NOTE OF THANKS

The pastor and congregation of the Baptist church desire to thank the people of Williamston who so generously and so graciously opened their homes to the delegates attending the convention here last week.

Without this assistance from the people in Williamston, the church would have found it practically impos sible to handle the great crowds which gathered here.

The church is deeply alive to the hospitality shown by the non-Baptists in town, and is very grateful.

C. H. DICKEY, Pastor Baptist Church.
