

NEGRO IS BADLY INJURED WHEN STRUCK BY AUTO

Steps in Front of Car Driven By Leonard Harney, Robersonville Man

Robersonville, N. C., November 5.—Jesse Moore, Beaufort County negro, was run down and seriously hurt, as he walked the highway near Washington last Tuesday night about 8 o'clock by a car driven by Leonard Harney, local white boy. Moore was removed to a Washington hospital, doctors there stating that his recovery is very doubtful.

12 PERMITS TO MARRY ISSUED LAST MONTH

Four White and Eight Colored Couples Married I in October

Colored lovers in Martin County ignored the depression last month, when 16 of them applied for licenses at the office of Register of Deeds J. Sam Geringer, got them and were hooked up. The whites took the situation more seriously than they did the month before, the number of licenses issued in the county dropping from 6 in September to 4 last month. All in all, the eight colored couples were from this county, while half of the whites were from foreign territory.

GAS TAX YIELDS ENORMOUS SUM IN THIS COUNTRY

Despite Depression, Revenue From Gasoline Tax Continues Climb

Stock drop, banks fail, land sold for taxes, salaries are cut, unemployment increases and yet the consumption of gasoline continues to climb in America. This increase is attributed to the more general use of gasoline for business, the increase in buses and large truck lines operating throughout the States.
