The Lowly Justices of the Peace

This is the day of enlightenment, peace is untrained and knows very little about the law. Yet he is, in most instances, the highest type citizen in his section; the man that wants to see his community prosper and build up.

Whatever disgrace may now be heaped upon the lowly justice of the peace, it must be said that he has been one of the great bulwarks of our civilization; help to establish peace and prosperity. Man for man, it is possible that the justice of the peace of North Carolina stands the equal of the superior court of North Carolina.

He gives almost free service and such advice as he is able.

It is not yet time for this wise generation to challenge the wisdom of our forefathers, who established the justice of the peace court system, and dignified it by a constitutional guarantee.

W. O. Saunders and Reuben Bland

It is a fact generally accepted that W. O. Saunders gets away with anything in his paper, regardless of how caustic or how vulgar it may be. Sometimes he can supply the very thing that other newspapers need to express themselves more clearly.

There has been a lot said and much written about Reuben Bland. It now appears that Saunders has closed the book; for, so far as we know, the limit is reached in his editorial, "Thank God for Monogamy," as follows:

"Enough of Reuben Bland. A smelly and bewhiskered old peasant from Martin County has by the hideous night work of half a century or such a matter begotten 34 children of record. And Carl Goerch, a Washington, N. C., newspaperman with a ghastly sense of humor and leisure for a lark, parades this pocosin bull of the Martin County hinterlands around the country, introducing him to President Coolidge and putting him on the picture pages of metropolitan newspapers. For what? It is certainly not to the glory of the country, the State, its manhood or its womanhood that one old man has laid around home for half a century and made a stud record that would provoke only a mirthful hee-haw of contempt from a two-year-old jack-ass. Thank God for human monogamy! What a state we would be in if polygamy were tolerated in a land where Reuben Blands are exalted."

Church Goes to War Too Easily

Mr. Ford's Dearborn Independent may be rattling just a little. It seems to be running in low and high gear both, on the same page, when in one editorial it says some very harsh things against certain anti-war clergy men. It calls the "prostrate victims" "natural cowards and selfish skulkers." Old Henry doesn't seem to know any more about Christianity than just ordinary common folks.

The church is generally hearkened in to war by the shout of "patriotism"; and the strange thing about it is that it does not seem to know that war is the command of the old dispensation and peace is the command of the new. It is contrary to every principle that Jesus taught for men or nations to go to war, and yet the church is dragged into every war, and seems not to appreciate its mission should be to ward peace rather than war.

Notice is hereby given that under and by virtue of a power of sale contained in that certain deed of trust executed by M. D. Mobley and wife, Lena C., and H. H. Cowan and wife, Nettie, to the undersigned trustee, and bearing date of September 1st, 1917, and of record in the public registry of Martin County in book M-1, at page 444, said deed of trust having been given to secure the payment of a certain note of even date and tenor therewith, and default having been made in the payment of said notes, and the terms and conditions in said deed of trust not having been complied with, and at the request of the holder of said notes, the undersigned trustee will, on Monday, the 21st day of February 1927, at 12 o'clock m. at the courthouse door of Martin County at Williamston, N. C., offer at public sale to the highest bidder for cash the following described real estate, to wit:

Being all of Lot No. 5, and a part of Lot No. 4 of the Leggett property on Washington Street in the town of

In another editorial on the same page he says the United States has enthroned Don Adolfo Diaz as president of Nicaragua, and virtually says that Diaz is nothing more than the fiscal agent of a Pittsburgh mining company.

Now, would the Dearborn Independent have the churches endorse and fight in a war to protect such graft and robbery, or would it excuse them?

Until the church learns that it is never called upon, patriotically, religiously, or other wise, to uphold national graft it will not properly know itself, and as long as it rushes into war every time some big fellow shouts "boo," and hollers "patriotism," wars will continue.

The church has always gone to war too easily.

Williamston, and being all of lots Nos. 4 and 5 of said property except the 31 ft. lot sold off of lot No. 4 by the parties of the first part to H. C. Hemby. For a full description of the said lots reference is hereby made to a deed from Martha H. Leggett to M. D. Mobley and H. H. Cowan, and to a map and survey of said property made by J. R. Mobley January 10th, 1917, and recorded in the public registry of Martin County in land division book No. 1, page 394.

THIN, NERVOUS

Virginia Lady Tells of Taking Cardui and Says She Has Since Recovered Perfect Health.

Lynchburg, Va.—"I have taken Cardui several times for a run-down condition and have found it perfectly splendid," says Mrs. Lee T. Marsh, 715 First Street, this city.

"About ten years ago," she explains, "I became so weak I could not go about. I looked like a skeleton and . . . was dreadfully worried about myself. A friend suggested Cardui and I decided to try it. . . . I kept up the medicine until I had taken six bottles. It regulated and built me up. I improved greatly. . . . Last year we drove up here through the country from Florida. I was exposed to the weather and must have taken cold, for I became ill. . . . I got run-down, lost flesh. . . . could not sleep and had no appetite at all. . . . I was so nervous that I did not know what to do.

"I thought of Cardui. I began to take it regularly and it was not long before I began to feel better. I took six bottles, one after another, and at the finish of the last one was perfectly well again. Since then I have continued gaining in weight and all winter have been in perfect health."

Sold by all druggists. NC-172
