

Society & Personals
 Mrs. ELBERT S. PEEL, Editor
 PHONE Anything for This Department To 46

Accepts Position in Belhaven
 Miss Ruth Bailey, of Everetts, has accepted a position with the Greenville Banking and Trust Company in their Belhaven Branch. She will make her home there in the future.

Visit the Cones
 Messrs. Milton and Burtis Cone, of Richmond, visited their brother, Dr. P. B. Cone, and Mrs. Cone here over the week-end.

Sunday Visitors
 Miss Effie Waldo and Mr. S. D. Matthews, of Hamilton, were visitors here Sunday.

Business Visitors Here
 Messrs. Golden and Gothe Godard of Williamston R. F. D. 4, were here yesterday on business.

Here from Plymouth
 Mrs. Zeno Lyons and Miss Martha Hornthal, of Plymouth, visited their sister, Mrs. W. B. Watts, here Sunday.

Here on Professional Business
 Professor H. M. Ainsley, of Oak City, was here yesterday on professional business.

Here from Hamilton
 Miss Mary Waldo, of Hamilton, visited here yesterday.

Visiting in Newport News
 Mrs. N. C. Green and little daughter, Sylva, and Mrs. Chas. James are visiting in Newport News this week.

Attend Firemen's Meeting
 Mr. and Mrs. Ira Harrison and Mr. and Mrs. Julian Harrell are in Statesville this week where Mr. Harrell and Mr. Harrison are attending the annual meeting of the North Carolina Firemen's association.

House Party Guests
 Miss Thelma Brown and Mr. Jas. C. Cook were guests at Miss Miriam Cox's house party at Wrightsville Beach over the week-end.

Returns from New York
 Mr. Frank Margolis returned Friday from New York where he had been for the past three weeks purchasing fall merchandise for his firm.

Visit Mrs. King
 Mrs. Graydon Paul and two little sons, of Beaufort, spent the week-end with Mrs. Jim King. Mrs. King and little daughter, Miss Patsy, and Miss Rosalie Inman, returned to Beaufort Sunday to visit Mrs. Paul a few days.

Visit the Peels
 Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Hancock, of Norfolk, visited Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Peel and family here Sunday.

Returns to Home in Weldon
 Mrs. V. A. Whitfield returned to her home in Weldon Sunday after visiting her sister, Mrs. Vernon Godwin and Mr. Godwin here for several days.

In Washington City
 Mrs. Robert Heydenreich and Miss Eugenia Hoyt are visiting Mr. Heydenreich in Washington City this week.

Return from Petersburg
 Mr. and Mrs. Joel Muse returned Sunday from Petersburg where they visited relatives several days.

Visit the Brandons
 Miss Bess Dale and Mr. Holden, of Snow Hill, visited Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Brandon here Sunday.

Return from Dunn
 Misses Myrnie Brown and Eva Harrison returned home Sunday from Dunn where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Parker for two weeks.

Visiting Daughter Here
 Mrs. Anderson, of Leggetts, is here for a few days visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Harrison and family.

Here from Griffins
 Messrs. Jas. L. Coltrain and Chas. Roberson, of Griffins township, were business visitors here yesterday.

Here from Jamesville
 Mr. Clarence Sexton, of Jamesville, was a business visitor here yesterday.

Here from Oak City
 Mr. T. W. Davenport, of Oak City, was in town yesterday.

Lieutenant Governor Here
 Lieutenant Governor R. T. Fountain, of Rocky Mount, was here for a short while Friday afternoon.

Visiting Mrs. Ward
 Miss Opal Lilley, of Plymouth, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. John A. Ward here this week.

In Tarboro Yesterday
 Mrs. J. Sam Getsinger, Miss Mittie Brown, Mrs. John A. Ward and Miss Opal Lilley, of Plymouth, were in Tarboro for a short while yesterday morning.

Returns to Norfolk
 Mrs. D. E. Gurganus returned to Norfolk Sunday after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Brown, here.

Here from Jamesville
 Mr. C. J. Griffin, of Jamesville, was a business visitor here yesterday.

In Morehead City Sunday
 Messrs. W. Henry Gurkin and Jas. E. Harrell spent Sunday at Morehead City.

Leave for Murphy
 Rev. and Mrs. Charles H. Dickey and sons leave Wednesday for Murphy, where they will visit Mr. Dickey's people. Mrs. Dickey will visit friends in Atlanta and East Tennessee before returning home.

Return to Philadelphia
 Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Ponder and children have returned to their home in Philadelphia after a visit with Mrs. Ponder's sister, Mrs. Charles H. Dickey, and family.

Returns From Georgia
 Mr. Theodore Hassell has returned from Camille, Ga., where he was employed on the tobacco market for the past several weeks.

HARRELL-WARREN

Succumbing to the new contagion of recent weeks, Mr. Julian H. Harrell was married very early Monday morning to Miss Frances Warren at the pastorium of the local Baptist church.

The wedding party, in addition to the bride and groom, was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Harrison, Mr. Mayo Grimes, and Miss Carrie B. Warren, all of whom witnessed the ceremony.

Mr. Harrell is well known in this section as a responsible young business man with many friends, while the bride, the former Miss Warren, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Warren, of near Robersonville, is a popular member of Martin county's younger set.

The marriage was performed at 7 o'clock by the Rev. Charles H. Dickey. And the newly married couple, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ira Harrison, left immediately for Western North Carolina and points in Virginia. Upon their arrival back home within a week or ten days they will be at home in Williamston to their many friends.

Mrs. Godwin Hostess

At her home on Main Street on Friday evening from 8:30 to 11:30 Mrs. Vernon D. Godwin entertained for her sister, Mrs. V. A. Whitfield, of Weldon, who visited her last week.

