Double Wedding

When Mary Wynn Roebuck was married to A. Z. Clark and Fannie Gurganov became the wife of Leamon Beach, in one and the same ceremony at the Baptist parsonage Saturday evening, it was the first time there had been a double wedding in Williamston in many a day.

Mr. Dickey was out somewhere when the couples came. He was called in, as he thought, to marry one man to one woman, but upon arrival at the home he found there were two couples prepared to try out the "noble experiment." Being in a hurry to get back to another engagement, the pastor stood both couples on the floor, all in a row, and read the ceremony, and in no time at all they were men and wives, and Mr. Dickey had gone on about his business.

Those witnessing the double-header ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Alex Page, Mrs. Chas. H. Dickey and young son, David Dale.

Hostess Friday

Friday night Miss Viola Grimes entertained a number of friends at her home near here with an "old-time candy party," honoring Mr. Gomer Taylor, who leaves this week for Nashville, Tenn.

As the guests arrived they were presented with Hallow'en hats and invited into the living room, where games were enjoyed until the time came to "pull the candy." Then every one journeyed into the kitchen. After the candy was made the living room was again the scene of much fun.

Those present besides the hostesses were Mesdames W. L. Taylor, W. J. Taylor, L. L. Walters, W. E. and G. D. Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. Hewitt Edwards, Misses Ruth Edwards, Beatrix Roebuck, Gleen Grimes, Ethel Holliday, Mamie Clyde Taylor, Ida Taylor, Walters, Nora Taylor Grimes, Gomer Taylor, Raymond Gurkin, Roland Holliday, Thomas Walters, George D. Grimes, George Daniel Grimes, jr., Robert Grimes, Bennie Grimes, and Haywood Holliday.

Rawls, of Williamston, were married Saturday evening, October 22, at 6 o'clock at the home of Rev. B. S. Cowan. Witnesses to the ceremony were Miss Lillian Coltrain and Messrs. Louis Harrison and Clayton Cowan, all of Williamston.

Mr. and Mrs. Rawls will be at home with the bride's parents for the next several months.

Wake Up Your Liver Bile - Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rin' to Go

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas blocks up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.
