BIRTHDAY PARTY

Miss Marguerite Cooke was at home to about fifty of her young friends Thursday night in celebration of her eighteenth birthday. Her home was attractively decorated with shaded lights and summer flowers, making a suitable background for the lovely young people. Dancing was engaged in and rook was played and a general good time was had by all.

The young hostess assisted by her mother, Mrs. John Cook and Miss Lyda Cooke served fruit punch and ice cream and cake.

Miss Cook was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

The fight is on now, Voter,
To nominate the man
For sheriff of Martin County.
Now, please do all you can.

For the aid of A. L. Roebuck,
Who sure deserves the praise
Of dealing fair with every man
That's hard to find these days.

He's asked you search his record,
And in it if you find
One blot to justify you
We'd have you change your mind.

But don't believe the gossip
That's rumored here and there
That if Roebuck's elected
R. Manning will fill the chair.

For this is false, through envy,
To down this noble man.
So come on all you voters
And join the Roebuck band.

Now, hold your nerve, Bro. Roebuck,
We know the time's not long
Before we'll nom-i-nate you
Three hundred ballots strong.