Lovely bowls of roses and dahlias enhanced the attractiveness of the living and dining rooms, where bridge was played during the evening. Mrs. Elbert S. Peel made high score and was given a set of Godey's card, and the honoree was presented silk hose. After several progressions, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. C. H. Godwin and little Miss Alma Godwin, served a delectable salad course.

House Party at Bayview

Oak City, Aug. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. James Rawles are chaperoning the following on a house party at Bayview this week: Misses Frances and Irma Faye House, Ruth Perry, and Gladys Everett, of Robersonville; Bonner Swindell, of Washington; Naomi Etheridge, Mary Kathryn Ainsley, and Sara Long Johnson.

HAMILTON NEWS

Miss Ruth Pippin is also improving rapidly and is able to visit friends. The many friends of Mr. Bob Edmondson will be glad to know that he is reported much improved at this time. It is hoped that he will soon be able to be up again.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo and daughter of Oak City; and Messrs. Marvin Everett, Ernest Etheridge, Clayton House, of Robersonville; George Haislip, of Hassells; Jimmy Johnson, of Washington; Herman Everett, of Hamilton; and Cleaton Harrell, of Coleraine.

ter, Mary, Mrs. Hennie Ballard and Miss Effie Waldo are spending the week at Manteo, where they attended the celebration of the Virginia Dare anniversary on the 18th.

Mrs. L. B. Hughes and Mrs. Mary Upchurch, of Raleigh, are spending their vacation here with their mother, Mrs. M. L. Bellamy.

The Rev. E. P. West, of Hobequot was in town last Sunday afternoon en route to Williamston to hold an appointment for the Rev. Dickey.

Mr. Clomen Kitchen, of Scotland Neck spent the past week here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Johnson went to Bayview Sunday.

Misses Allie Marie Roebuck and Floried Cox and Messrs. Ira Ainsley and Nat Johnson, of Oak City, went to the show at Williamston last Tuesday night.

Mr. Whit Davis and Misses Catherine Everett and Evelyn Davis went to Norfolk Wednesday.

Misses Martha Salsbury and Mildred Everett and Mr. Paul Salsbury jr., went to the show Tuesday night in Williamston.

Miss Martha Roebuck, of Everetts, visited her sister, Mrs. E. L. Pippen last week.

Messrs. Herman Everett and Bogue Slade, jr., went to Atlantic Beach Tuesday night.

Miss Peggie Long, of Pinetops, is visiting Miss Effie Waldo at this time.

Miss Mattie Davenport, of Rocky Mount, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Davenport, last week.

Mrs. F. F. Davenport and sister, of Louisburg, Va., visited friends in Scotland Neck last Tuesday.

Mr. F. L. Haislip and daughter, Elizabeth, Mrs. J. S. Ayers, and Miss Martha Colnsel went to Ocean View Wednesday.

OAK CITY NEWS

Oak City, Aug. 24.—Miss Adeline Tew, a teacher in the Oak City school, from Portsmouth, Va., was a visitor last week in the home of Mrs. T. W. Davenport.

Mr. and Mrs. Woolard Daniel and little son, of Rocky Mount, spent Sunday with Mrs. Daniel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hines.

Miss Bertha Piland, who has been a summer student at Columbia University, returned home Friday.

The Robersonville Baptist Sunday School led the school at Oak City Baptist church Sunday.

Miss Selma Johnson, who has been a student at Wake Forest summer school, returned home last week.

Mr. Abner Brown, who is working on school trucks in Williamston, was home for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Brown visited Mrs. Brown's relatives, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ambrose, of Creswell, last week.

Miss Mildred Moye, of Gold Point, spent the week-end with her brother, Mr. Jack Moye.

Messrs. Harry Daniel and Francis Harrell and Misses Ruth Pearson and Avril Woodley motored to Rocky Mount Sunday.

Mr. Cleaton Harrell, of Coleraine, and Miss Gladys Everett, of Robersonville, were visitors in town Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Russell have gone to Stony Point, where Mr. Russell will enter upon his duties as science teacher and athletic coach in the high school there.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wiggins, of Pinetops, visited Mrs. Wiggins' mother, Mrs. Sara Worsley, Sunday.

The winner of the 1931 Ohio poem contest is Mrs. Lida Keck-Wiggins, of Springfield, Ohio, whose poem was chosen out of 4,200 manuscripts submitted.

Lumber For Every Need!

THE FIRST STEP TOWARD ECONOMY AND PERMANENCY IN BUILDING IS A CONSULTATION WITH THIS OFFICE. WE CAN ADVISE YOU, COUNSEL YOU CONCERNING THE BEST TYPES OF LUMBER AND HELP YOU SECURE IT. OUR SERVICES GO FURTHER THAN MERELY SELLING LUMBER — WE SELL YOU THE RIGHT KIND OF LUMBER. OUR EXPERIENCE, TOGETHER WITH THE LUMBER SUPPLIES WE OFFER WILL HELP YOU ACCOMPLISH BEAUTIFUL RESULTS. SEE US IF YOU CONTEMPLATE ANY BUILDING PROJECT.

Headquarters For The Builder!

BUILDING MATERIALS OF EVERY KIND AND TYPE — BRICK — LIME — CEMENT — PLAIN AND FANCY WOODWORK — ROOFING — AND OTHER BUILDING NECESSITIES.

Slogan: 'We Sell Everything to Build Anything'

We Wholesale and Retail

COFFINS AND CASKETS

We have employed expert workmen in our coffin and casket department, and we are in position to save you money. No freight rate, no middle-man commissions, and twenty-four hour service. For further information as to quality and prices, We extend to you our invitation to call at our office or phone 20.

MURRAY & McCABE

LUMBER CO.

WILLIAMSTON, NORTH CAROLINA