Miss Fleming Entertains

Jamesville, March 10.—Miss Camille Fleming was a charming hostess to members of her bridge club and a few invited guests at her home here Thursday evening.

Three tables were arranged, and after several progressions, scores were added and cards presented to Miss Louise Roebuck for holding high score.

A delicious salad course was then served by the hostess, assisted by her aunt, Mrs. Kathleen W. Lilley. Those invited other than club members, were Misses Emily Smithwick, Louise Roebuck and Annie Horner.

Mrs. Carl Barefoot and little son, Carl, jr., and Misses Camille Fleming, Fannie L. Martin, Annie Horner and Louise Roebuck will leave tomorrow afternoon for Hertford to spend the week-end with Mrs. Barefoot's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. White. They will also visit in Norfolk Saturday, returning to Jamesville Sunday afternoon.

1. That we express to his family our deepest sympathy and love, and to commend them to the watchcare of Him whom he served and loved.

2. That a copy of these resolutions be published in the Biblical Recorder and in The Enterprise, a copy be written in the church minutes, and a copy be furnished each member of his family.

R. O. MARTIN,
PERLIE J. MODLIN,
ANNIE V. HORNER.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT
The members of Cedar Branch Baptist church, Jamesville, were saddened by the sudden death of one of their most devoted and loyal members when, on January 10, 1932, the death angel claimed for its own the spirit of Charles A. Askew, sr. As individuals and as a church, we deeply feel and mourn his loss.

He lived to be 56 years old. He was a most estimable man; one whose life was beyond reproach.

Therefore be it resolved:
1. That in Mr. Askew's death we have lost a noble friend, and promoter of all the activities of the church that he loved so well.

2. That we are thankful for his life, which was one "hid with Christ in God," and was spent in loving service to others as unto Him. Like his Master, he spent his life doing good for others.

3. That we express to his family our deepest sympathy and love, and to commend them to the watchcare of Him whom he served and loved.

4. That a copy of these resolutions be published in the Biblical Recorder and in The Enterprise, a copy be written in the church minutes, and a copy be furnished each member of his family.

R. O. MARTIN,
PERLIE J. MODLIN,
ANNIE V. HORNER.
