Mrs. S. R. Biggs Hostess To Card Club Members
Mrs. S. R. Biggs was hostess to her card club last Thursday afternoon from 2:30 to 6:00 o'clock.

The hostess had an extra table and several invited guests. Her sister, Mrs. John J. Phillips, of Portsmouth, was guest of honor. The other visitors were Mrs. McCallum, of Greensboro, Mrs. A. R. Dunning, Mrs. J. W. Watts, jr., Mrs. K. B. Crawford, and Mrs. Elbert Peel.

Mrs. F. W. Hoyt made high score for the club members and she was presented a pair of salt and pepper dishes, and Mrs. Elbert Peel, who made high score for the guests, was given a hand-painted vase.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. W. Watts, jr., served frozen fruit salad, sweet pickles, potato chips, sandwiches, tea and salted peanuts.

Birthday Party

Mrs. N. Orleans and Mrs. W. R. Orleans entertained a number of the little friends of Freddie Orleans in honor of the little fellow's sixth birthday last evening.

The young people enjoyed themselves with outdoor games and play for an hour or more when they engaged in a Charleston contest. The winner was given a book of Bible stories. They were then invited to the dining room where a lovely birthday cake with six candles decorated the middle of the table. The guests were served ice cream and cake, prettily colored mints and salted peanuts.

The little fellow was remembered by his friends, the entire first grade at school being present and the teacher, Miss Emily Lincke, by many attractive gifts.

Mutton stew, amb chops, and roast mutton have been crossed off the menu of the British Army as a medium of economy. Roast and boiled beef and sausages are being offered as substitutes.

WILLIAMSTON'S LARGEST DEPARTMENT STORE

GORMAN'S MARKET REPORT

Gorman's has first sale Monday, Second sale Tuesday, First sale Wednesday, no sale Thursday, and Second sale Friday. The sales all finished each day last week around 4 o'clock. Up to Thursday night, GORMAN'S sold 519,000 pounds. Prices on fine and good-bodied tobacco up to thirty one or two have sold with us as good as any time this season. The thin cutters above 33 has been from 2 to 5 cents lower than two weeks ago, but on Wednesday new orders and instructions came on and then tobacco sold much better. Our Thursday's sale 174,482 pounds sold for $59,097.50, which averaged near 34 cents. Our customers with very few exceptions have all received more than they had expected. Many who had not been selling at Gorman's told us they had heard "tobacco was off," but theirs was the best sale they had made this season. It takes judgment and nerve to back this judgment to get the value, and we have both. We never try to deceive or make statements that can not be proved. Come, see us run a sale. "Seeing is believing," and we believe we will sell the balance of your crop. Below we give a few sales made Thursday:
