Twentieth Century Club Meeting Held Tuesday

The Twentieth Century Club was entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. J. W. Watts, jr., at her home in New Town. The topic of study for the day was "The American Indian of the Middle West." Mrs. Wheeler Martin, jr., had the first paper, "Indians and the American Government." This interesting article was followed by a reading by Mrs. John W. Manning on the topic, "Desert Life." Mrs. Rome Biggs had current events.

The hostess served a salad course after the books were exchanged. Special guests were Miss Delphia Peebles, Mesdames W. T. Hunter, W. H. Crawford, R. F. Heydenreich, W. E. Warren, and Hugh G. Horton.

Entertains With Bridge Party and Dance

Mrs. J. Lawrence Peele entertained on Monday afternoon with a bridge party at her home on Church Street. Nine tables were arranged for the game, and places were found by George Washington favor cards. Miss Lucille Allen made high score and was given a pair of sheer silk hose, and Mrs. John Cook was remembered, as consolation prize, with a bath towel.

Mrs. Peele was assisted in serving an ice course by Misses Eugenia Hoyt, Virginia Harrison, and Ruth Peel.

Each guest was presented with a cherry bouquet as a token of George Washington's birthday.

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Peele entertained about 50 friends with a dance. Mrs. Peel, assisted by her daughter, served ham, chicken, and pimento sandwiches, celery, olives, and dill pickles. The evening guests were also given cherry favors.

Gives Birthday Party For Bride-Elect

Last night at the Woman's Club, Mesdames J. A. Leggett, Mary B. Harrell Osborne, W. L. Manning, and W. A. Cherry and Miss Mary Leggett entertained with a birthday party for Miss Mary Clyde Leggett.

bride-elect.

There were about 50 guests present. Partners were drawn and each couple wrote a wish for the guest of honor, and then dancing was enjoyed for a while. There was a table placed in the center of the room, where little Misses Ray Leggett and Gwen Osborne, dressed in Colonial costumes, as boy and girl, brought an attractively decorated wagon full of gifts and gave them to Miss Leggett.

A salad course, with black coffee, was served by the hostesses, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McKenzie. Then a ink and white birthday cake was brought out decorated with 25 candles, which was cut and passed to the guests.

Mrs. W. A. Cherry served fruit punch from an attractively decorated table in the front of the reception hall throughout the evening.

Powered by a Brute of an Engine All-American in Design

What a power plant! What a clean, uncluttered example of advanced engineering design! That's what you think when you lift the hood of the All-American Six. That's why this brilliant car is amazing everyone who takes the wheel... A brute of an engine, indeed. With a 79-pound crankshaft... crankcase and cylinder block of "bridge-truss" design... generously large connecting rods and other vital parts. With many other notable advancements... G-M-R cylinder head... fuel pump... full pressure oiling of moving parts... Small wonder it's famous for conquering America's stiffest mountain grades. Small wonder it has never found the road too rough or the pass too trying... Yet for all its wealth of power, it's silent and smooth. And for speed and snap and handling ease... just drive it yourself and see!

PRICES: 2-door Sedan, $1045; Landau Coupe, $1045; Sport Roadster, $1075; 4-door Sedan, $1145; Cabriolet, $1155; Landau Sedan, $1265.

New Series Pontiac Six, $745 to $875. All prices at factory. Delivered prices include minimum handling charges. Easy to pay on the liberal General Motors Time Payment Plan.

Special Sport Equipment Available on all body types. Six wire wheels with tire wells... two special tire locks and locking rings... collapsible trunk rack... $100 extra on open cars... $110 on closed cars... $25 on closed models.
