CEDAR BRANCH

A special Easter program will feature the Sunday evening service in the Cedar Branch Baptist Church, near Jamesville, it was announced by the pastor, Rev. W. B. Harrington, this week. More than 15 members of the church will take part in the program, and a large attendance is expected upon the service, beginning at 7:30 p. m. Next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock Rev. Mr. Harrington will fill his regular appointment at the Riddick's Grove Church.

ATENDING church is one of the most enjoyable privileges of men.

Next Sunday will be celebrated through the Christian world as Easter Sunday. The churches of Williamston are anxious to have your presence at all their services.

BAPTIST

A special Easter sermon and Easter music have been prepared for the service at the Baptist church Sunday morning. And in addition, there will be a baptismal service.

This is one day in the church year when large numbers of people are always expected. And the pastor of the church wishes to extend an invitation to the membership of other communions who may not have a service on this day, to worship with us.

There will be no evening service.

EPISCOPAL

There will be only one service at this church Sunday, Church school, at 10 a. m. Mr. Maurice S. Moore is superintendent.
