On sale at all good druggists. Ask for
