There were eleven tables, arranged for bridge in the lobby of the Woman's Club rooms and on each table were dishes of salted nuts, attractive place cards with green and white backgrounds indicated the places at the tables. That color scheme was carried out in the decorations, vases of lilies of the valley being used in suitable places.

The refreshments were green and white ice cream with mints of the same colors and cake. A bunch of lilies of the valley was given each guest as favors. Mrs. K. B. Crawford made high score and was presented a refreshment set. The consolation prize, a tape measure, went to Mrs. Milton Moye, and Mrs. Marchant was remembered with a piece of dainty lingerie.

WOMEN'S PAINS They Were Relieved by Cardui Which This Georgia Lady Took on Her Mother's Advice.

Columbus, Ga.—"I don't see why women will drag around, in a half-hearted way, never feeling well, barely able to drag, when Cardui might help put them on their feet, as it did me," says Mrs. Geo. S. Hunter, of this city. "I suffered with dreadful pains in my sides. I had to go to bed and stay sometimes two weeks at a time. I could not work, and just dragged around the house. I got very thin. I went from a hundred and twenty-six pounds down to less than a hundred. My mother had long been a user of Cardui, and she knew what a good medicine it was for this trouble. So she told me to get some and take it. I sent to the store for Cardui, and before I had taken the first bottle I began to improve. My side hurt less, and I began to mend in health. I took the second bottle, and felt much better. I followed this by two more bottles. Cardui acted as a fine tonic. I do not feel like the same person. I am well now, and still gaining. My sides do not trouble me at all." For sale by druggists, everywhere. Give it a trial. NC-188
