Phenomenal Success of Harrison Oil Co.

A stranger in town recently asked the question, "Who is the Harrison Oil Co., and where are they from?" A Williamston citizen said they are from nowhere but here; they are just home folks; they are George and Gus Harrison, just two good hard-working brothers who were able to see ahead far enough to know that the demand for gas and oil was a coming thing. Three years ago they established a wholesale gas and oil business, putting one truck on the road. Their business grew and at the end of the first year they had built up such a large business that it required a second truck. They built the Texaco Filling Station, fronting the Coast Line railroad station. Their retail business grew so rapidly that they purchased the Highway Filling Station adjoining, and have since merged the two into the Highway Service Station. Early this year they constructed, on the corner of Main and Washington Streets, the Central Service Station which is one of the most beautiful as well as most complete filling stations in this end of the State. They station in Robersonville, known as the Robersonville Oil Co., which does a good business. They also have a 22,000 gallon storage tank at Robersonville, where they wholesale gas and oil furnishing Hassells, Gold Point, Parmele, Leens, and Stokes, from their tank wagon.

Their two trucks are constantly busy at Williamston, supplying the trade at Hamilton, Everetts Bear Grass, Jamesville, and many other intermediate points. They have large tanks on the river where they are supplied by tank steamers. Gus and George declare their success came from the superior products they handle, claiming the Texas gas and oil lead them all, but everybody that knows those fellows knows that they are workers and that at least a fair proportion of their success came from hard work and fair dealing—just two good wholesome business men.

WEAK, RESTLESS

Tennessee Lady Had So Little Strength She "Couldn't Get Around." Took Cardui With Benefit.

Caseway, Tenn.—"I wasn't able to do any of my work, and it seemed like I had so little strength I just couldn't get around," says Mrs. Frank Murphy, who lives near here. "My mother knew of the good Cardui could do, so she told me to take it. I sent and got a bottle, and seemed like all the time I grow stronger."

"I had been suffering with pains in my sides all the time, and Cardui helped this wonderfully. I needed a tonic for female trouble, and Cardui just fitted the need. I was awfully restless and could not sleep at night, but after taking two bottles of Cardui I could sleep like a top. I got along all right, and I know it was due to Cardui. I can certainly recommend it to women suffering from women's troubles. "My present health is just fine." Thousands of women have written to tell how Cardui relieved them of pain and suffering, and helped them to improve in health and strength. Cardui is perfectly harmless, being an extract of mild-acting herbs, and contains no dangerous drugs or harmful ingredients. Sold everywhere. NC-174
