More Hope for China

Hope for China seems brighter. General Chiang, who has been leading the Cantonese Army, has been deposed. Nothing is more hopeful in any form of government as the power of the people to cast out their corrupt and vicious leaders. It shows the mind of the people is to do right rather than to battle without mercy.

The Break-Down of the Ford-Sapiro Case

The Detroit court which has been engaged in the trial of the Sapiro-Ford case seems to be falling into disrepute. Judge Raymond has been rebuked by an attorney in the case, with the public announcement in open court that he had closeted with counsel on the opposite side.

This is about what we generally see when so much is at stake. Men can't stand too much pressure. Judas could stand 29 pieces of silver, but when the 30th dropped into his hand, then he kissed.

There seems to be too many detectives, too much Jew, and too much money in the case.

It will be a pity if the court breaks down in disgrace. It will be so hard to explain the reason in case it does.

The Outgrowth of a Political Machine

Some of the leading newspaper correspondents of the State are commenting on the reason for so many changes being made in county superintendents of schools. At least half a dozen questions are suggested as the reason. While at least that many possible answers are given, there seems to be several sound suggested reasons, while others will not stand a close analysis.

In the case of a more progressive and economic school system the two words "progress" and "economy" are not by any means synonymous terms. Progressive and honest administration is always proper. But this is a day of big costs, and if we progress it calls for money.

Centralized government is doubtless the greatest cause for the many changes. Headquarters are permitted to make rules and regulations. They are frequently too hard or impractical to be handled by the practical business man and old timer, so these matters are generally placed in the hands of the college machine-made man who is usually ripe in theory but not always the most practical.

The plan now is to turn everything by means of an unending mass of fig-

BOY WAS SICK

Texan Tells How He Got Acquainted With the Good Work of Black-Draught as a Laxative.

Glendora, Texas.—"I had a sick spell when just fifteen years old," says Mr. George W. Maness, R.F.D. 2, this place. "Anyone who has had chills, like I had, is apt to remember them. I was a sick boy—just lay around the home, weak. My skin was yellow and I could hardly stand up. I had hard chills.

"My father gave me quinine. Someone told him to give me Black-Draught with it. He brought some home, and they fixed it up like a tea. It wasn't very good, but I was so sick I would take anything.

"After a few days, I began to feel better. I was hungry and could eat. I kept on taking the tea for awhile, and I got well. I haven't had chills since then, but I have taken a lot of Black-Draught since that time. It is a family medicine with me."

Where assistance is needed in the way of a laxative or cathartic, Theford's Black-Draught should be taken, as often as necessary, to open the bowels and put them in a healthy and normal state of activity. Try it; it's a dose.

How sweetly all cars would run if all motor oils were as good as "Standard"

As the silent miles slip by in a ribbon of road, you realize how much the motor car owes to its lubricating oil and how important it is to have the right oil. "Standard" Motor Oil is the result of over 50 years' experience. The best qualities claimed for various lubricating oils are all in this one oil. It withstands heat, holds its body and guards against carbon deposits.
